

Events & Announcements

Portland News Briefs

OHSU to Screen 'No Más Bebés' Documentary

On April 16, the OHSU Center for Women's Health and the OHSU Library will be screening the Emmy nominated film No Más Bebés.

The documentary features a group of Mexican immigrant mothers who were sterilized while giving birth at Los Angeles County General Hospital in the 1960s and 1970s.

With the help of a 26-year-old Chicana lawyer, these mothers confronted these powerful institutions and would later sue the doctors involved, the United States government and the state.

A discussion will follow the film featuring speakers Michelle Berlin, M.D., M.P.H., Director, OHSU Center for Women's Health, Blair G. Darney, Ph.D., M.P.H., Assistant Professor, OHSU School of Medicine and OHSU-PSU School of Public Health, and Yareli Cornejo-Torres, PSU public health major and Build Exitos scholar.

The screening will begin at 6:00 p.m. at the Collaborative Life Sciences Building and Skourtes Tower located at 2730 SW Moody Ave.

Voter Registration Deadline for the May 21 Special District Election is April 30

The Multnomah County Special District Election for local school district, water district, and rural fire protection district board members will take place May 21. There may also be local measures that include requests for local tax money or proposed changes to laws. Special District Elections are held every odd number year in May.

A Day of Remembrance for King

Lynn French and Clyde Merriwether, members of the Mt. Zion Brotherhood Ministry, place a wreath by a bust of Martin Luther King Jr. during "A Day of Remembrance & Awards Ceremony, Commemorating the Life and Legacy of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. on the 51st Anniversary of his Assassination" April 4 at Mount Zion Baptist Church. The Church bell was rung 51 times. Eight community members were presented with awards during the event, including the Youth Leadership Award to Jesse Johnson Council member, City of Federal Way; Community organizing Award, Shaude Moore, Chair, MLK Jr. Organizing Coalition; Social Justice Award, Jimmy Matta, Mayor City of Burien; Advocacy Award, Jesse Wineberry, Chair I-1000 Campaign; Lifetime Achievement Award, Larry Gossett, MLK County Council member; Legislative Leadership Award, Rep Sharon Tomiko Santos, 37th District; Legacy Award, Velma Veloria, Co-Founder CIRCC; Civil Rights Award, Gerald Hankerson, President NAACP Alaska, Oregon Washington Conference.

April 30 is the voter registration deadline for the May 21 Special District Election.

Oregon voters can register online or fill out a paper Oregon Voter Registration Card available at the elections office, public library, Oregon Department of Motor Vehicles, or post office.

Each of Multnomah County's more than 536,800 eligible voters will then receive a ballot the first week of May.

Multnomah County Elections asks voters to check that their address, party affiliation, and name are up-to-date in their voter registration record.

Voters can update their information online or with an Oregon Voter Registration Card.

Voters who will be away from home on election day should request an absentee ballot to be mailed to their temporary address.

Voters should visit Elections Frequently Asked Questions at multco.us/absentee or call Multnomah County Elections for assistance in requesting an absentee ballot as soon as possible.

Voters can sign up to track their ballot and get a virtual "I Voted" sticker.

Community Calendar 2019 Portland Metro

SATURDAY, APRIL 13

OHSU LIBRARY SATURDAY SKETCH: Join OHSU for an afternoon of creativity and inspiration. People are invited to view and draw inspiration from rare artifacts and books in the historical collections. Pencils, papers and drawing boards will be provided. Photographers are also welcome. Free, 1 p.m. - 3 p.m., OHSU Library, BICC Building, 3rd floor, 3280 SW Sam Jackson Park Road.

SUNDAY, APRIL 14

UDBA MUSIC MINISTRY ANNUAL RESURRECTION CONCERT AND BAZAAR: Please join the UDBA choir for our Annual Resurrection Concert! This year there will be a bazaar immediately following the concert where you can support our local vendors. The concert starts at 5 p.m., at Maranatha Church of God, 4222 N. 12th Ave.

WOMEN'S RESISTANCE IN EARLY TWENTIETH CENTURY OREGON: The Oregon Historical Society hosts a lecture on the various methods women in Oregon used throughout the early twentieth century to protest the status quo of the era. Free, 2 p.m. - 3:30 p.m., Oregon Historical Society, 1200 SW Park Avenue.

