

TELEGRAPHIC.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 15.—The black stallion Strideaway, a famous trotter, valued at $25,000, died today.
PROVIDENCE, June 16.—Four ballots for U. S. Senator were taken to-day. The last result: Burnside, 10; Barstow, 18; Dixon, 27; Chaffield, 12; scattering, 12.
ROME, June 16.—Exhibition of a Pullman car excites great interest, requiring the police to restrain the curious crowd. Pullman trains are expected to run between Rome, Florence and Naples within a few months.
NEW YORK, June 15.—The Chamber of Life Insurance has sent a circular to California policy holders announcing that in consequence of burdensome legislation it is impossible for respectable companies to transact new business there, but the validity of existing policies will be maintained.
SYDNEY, June 16.—The Union Pacific Railroad has returned from a tour of inspection, and reports everything working satisfactorily along the road. The result of his trips is a settlement of the question of the Junction of the Union and Central Pacific. That Junction is at Ogden, Utah, and Brigham Young has given 133 acres of land at that point for a depot and other purposes for the Union and Central Pacific and Northern and Southern Utah Railroad which meet at that point.
ISMAHANAS, June 16.—The Republican State Convention met at 10 A. M., and organized permanently by the election of General Benj. Harrison, President, with a Vice-President for each Congressional District. Col. R. J. Robinson was chosen Secretary. After the appointment of a Committee on Resolutions the Convention proceeded to the nomination of a ticket for State officers, and nominated by acclamation all the present incumbents as follows: Secretary of State, A. W. Curry; Auditor, James A. Wildeman; Treasurer, John B. Gluyver; Attorney General, James C. Downey; Judge of the Supreme Court, Andrew L. Osborne.
SPRINGFIELD, June 17.—The Republican State Convention met here at noon to-day, elected a temporary organization, appointed the usual committees and took a recess till 2 P. M.
NORFOLK, June 20.—Sir Charles Fox a celebrated English civil engineer, is dead.
QUEENSTOWN, June 16.—On the arrival of the steamship Parthian an unruly and excited mob gathered around and hooted and hissed Rochester, who but for the protection of the police would have been lynched. They made a rush for him, but did not reach him. He will proceed to London.
LONDON, June 16.—The steamship Africa has returned to this port after submerging her section of the Brazil cable. The line has been tested and found to work satisfactorily, and has been handed over to the Brazilian Cable Company. Unbroken telegraphic communication is thus established from England through Lisbon and Madeira to St. Vincent, Cape Verde Islands.
LONDON, June 17.—The Times Paris dispatch reports that preliminary steps for an alliance between the Right and Left Centres have been taken, and that others will necessarily follow. It quotes an article in the Journal des Debats, an organ of the Left Centre, comparing the fears aroused by the Empire with the confidence inspired by the Republic. The report that the Duc de Bissoch had resigned is confirmed.
YOKOHAMA, June 16, VIA LONDON, June 16.—The steamship Nevada, which left San Francisco on the 23d of May, arrived here today.
The steamship Alaska sailed from this port June 16th, with 800 tons of tea for New York via Panama. She was obliged to decline further shipments for the same route, on account of lack of freight space.
The steamship China will sail about the 26th of June for San Francisco with 1,200 tons of tea for New York, which will go through to Panama without breaking bulk.
WASHINGTON, June 17.—The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Robert M. Reynolds for Minister resident at Bolivia; John Cadwalder for Assistant Secretary of State, and Joseph D. Sena for Receiver of Public Moneys at Santa Fe, New Mexico.
The House Judiciary Committee, to-day, by a vote of six to five, resolved to impeach Judge Durell of Louisiana and Judge Busteed of Alabama.
The President has approved the joint resolution providing for a termination of the treaty of the United States with the King of the Belgians.
WASHINGTON, June 18.—The Senate has passed the bill for building a bridge across the Willamette river at Salem.
