

THE HOME CIRCLE.

Buggins' Pork Crop.

Farmer Buggins was a plain, staid, quiet man of the Old School, who lived on a little farm handed down to him by his father...

Before the usual slaughtering time had come, Buggins had exhausted his corn. Then he tried "swills" for a week, and came to the conclusion that he might as well try to turn the Mississippi river into a stream of lard...

Belows declare that wheat-meal, stirred up with butter-milk, makes excellent bread, and especially good for children, as containing elements most needed for the growing bones and muscles.

HOME AND FARM.

Farmers' Grindstones.

Premising that the grit is of the right kind for an axe or a scythe, a good grindstone will be set to run smoothly and perfectly true; its face will be neither hollow nor round...

Farmers as Mechanics. While it is to the advantage of every farmer to be well skilled in the use of carpenter's tools, it is not always beneficial for a farmer to place full confidence in his ability to perform all mechanical jobs...

Farm House Chat.

Perhaps we are partly led to think that men are most eager for all sorts of improvement because they make so much noise about it.

Depth of Lake Tahoe.

Table with 3 columns: Locality, Feet Deep. Lists various localities around Lake Tahoe and their depths.

The Patent Iron Gun-Pan.

But the new and improved mixtures of dough to bake therein are still free for all to imitate and improve upon in turn.

Smoke Concerns.

Some interesting experiments were lately made in Ohio, with a view to ascertaining the best method of consuming the smoke of soft coal furnaces...

Circular Lithographic Stone.

Mr. C. Maurice, of New York, has invented a form of lithographic stone for direct printing, which promises to effect a complete revolution in the art.