TUESDAY, APRIL 16

OHSU FILM SCREENING No Más Bebés: The OHSU Center for Women's Health and the OHSU Library will be screening the Emmy nominated film No Más Bebés. The documentary features a group of Mexican immigrant mothers who were sterilized while giving birth at Los Angeles County General Hospital in the 1960s and 1970s. Free, 6 p.m. - 8 p.m., Collaborative Life Sciences Building and Skourtes Tower, 2730 SW Moody Ave.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17

'BLACK GIRL IN SUBURBIA' SCREENING: Director Melissa Lowery's documentary film details the experiences of Black girls growing up in White-majority communities. A Q&A with Lowery will follow the film. Free (register online), 12 p.m. - 1:30 p.m., Zapproved, Inc, 1414 Northwest Northrup Street #700.

URBAN WEEDS WORKSHOP: The East Multnomah Soil and Water Conservation District is hosting a workshop to help people learn about common garden weeds and how to manage them without using synthetic herbicides. Free (register online), 6 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. at Gresham City Hall, 1333 NW Eastman Pkwy.

JEFF ALWORTH TO READ AT BROADWAY BOOKS: Author and beer connoisseur Jeff Alworth will discuss his recent book focusing on the Widmer brothers and the rise of a craft brew behemoth. Free, 7-8 p.m., Broadway Books is located, 1714 NE Broadway.

SATURDAY, APRIL 20

EARTH DAY WORK PARTY: Pitch in this Earth Day during the Boise Eliot Native Grove community clean-up and celebration. The event will feature the unveiling of the Oak Meadow Bench, a new "Bee Hotel" and sculptures. Volunteers should bring their own work gloves to the event. Children are welcome with a parent or supervising adult. Free, 10 a.m. - 1 p.m., Boise Eliot Native Grove, 300 N Ivy St.

Seattle Metro

SATURDAY, APRIL 6

NOELLE PRICE PRESENTS VOID: BASE Performance Space will host writer, poet and choreographer Noelle Price. Throughout the evening, Price will present spoken pieces alongside an art installation and a series of films. Free (register online). Donations will go to Price's dance collective PRICEarts. 7:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m., Base: Experimental Arts + Space, 6520 5th Avenue South #122.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10

UKULELE OPEN MIC AT THE HANGAR: The Uke Society collaborates with small business throughout the area to host free ukulele performances and group lessons. The event will also include workshops on technique for beginners and advanced musicians. Free (register online) 5 - 8 p.m., The Hangar, 6728 Northeast 181st Street, Kenmore.

SATURDAY, APRIL 13

THE SOURCE: ART - INDIGENOUS REFLECTIONS ON WATER: Friends of Waterfront Seattle partners with yahaw to host an open exhibition presenting and celebrating contemporary Indigenous art created in the Pacific Northwest. Free, 1 - 7 p.m., Waterfront Space, 1400 Western Ave.

BUILDING SOIL FOR RAISED BEDS AND CONTAINERS: Join The Beet Box for a free community tutorial on urban gardening. This event will include tutorials on selecting the right soil for your garden, composting with red wiggler worms, and how to start seeds without the use of plastics. Free (register online), 11 - 1 p.m., The Beet Box, 6901 Martin Luther King Jr Way S, Seattle.

Out with the old...

Hop Fastpass® is your new ticket to ride TriMet — and that means conventional paper tickets will soon be a thing of the past. We're looking to phase out old paper tickets by December 31, 2019. If you don't plan to use them, you can exchange your unvalidated, foil-stamped tickets for a Hop card loaded with equivalent value.

Exchange in person

Stop by the TriMet Ticket Office at Pioneer Courthouse Square:

- 8:30 a.m.–5:30 p.m. weekdays, or
- Ticket Exchange Event
Saturday, April 27, 2019
9 a.m.–1 p.m.

Exchange by mail

Download and print the form from our website below.

We accept unvalidated, foil-stamped 2½-Hour Tickets or 1-Day Passes.

trimet.org/ticketexchange