CHICAGO, June 18.—Washington specials say that the Conference Committee on the Currency Bill finally came to a conclusion late to-day by agreeing on a bill providing for redistribution of the National Bank circulation to the extent of $55,000,000, and fixing the legal tender circulation at $32,000,000. The bill will pass the Senate, and possibly the House. In that event the President will sign it.
Western members, however, do not give it a very cordial support.
BOSTON, June 17.—No change in the wool market; prices are firm and continue to be well sustained. Manufacturers are purchasing quite freely from all lots offering. In the country there is considerable excitement, and for some weeks to come better bargains will be made in Eastern markets than in the interior. In Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia, prices range from 45 to 50c; in Michigan, 40 to 45c; and in the Western States the price has hardly opened yet. In Maine, prices range from 40 to 45c, and in Vermont and New Hampshire there is very little doing. Receipts have been principally of California and supplies of this description are beginning to accumulate. California wools range from 30 to 40c for ordinary and choice lots of Spring clip.
REHOBOTH, Vt., June 17.—The Republican State Convention here to-day nominated Judge Peck for Governor, Lyman J. Hinckley for Lieutenant Governor, and John O. Page for Treasurer.
PARIS, June 18.—The Deputies of the Left Centre publish a note again inviting an alliance with the Right Centre, that both parties may establish a republic. The Left Centre offer all necessary constitutional guarantees, and declare if the alliance is refused the Right Centre will be responsible for the possible return of the Empire.
The Government has commenced the prosecution of the proprietors of La Figaro and La France, Republican journals, for reprinting articles written by Rochefort.

Third, 4,000; fourth, $5,000. Weights to be raised; 3 years old 80 pounds; 4 years, 101; 5 years, 110; six and upwards, 114; three-pounds allowed mares and geldings. All horses from East of the Rocky Mountains will be allowed $1,000; all from Europe, $1,500. This race will be advertised in the Turf, Field and Farm, Whites' Spirit of the Times, and all the principal papers throughout the country and in London and Paris.
The latest China papers state that the vessel lost in the China seas, with all on board, was the steamer Scotland, and not the bark Scotland, from this port, as supposed.
VALLEJO, June 18.—A. P. Ryerson, a California pioneer and a resident of Solano County for upwards of twenty years, committed suicide last night on his ranch, half way between Vallejo and Benicia, by taking an overdose of laudanum. He is highly respected, and has for many years been one of the leading men of Solano County.
WASHINGTON, June 18.—The President has nominated Samuel F. Brown, Receiver of Public Moneys, at Vancouver, Washington Territory; and Henry A. Webster, Collector of Customs, at Puget Sound.
The President has signed the act authorizing the Secretary of War to ascertain the expenses incurred by Oregon and California in the suppression of Indian hostilities in the years 1872 and 1873.
The Republicans of Maine have nominated Nelson Dingley, Jr., for Governor. Speaker Blaine is re-nominating for Congress.
NEW YORK, June 19.—There was considerable excitement in the County Court this morning by the appearance of Wm. M. Tweed, subpoenaed as a witness. He was brought in by two Deputy Sheriffs. He was dressed as in old times—in a dark suit with a white necktie. He is much thinner than formerly, and his face bears evident traces of deep mental anxiety.
NEW YORK, June 19.—The American brig L. Owens, Captain Martin, has arrived from Genoa, with thirteen refugees from the draft in Cuba. They tell a painful tale of the condition of affairs on the island and out-ports committed under the conscription. Captain Martin reports that the inhabitants are in great terror, owing to the relentless manner in which the conscription is carried out. Persons of all ages and conditions are forced into the army, and those who are too feeble to shoulder a musket are placed in the chain-gang. He frequently saw old men
WASHINGTON, June 19.—In opposing the motion to strike out of the River and Harbor Appropriations bill, the section directing surveys to be made at the mouth of the Columbia river, including Columbia river, Mitchell showed that while freight charges between Chicago and New York by water line are nine and one-tenth mill per ton per mile, and by railroad, twelve mills per mile, freight charges on the Columbia river by reason of monopoly, are from 10 to 12 cents per mile in coin.
