WILLAMETTE FARMER
SALEM, OREGON, FEBRUARY 12, 1875.
Vol. VI - No. 32.
$2.60 Per Year, in Advance.

STATE MANUFACTURING COMPANY.

A company under that name has been incorporated and organized in Great Falls, Minn., by Mr. H. C. Jackson, F. J. Babcock and Samuel Loops, for the manufacture of Northern timber products, beaver, and commercial uses.

It has been stated that the company will have their works on the premises of the Northern Timber Company, at the foot of the palmers and the ice house, and the works will be conducted under the personal management of F. J. Babcock.

The new company will consist of five members, as follows:

H. C. Jackson, M. J. Babcock, Samuel Loops, and

The company will work for the present under the name of the Northern Timber Company, but the works will be conducted under the personal management of F. J. Babcock.

The new company will consist of five members, as follows:

H. C. Jackson, M. J. Babcock, Samuel Loops, and

The company will work for the present under the name of the Northern Timber Company, but the works will be conducted under the personal management of F. J. Babcock.

The new company will consist of five members, as follows:

H. C. Jackson, M. J. Babcock, Samuel Loops, and

The company will work for the present under the name of the Northern Timber Company, but the works will be conducted under the personal management of F. J. Babcock.

The new company will consist of five members, as follows:

H. C. Jackson, M. J. Babcock, Samuel Loops, and

The company will work for the present under the name of the Northern Timber Company, but the works will be conducted under the personal management of F. J. Babcock.

The new company will consist of five members, as follows:

H. C. Jackson, M. J. Babcock, Samuel Loops, and

The company will work for the present under the name of the Northern Timber Company, but the works will be conducted under the personal management of F. J. Babcock.