

Arts & Entertainment

Kam’s Kapsules: Movies Opening Friday, Feb. 15

WIDE RELEASES

Alita: Battle Angel (PG-13 for action, violence and brief profanity) Rosa Salazar tackles the title role in this post-apocalyptic sci-fi as a cyborg with amnesia recruited by a compassionate scientist (Christoph Waltz) to break the world’s cycle of death and destruction. Cast includes Mahershala Ali, Jennifer Connelly, Jackie Earle Haley and Michelle Rodriguez.

Kam Williams
Kam’s Kapsules Movie Reviews

on a subway platform. Supporting cast includes Liam Hemsworth, Adam Devine and Priyanka Chopra.

INDEPENDENT & FOREIGN FILMS

Birds of Passage (Unrated) Colombian crime thriller, set in the 1970s, about an indigenous family that comes to regret dealing drugs. Co-starring Jose Acosta, Carmina Martinez and Natalia Reyes. (In English, Spanish and Wayuu with subtitles)

Donnybrook (R for profanity, drug use, graphic nudity, and disturbing violence and sexuality) Adaptation of Frank Bill’s best seller of the same name about an ex-Marine (Jamie Bell) and a meth dealer (Frank Grillo) who enter an illicit, bare-knuckle cage match with a $100,000 winner take all purse. Featuring Margaret Qualley, James Badge Gale and Chris Brown-ing.

‘Birds of Passage’

Fighting with My Family (PG-13 for sexuality, violence, crude humor, drug use and pervasive profanity) Fact-based comedy about a couple of retired pro wrestlers (Nick Frost and Lena Headey) whose children (Florence Pugh and Jack Lowden) dream of following in their parents’ footsteps. With Dwayne Johnson, Vince Vaughn and Stephen Merchant.

The Lears (Unrated)

Dysfunctional family dramedy about an aging architect (Bruce Dern) who invites his four children to a weekend retreat to announce that he’s marrying his personal assistant (Victoria Smurfit) that Sunday. Featuring Anthony Michael Hall, Sean Astin, Aly Michalka, Nic Bishop and James Hoare.

Ruben Brandt, Collector (R for violence and nude images) Animated suspense thriller about a psychotherapist (Ivan Kamaras) who, with help from four of his patients, steals priceless works of art from the Louvre, MOMA, the Hermitage and other museums in order to alleviate his suffering from violent nightmares. Cast includes Gabriella Hamori, Katalin Dombi and Csaba Marton. (In English and Hungarian with subtitles)

‘Isn’t It Romantic’

Sorry Angel (Unrated) Romance drama, set in Paris in 1993, about a renowned writer (Pierre Deladonchamps) who falls in love with a gay film student (Vincent Lacoste) from Brittany about half his age. With Denis Podalydes, Adele Wismes and Thomas Gonzalez. (In French with subtitles)

This One’s for the Ladies (R for nudity, graphic images, sexual simulations and pervasive profanity) Raunchy documentary revolving around a New Jersey karate dojo which morphs into a male strip club every Thursday night. Featuring performances by Tyga, Raw Dawg and Poundcake.

Experience
OREGON

EXHIBIT GRAND OPENING FEB. 14

Free admission & special events Feb. 14–18

THE OREGON HISTORICAL SOCIETY

FOUNDED 1898

“Protecting Your Assets”

What Every Current & Future Homeowner Should Know!

Presented by the
African American Alliance for Homeownership

Saturday, February 23, 2019

10am - 1pm

East Portland Community Center
740 SE 106th Ave
Portland, OR 97216
(Free Parking)

This exhilarating workshop covers:

- AAAH’s Homeowner Resources
- Estate Planning 101
- Pros & Cons of Reverse Mortgage
- Insurance Protection

Register online at: www.aaah.org or
Call: 503-595-3517 ext. 302

Free Lunch Provided