WASHINGTON, June 20.—The House bill passed by the Senate to-day for the relief of settlers, is the lien and bill which recently received so much attention from the California press. The danger apprehended from its passage has been averted by the adoption of two amendments offered by Hager and supported by Sargent, providing that neither mineral lands nor lands reserved on any land grants made for railroad purposes shall be taken in lieu of settlers relinquished. The bill also contains provisions that its privileges shall not in any manner be construed to enlarge any railroad grant.
The Senate has agreed to the following amendments to the sundry civil appropriation bill: Increasing the sum for surveys in Oregon from $40,000 to $60,000.
LONDON, June 19.—The Daily News reports that Garibaldi is very ill.
ROME, June 19.—The text of the Pope's address to the Cardinals on Tuesday last is published. The Pope renews his protest against the usurpation of the Papal States, the abolition of religious corporations, and acts of the Italian Government, so that other enemies of the church may not be able to plead the justification of undisputed customs. He was moved to allude to the subjects again because he had recently received overtures of reconciliation, and had had in his possession a rescript ordering that he pardon his enemies and withdraw excommunication pronounced against them, but declares that he cannot make peace with enemies of the church.
PARIS, June 20.—The committee of the Assembly has unanimously resolved to unseat Rame because of the sentence imposed upon him by a military tribunal for participation in the Commune.
LONDON, June 20.—The Parliamentary election in North Durham resulted in the return to the House of Commons of Chas. M. Salinger (Liberal), one of the former members, and also Elliot (Conservative). The election of Elliot is a gain for the Conservatives.
The Pall Mall Gazette says that the success of the International Law Congress, called to meet at Brussels, is very doubtful. The governments of England, France and Austria raise objections to the scheme, and Switzerland extends to it but feeble support.
BREMEN, June 20.—A banquet was given to-day in honor of the agricultural exhibitors. Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany, in reply to a toast to Emperor William, expressed the hope that foreign visitors would, on their return to their homes, convey the assurance to their governments that it was his wish for a peaceful continuance of the liberties of civilization stronger than in the re-baptized German Empire.
CONSTANTINOPLE, June 20.—The Turkish steamer Kats, with 140 persons on board, was run into in the sea of Manora yesterday by an Egyptian vessel and sunk in a few minutes. Three hundred and twenty of her people were lost.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—Lon Gee, purchaser of the wreck Prince Alfred has recovered about 700 deer skins from the wreck. Mrs. Van Cott, the revival preacher, will lecture on the subject of Temperance this evening at Wilson's Circus Amphitheater. A strong force of policemen will be detailed to preserve peace and protect the lady from insult.
Greenbacks, 60c/100.
R. F. Naphtaly, charged with attempting to murder Charles DeYoung, was discharged by the Police Court to-day.
Rudolph Herringer was arrested to-night for bigamy. It is asserted that he has two wives living in the city.
A little girl, the daughter of Mrs. O'Neil, was run over by a truck on Folson street, this evening, and instantly killed. Her cousin was driving the team.
There was a large attendance at Agricultural Park for the benefit of Louisiana sufferers. Thad. Stevens and Nell Fishery were galloped over the track. Accident was speeded and made his two miles in 2:24 and 2:21.
NEW YORK, June 21.—An attempt was made at Greenwich, Conn., on the Boston and New York Railroad, to throw a passenger train from the track by means of an immense boulder placed on the track in a covered bridge. The pilot was smashed, but no other damage was done.
NEW ORLEANS, June 21.—This morning at half past 2 o'clock, the forms of the Bulletin newspaper were seized while they were being carried to the press room, and kicked in the central station, and that paper appears this morning partly unprinted. The Bulletin attributes the seizure to the fact that it has openly condemned fraud and corruption and intimates that Durell, Kellogg and Badger are implicated. It is said the police acted under the orders of Badger.

