

Events & Announcements

Portland & Seattle News Briefs

4th Annual to Hold UNCF Portland Each One Teach One Reception Sept. 21

The UNCF Portland Leadership Council for an evening of excellence celebrating our youth on from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. Sept. 21 at Columbia Edgewater Country Club, 2220 NE Marine Drive. Evening activities include silent auction, cocktails, raffle and program. Keynote speaker will be Chief Danielle Outlaw, Portland Police Bureau. Music and Entertainment featuring Alonzo Chadwick and gifted soloist 8-year-old Michaela Dean and DJ Michael Morris. The occasion is to celebrate UNCF Portland Portfolio Project Students. There are four sites in the Pacific NW located in Seattle, Tacoma, Marysville, WA and Portland, OR. The UNCF Portfolio Project is a unique college preparatory program that provides high school junior and seniors with the tools to get to college and be successful. Some of the program elements are mentoring, tutoring, workshops, SAT/ACT Prep, UNCF College Fair, college admission and financial aid process, financial literacy, goal setting, incentives and scholarship opportunities.

PHOTO BY SUSAN FRIED

Sunday Hat Parade

Milliner Henrietta Price, using her daughter Kathy Simmons as a model, shows how anyone can wear a hat during the Sunday Hat Parade Sept. 15 at the Museum of History and Industry. The event, which was presented by the Black Heritage Society of Washington State also featured milliner Sonia Wooten-Gill talking about the process of hat making, a one day display of historic hats from the BHS collection and a place for children and adults to make hats.

For more information www.uncf.org/pnweto. Michelle M. Harper, UNCF Board Chair infoportland@uncf.org.

2019 Alice Awards to Take Place Sept. 27

The Street Trust's annual Alice Awards are Friday, September 27 at 5:30 p.m. at Castaway Portland, 1900 NW 18th Ave. Tickets are available for purchase at www.thestreettrust.org.

The event will recognize Alice Award recipient Rukaiyah Adams. She is the Chief Investment Officer at Meyer Memorial Trust and Chair of the Oregon Investment Council.

In addition to her professional work, Adams is shining her light on how the creation of I-5, the Memorial Coliseum, and Emanuel Hospital have impacted Portland's Black community. Adams has also proposed an intentional effort to remake the Rose Quarter called the Albina Vision. Maria Sipin will receive the Emerging Leader award. She is a transportation planner at the Oregon Department of Transportation (ODOT). In addition to her work at ODOT, Maria works for the community via several venues, and she participates in The Street Trust's Women Bike Program.

Community Calendar 2019

Portland Metro

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

DOCTORS WITHOUT BORDERS SPEAKING SERIES: Doctors Without Borders will host aid worker Karen Stewart in a discussion of the challenges of bringing life-saving medical care to the most dangerous and remote areas of the globe. 6:30 p.m., Ecotrust, 721 NW 9th Ave., 2nd Floor.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

FOURTH ANNUAL UNCF EACH ONE TEACH ONE RECEPTION: The UNCF Portland Leadership Council will host an evening of excellence celebrating youth. Evening activities include music, silent auction, cocktails, raffle and program. 5:30-8:30 p.m. at Columbia Edgewater Country Club, 2220 NE Marine Drive.

EVERNOTE FOR GENEALOGY: The Genealogy Forum of Oregon will host a free talk by Dale Deatherage on using Evernote, a cloud-based app designed for note taking, organizing, task lists, and archiving. This is a continuation of the presentation Dale gave at the GFO Open House in March. 2-3 p.m., 2505 S.E. 11th Ave., Suite B-18

FAMILY DAY: FALL FESTIVAL: Celebrate the return of fall with a family festival of performances by local music groups and dance troupes. Enjoy free admission to museum, and make a harvest-inspired craft to take home! 12-4 p.m., Oregon Historical Society, 1200 SW Park Ave.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

NATIONAL RENTERS' DAY OF ACTION CELEBRATION: This celebration will have games, cake, a raffle with awesome prizes, and tunes by DJ Tutti Frutti. Culmination Brewing is donating a keg, and 100% of the proceeds will go to Portland Tenants United. Adults 21 and over, 4-8 p.m., Donnie Vegas, 1203 NE Alberta St.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

PCCEP MEETING: The Portland Committee on Community-Engaged Policing will hold its September Public Meeting 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. at Charles Jordan Community Center, 9009 N. Foss Ave.

Seattle Metro

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

FISHERMEN'S FALL FESTIVAL: Participate in fish-themed art projects, including the popular wooden boat building activity and "Fishing for Fun" fish pond, plus nosh on delish food and enjoy live musical performances, fishing information, educational demonstrations and more. 11 a.m.-6 p.m., 1900 W. Nickerson St.

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21-22

SEATTLE CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL: All are invited to this intergenerational celebration of the arts, cultures, and traditions of the Pacific NW with five stages of performances, hands-on activities, interactive dance workshops, multicultural arts and crafts, and more! Free, 10:00 a.m., Seattle Center Armory, 305 Harrison St.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

THINK BLACK: In 1947, IBM CEO and Chairman Thomas J. Watson hired John Stanley Ford, who became IBM's first Black software engineer. Some employees did everything in their power to humiliate, subvert, and undermine Ford. His son shares musings of his father's journey in a thought-provoking memoir Think Black. 4 p.m., $5, The Forum, 1119 8th Ave (west entrance).

WILL YOU BE MORE THAN PINK?

SEPTEMBER 22, 2019

KomenOregon.org

RESEARCH + CARE + COMMUNITY + ACTION

REGISTER TODAY!

STEP UP TO THE PLATE

PARKING STICKERS ARE GOING, GOING, GONE

Note your license plate and Pay by Plate.

WASHINGTON PAY BY PLATE EVERGREEN STATE

Play Like a Parking Pro.

Know the Rules. Win the Game. seattle.gov/parking