

TELEGRAPHIC.

New York, July 28.—Tilton was arrested to-day on complaint of Wm. J. Gaynor...

New York, July 29.—The libel case against Tilton, brought by Gaynor, has been postponed until Monday for hearing.

SALEM, July 28.—The Carlists claim a great victory over the Republicans in an engagement near the borders of Mexico...

ROME, July 30.—Today's Opinions asserts that negotiations are in progress which have in view the sending by maritime powers...

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—It is reported on reliable authority that the Chinese Government will soon establish a Consulate in this city...

SALEM, July 31.—There was a very large attendance of Chinese and Chinese-Americans at the Chinese picnic at Woodward's gardens...

One of the performers on the horizontal bar at the circus, this afternoon, fell and was seriously injured.

Twenty-one persons were committed to the Insane Asylum from this city during the present month.

Alfred Paraf, of the Olemangarine butter farm, was arrested a pain to-night on two charges of forcery.

James McAdoo, another hoodlum, was arrested to-night for participation in the murder of the circus employe, James Ramsey.

SEASIA, July 30.—On Wednesday last J. Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

press the sharpness and depth of my sorrow in your behalf, my dear and honored friend...

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Gov. Ames to-day telegraphed to the President that the condition of affairs in Yackburg is alarming...

SALEM, July 31.—There was a very large attendance of Chinese and Chinese-Americans at the Chinese picnic at Woodward's gardens...

One of the performers on the horizontal bar at the circus, this afternoon, fell and was seriously injured.

Twenty-one persons were committed to the Insane Asylum from this city during the present month.

Alfred Paraf, of the Olemangarine butter farm, was arrested a pain to-night on two charges of forcery.

James McAdoo, another hoodlum, was arrested to-night for participation in the murder of the circus employe, James Ramsey.

SEASIA, July 30.—On Wednesday last J. Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Whittle and West, both parties were slightly intoxicated. Whittle made several threats, and finally started for West with a knife when he (West) drew a revolver and fired at him killing him instantly.

Whittle, a rancher, living near Round mountain, about thirty miles east of here, was shot and instantly killed by Wm. West, also a rancher.

Another young woman, Miss Jobert, was arrested for larceny, as she was in the act of committing a felony by jumping out of the second story window of a building on Washington street.

MARYSVILLE, August 3.—Donnis Duffley died to-day at noon from the effects of a stab wound inflicted by his brother-in-law, J. B. Kohr, last Saturday.

SALE LAKE, August 3.—The election for delegates to Congress, county and town officers, takes place to-day, noon, at Clifton, the late delegate to Congress, has been nominated by the Mormons, notwithstanding the declaration of Congress that heretofore no polygamy would be allowed to make his seat.

STATE AND TERRITORIAL.

Judging from the smoke at Olympia this morn'g raging in the woods both north and east of the town.

In some of the gardens in Sale Lake City applicants have been cooked on the trees by the hot sun.

Private parties talk of getting up an agricultural fair at Walla Walla. What is the matter with the society?

There are now sixty-two Granges in the Order of Patrons of Husbandry in Colorado Territory, with a total membership of 2,900.

The forests in the vicinity of the Lummi Reservation, on Puget Sound, are on fire to such an alarming extent as to fill the atmosphere for miles around with smoke.

On the evening of the 27th there were seven ocean vessels lying in the harbor at Port Blakely, and a large number of sailing vessels.

The steamship L. N. Cooke was taken through the locks last Thursday and put on the waters of the Upper Willamette.

Astoria has a custom that has a history. It came to Oregon on the ill-fated Silvia de Gram, passed into the hands of John John Astor, and will be sold for the benefit of the Oregonian press.

The Catholics of Baker City and vicinity have organized a fair to be held in the city of Baker, Oregon, on the 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th and 28th of next month.

The Steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

On Saturday night last the watchman on board one of the Willamette River Transportation Company's boats lying upon the opposite bank of the river heard a peculiar noise, and jumping out of bed reached the side of the boat in time to see two men pulling away from the vicinity as rapidly as possible.

The vessel was immediately given, but they eluded pursuit and were soon lost sight of the waters of this city.

Everybody is busy in harvesting their hay in Union County, and almost all place the hum of the mower and the farmers busy loading and unloading hay.

Messrs. Morse & Townsend, of Pendleton, have taken a band of about one hundred cayuse horses to Wapinitia, where they can dispose of them at remunerative prices.

A large lot of pleasure-seekers are now at the Hot Springs on the Buckle road, enjoying themselves.

At the Island City Mills, in Union County, a slide of upwards of a thousand sacks of flour occurred on Wednesday.

The office of Sheriff of Union County is a sort of vibrating one—a loof and half-corn—sometimes it is at Union and sometimes at La Grande.

Owing to the very low prices in which syrup are being sold in Gracie Ronde Valley this year, the amount of preserved berries, jams, etc., will be ten times larger than ever heretofore.

Wheat is selling at 50 cents a bushel at La Grande last week, and flour per barrel, $1.50.

Unattila county is now $27,875 in debt, being $91.54 less than she owed a year ago.

The News says: Samuel B. Parrish, who left this city some time since in company with Donald McKay and his Scotch, has been appointed Indian Agent at the Malheur Reservation, and has already taken charge of the office.

Dayton, W. T., will soon be an incorporated town.

A new M. E. Church will soon be erected at Dayton, W. T.

Boise City held an election for Marshal on the 25th inst.

There is a great deal of sickness at present in and around Walla Walla.

A fountain of pure water will soon be sparkling in the sunshine in front of Goodwin's Hall, Olympia.

The matter of securing ground for the July Association to hold a fair, does not seem to receive much attention from the citizens of Olympia.

As the Agricultural Society at Walla Walla does not seem inclined to hold a Fair this Fall, some private individuals have determined to hold one.

Mrs. James Porter, who lives fifty miles east of Boise City, on the overhead road, was in Boise City about three weeks ago, and accepted as a present from Mr. J. Brumback a new hat.

The matter of securing ground for the July Association to hold a fair, does not seem to receive much attention from the citizens of Olympia.

The matter of securing ground for the July Association to hold a fair, does not seem to receive much attention from the citizens of Olympia.

The matter of securing ground for the July Association to hold a fair, does not seem to receive much attention from the citizens of Olympia.

The matter of securing ground for the July Association to hold a fair, does not seem to receive much attention from the citizens of Olympia.

The matter of securing ground for the July Association to hold a fair, does not seem to receive much attention from the citizens of Olympia.

The matter of securing ground for the July Association to hold a fair, does not seem to receive much attention from the citizens of Olympia.

The matter of securing ground for the July Association to hold a fair, does not seem to receive much attention from the citizens of Olympia.

The matter of securing ground for the July Association to hold a fair, does not seem to receive much attention from the citizens of Olympia.

The matter of securing ground for the July Association to hold a fair, does not seem to receive much attention from the citizens of Olympia.

A correspondent writing from Dayton, W. T., says: The great topic of conversation for the last two weeks has been the question asked in the camp meeting, "are you going to camp meeting to-night?"

The Governor Governor is in the locks at Oregon City undergoing repairs, preparatory to being launched.

The steamer L. N. Cooke was taken through the locks last Thursday and put on the waters of the Upper Willamette.

Astoria has a custom that has a history. It came to Oregon on the ill-fated Silvia de Gram, passed into the hands of John John Astor, and will be sold for the benefit of the Oregonian press.

The Catholics of Baker City and vicinity have organized a fair to be held in the city of Baker, Oregon, on the 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th and 28th of next month.

The Steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.

Port Blakely has a new hotel just completed.

The steamer Express says a firm of that town has four ships laden with goods on the way from San Francisco.