CHICAGO, June 22.—At Carrollton, Ill., early yesterday morning, a mob took Frank Atkins Clark Evans, convicted of murder, out of jail to the woods four or five miles away, and hanged him.
WASHINGTON, June 21.—In the Senate, last night, Sargent moved an amendment to the River and Harbor Appropriation bill, appropriating $100,000 for the improvement of the harbor of Oakland, Cal. The motion was opposed by Chandler, who said the improvement was for the benefit of the railroad, which had been built to reach Goat Island, and the object of the improvement was to make a harbor for the benefit of that railroad. After considerable opposition the amendment was agreed to—yeas 28, nays 18.
Hager submitted an amendment appropriating $80,000, or so much as may be necessary for the protection of the harbor of San Diego, Cal., by turning San Diego river into False Bay. He spoke of the importance of that harbor and the necessity of protecting it. Unless something should be done the harbor would be filled up with sand from the interior. The harbor was once prepared by nature, and it was being destroyed for the want of a few thousand dollars to protect it. The amendment was agreed to—yeas 28, nays 20.
WASHINGTON, June 22.—The President has signed the Currency Bill reported from the last committee of conference, and it has become a law.
Senator Sherman will make no effort to secure the passage of the Tariff Bill at the present session.
The President and Cabinet, and the President's clerks, are at the Capitol examining bills for signature.
CHICAGO, June 22.—A Washington special says information has been received that the Union Pacific has been giving security to some of its creditors to the prejudice of the Government. If this should prove true, the Attorney General will, at the earliest possible moment, take steps to throw the Company into bankruptcy, when the security that has been thus fraudulently given will be set aside.
CITY OF MEXICO, June 15.—The exploration of tin mines in Huizaco, continues with a value of $1,000,000. The yield exceeds expectations, and four new companies have been formed to work the mines.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—The Perseverance Black Sand Mining Company was incorporated to-day, for the purpose of working the black sand placers along and near the Pacific Coast of California and Oregon. Directors, S. A. Morrison, J. Jewell, Charles E. Hazeltine and Monroe Thompson, of San Pablo. Capital stock, $25,000, divided into 12,000 shares.
MISSION SAN JOSE, June 22.—Last night between 8 and 9 o'clock we had quite a heavy shower of rain here. The weather to-day has been cool and cloudy, and there are indications of more rain to-night. No damage has been caused to crops excepting the laying down of some of the heavy grain.
SIESTA, June 22.—We were favored with several nice showers of rain last night and to-day, greatly benefiting gardens and crops generally; 35-100 of an inch has fallen. Weather still cloudy; wind south.
STATE AND TERRITORIAL.
Mr. William Phillips has been appointed Postmaster at Clackamas, Clackamas county.
The Oregonian says that during the month of May the following amounts of treasure have been shipped from this port to San Francisco by Wells, Fargo & Co.: Currency, $4,082,10; gold coin, $140,679,90; bullion, $3,198,90; silver coin, $3,184. By comparison with amounts shipped during preceding months, it will be seen that there is a decided increase.
The Grangers at various points of the valley have gone into the butchering business, and are selling meat at six cents a pound.
The Crescent City (Cal.) Courier says Jos. G. Wall has sent out a force of men to repair the road between that place and Jacksonville, Oregon.
A team belonging to Mr. Clonizer of Hillsboro, started to run away last Sunday, and Mrs. Clonizer sprang from the wagon, breaking her leg at the ankle.
A Mrs. Mull sprang from a wagon on leaving the park at Hillsboro, and broke her arm near the wrist. Dr. Vile set the limb, and she is now doing quite well.
W. W. Fiddle, of Josephine county, states that rich diggings have been found on Bridge creek, in that county, and considerable excitement prevails in consequence. A large number of persons are flocking there.
The Jacksonville Times says: "Shearing has commenced, and the wool is already arriving in considerable quantities. The shearing during the past winter, and the demand is good. Although the clip will be quite large, owing to the mortality among sheep last winter, it will not approximate the product of 1873. It is to be hoped that the Ashland Woolen Mills will be running soon, so there will be a market for this product at home.
Information is wanted of one Michael McMahon, who has been about Montana and Idaho for the past ten years. If living, Michael will find it to his interest to immediately communicate with his brother Thomas, at Oxnorton, Steel county, Minn.
The News says that Robert Gibbons, the murderer of Charles F. Schoppe, was brought into Court yesterday morning, and when asked to plead to the complaint lodged against him for murder, he pleaded the Court that he wished to waive an examination and let his case go directly to the Grand Jury. The presence of an immense crowd of persons in the Court room made him very nervous, and he seemed extremely desirous of returning to his quiet quarters down stairs.
The Territory of Arizona (the Spanish name Arizona signifying silver bearing) embraces a area of 27,767 100.0 square miles, and has 222,000 inhabitants, with deposits of gold, 1,227,442 lbs. per. Nearly 100 centuries ago a mass of more than a hundred localities of silver and copper mines were worked successfully.
Wool is being shipped from Olympia to San Francisco. About 7,000 pounds have already been sent away. The price paid ranged from 21 to 25 cents. Enough wool is now produced on the Sound to supply a good sized woolen-mill.
The Grand Jury of Multnomah for the second time report no true bill against R. J. Ladd, charged with embezzling the school funds of that county.
The Bulletin says Frank E. Hodgkin, well known in this city, has assumed a position on the Salem Statesman.
A man named Israel Vance residing near Portland on the East side of the river, was arrested a couple of days since for threatening to kill the Road Supervisor in his district.

The crickets, lately quite numerous in some parts of Eastern Oregon, are happily disappearing.
Round trips between Portland and Victoria may now be enjoyed at a cheap rate.
Arrangements are being made for a trip to the Cascades from Portland on the Fourth under the auspices of the Good Templars.
Mr. John Scott, of Dallas, Polk county, has purchased and will start to the Checco next Monday with 200 head of young cattle on next Monday.
Dallas folks are embarking in the stock business. Messrs. Foster and Sites will start next week to their ranch near Pineville, with 1,000 head of sheep.
Under the head of marriages the Dallas Republican publishes the following: At the residence of the bride's parents, June 7th, 1874, by Rev. J. H. Adams, Mrs. J. S. Peety, John and Miss Catherine Howell, all of Polk county, Oregon.
The Idaho Herald of the 11th says: I. H. Bowman, George W. Titus, John Strong and Mr. Martini started out on a prospecting tour this morning, to be absent all Summer. They went in the direction of Summit Flat.
The King County, W. T., Temperance Alliance now numbers 142 names, and the good movement still goes steadily forward.
Chen Cheong, a Chinaman, applied for naturalization papers at Seattle, one day last week, and the Dispatch is worthy about it.
The celebration of the fourth of July in Lewis County, W. T., will be conducted under the auspices of the Patrons of Husbandry, and according to the manual of the order.
The Seattle Dispatch says: The plan of operations embraced in the designs of the company represented by Capt. Batterly, organized to open the Cedar Mountain coal mine, include the mining and transportation of coal, manufacturing of iron and ship building, for all of which the facilities here at hand are unparalleled, and the establishment of a tri-weekly line of first-class propellers between this port and San Francisco.
Several boxes of this year's ripe apples have been shipped from Walla Walla.
Lumber is being hauled for the construction of the Episcopal church at Union. Work will also commence on the Methodist church some time this summer.
At the late election in Union county, on the question of the county seat, the vote stood all for Union and 242 for La Grande, and the dwellers in the latter town are indignant.
It is said there is a colony of about 500 Germans now on their way from Felton, who are destined to settle either in Grand Ronde or Wallawa valleys. We hope the report is true. There is plenty of room in Union county for industrious farmers.
An old and well known prospector in Oregon, named Thomas Durning, was recently found dead in his room at San Francisco.
The crusaders in Portland have taken a fresh start.
Work on the new telegraph line between Roseburg and Yreka is progressing rapidly. Simpkins' Station, a point 42 miles beyond Roseburg has been reached. Twenty-one men and three teams are employed by the Company, under the superintendency of Messrs. Richmond and Cronch. The line is being built at the rate of two miles per day.
The celebration of the Fourth of July in Lewis county will be conducted under the auspices of the Patrons of Husbandry, and conducted according to the manual of the Order. The exercises will take place at a grove near Claguate, will wind up at night with a ball at the new Court House at Chahalis station.
The Courier says: "On Saturday evening last a railroad meeting was held at Columbia Hall, and well attended. The President of the road stated that there was a little over nine miles of road graded ready for the ties at that time, leaving only a trifle over five miles to carry the grade through to Tenino. To do this will require one month's labor for forty men and twelve teams, supplied with the necessary commissary stores. Speeches were made by Edward Evans, Esq., Rev. J. R. Thompson, Messrs. Ira Ward and Jos. Allen. Eight months' labor was subscribed."
The Vancouver Register says a party of miners are preparing to leave to-day (Friday) for the silver mines in the Cascade range of mountains, about sixty miles northeast of Vancouver. The mine which has been worked to a considerable depth prospects very well, and the miners think they have a good thing. Work was suspended during the winter.
The Grangers are to appropriately celebrate the Fourth of July, this year at Dry Creek, about twelve miles east of Walla Walla, near J. M. Lamb's place. There are to be orations, a barbecue, procession, music, and everything else that tends to promote enjoyment on such occasions. The orators are to be W. T. McKern and M. T. Crawford.
Miss Laura P. Adair, at present in Oakland, California, will shortly return to Oregon and take a class in music at St. Helen's Hall, in Portland.
A man by the name of Amos Dodd died suddenly in the drug store of Messrs. Farnsworth & Dutton Portland, last Thursday.
More Linn county seck ralers are moving to ward Checco Valley.
Grangers of Corvallis are going to hold a mass meeting. They want to improve the Willamette River.
The Lebanon Grange had a brilliant meeting last Saturday, at their hall. They raised 20 the fourth degree seventeen members, and organized 24 new ones, 61 of the cross of the organization. They had a large number of visiting brethren present, and a most happy time was had.
The Astorian says: There is room for producing more grain in this part of Oregon, and is now in the Willamette valley. We have samples of barley five feet high, rye seven feet ten inches, and oats waist high nicely heading out, from Hans Anderson's place—Mishawaka, Nehalem valley.
Beach & Monteth of Albany have this week sent a package of specimen flour to Dundee, Scotland.
Mart Brown says Albany will have the only grand macaroni celebration this year in the valley.
General Sprague and a party of English capitalists are now in Tacoma examining the townsite in regard to its availability for investments.
The Grangers in the vicinity of Walla Walla will celebrate the coming Fourth.
Nineteen Vancouver widows are self-supporting institutions and don't want to take any husbands to raise.
The Corvallis Gazette says: Judge R. P. Boise delivered the annual address before the Literary Union of the Albany Collegiate Institute, on last Wednesday evening.
Nearly 2,000 head of live stock have already passed over the Cascade Mountain Wagon Road this season.

Hon. Syl. C. Simpson, of Salem, came up on Wednesday, delivered an able address before the Alumni of Corvallis State Agricultural College and returned home Thursday.
Last Thursday night Most Worshipful Brother J. B. Congle, Grand Master, assisted by Right Worshipful Brother Geo. M. Stroud, Deputy Grand Master, instituted St. John's Lodge, No. —, of Albany, and installed her first officers under the new charter.
The Baker City Herald says: Several pack trains, numbering in the aggregate 30 animals, and carrying 62 tons of freight, left Lewiston last night for the mining camp east of that place.
W. J. Snowgrass, of La Grande, a few days since purchased of Saxe Bros., a thorough short-horn Durham bull, named "Logan" paying therefor $300.
The Sentinel says that a Mr. Brown was shot and killed by a man named Hunt, near Linkville, last Monday.
A little daughter of Judge Tolman had one of her legs amputated last week.
A gentleman from Tillamook informs the Register that the potato crop will be a failure this year. Last year the vegetable was almost totally destroyed by blight, and this year the disease has already showed itself, with a prospect of repeating last year's ravage.
The Democrat says: Old Tennessee threw into Linn county last week nearly a bush load of immigrants. There were sixty-one souls in all, and they have come among us desirous to be pleased with the country and to take up their future abode in this favored land of Webster.
The Mountaineer says a miner just over from the Spanish gold mines, says that a nugget worth $500 was recently taken from the "discovery claim" in those diggings. It appears that while this claim has been paying good wages, the other claims were good for nothing.
The News says the provisions of the ordinance passed at the last session of the City Council relating to Temperance, which provides that no woman can obtain license to sell intoxicating drink, and which further provides that any one who shall permit any woman to act as waitress, or clerk, or dance around a bar room, shall, upon conviction be fined not less than $25 nor more than $50 and forfeit their license, will be held by all the lovers of good order as a step in the right direction.
On Saturday the 13th inst., Santiam Grange, No. 57, met for their first time in their new hall, and dedicated it by initiating 18 candidates. Their new hall is in size 24x48 feet, and situated about one mile north of Providence Church, in the midst of a live and energetic neighborhood, and the future prospect of the Grange is very flattering indeed. Applications for membership are steadily coming in, and under the supervision of Wm. C. Curtis, Master, the Grange is prospecting finely. The Grange comprises at Fourth degree members.
The warehouse at Newton Station, near Hillsboro, was burned down last week. Probable loss, $1,000 to $1,200. The general supposition of the people is that the vicinity of the building was burned by someone who had a spite at Newby, the gentleman who owned the property.
Albany Fire Company has voted to attend the Philadelphia Centennial in 1876.
A good many cows have died lately in Umatilla county from eating poisonous herbs on the bottom lands.
There is to be a camp meeting held near McMinnville, Yamhill county, by the M. E. Church, commencing on Thursday, of the present week, and continuing over Sunday.
McMinnville is shipping large quantities of wool to the Portland market.
Deborah D. Smith and G. W. Quivley have leased the material and purchased the good will and business of the office of the Benton Democrat.
Chris. Weiss has secured the contract for carrying the mail from Jacksonville to Sam's Valley, via Central Point, Table Rock, Brownsville and Eagle Point, for $50 per annum.
A son of Mr. Loftis, of Ashland, was accidentally shot in the shoulder by a revolver in the hands of a son of Dr. Chalmers, with which they were playing. The wound although severe, is not dangerous.
On last Friday, Mr. Merriam, who lives a few miles below Corvallis, was killed by a horse and seriously injured. He was hauling a load, passing near one of the horses reared a rock which in the stomach, rendering him insensible for some time.
The Padonville, of Dallas, Polk county, Oregon, writes to the Postmaster of Corvallis, in relation to the trouble that occurred Friday on account of the smallness of the train, 7:20. Last week passenger orders to the amount of $4,000 were sent away—the letter of it was to one office, while the order to a person living at the other. It pays writing letters "should be careful and adhere to this phrase: 'The station there would be near to trouble.'
The Hawk Eye is no more.
On last Wednesday afternoon a little five-year-old son of Mr. Henry Webster of Corvallis, narrowly escaped death by falling from a cherry tree and striking upon a board walk.
The Rev. J. H. Willour, Indian Agent at Shuswap Agency, W. T., delivered an excellent temperance sermon at the Methodist Church in Dallas, on last Sunday evening, to a large audience.