This Plow is thoroughly made by practical men who have been led to the business and know what is required in the construction of Gang Plows. It is quickly adjusted. THE CALIFORNIA HARROW,

Kimball Car and Carriage Manufacturing Company,

Cor. Bryant and Fourth sts. San Francisco.

IN THE FIELD.

The California Harrow, large numbers of which we are now making, has seven distinct and well defined improvements possessed by no other Harrow, each of which saves both time and labor.

First—This Harrow has an easy seat and three wheels, all attached to the central section, on which the driver sits and manages the Harrow and team with ease and comfort.

Second—By means of but three levers the driver in his seat on the Harrow can raise the Harrow and himself on the wheels, and trot to and from the field, and without leaving his seat can let the sections down and proceed with his work.

Third—By the use of but one lever conveniently situated at the right side, the driver in his seat, and without stopping his team, can regulate the depth of the Harrow teeth in the ground, and can set them deep or shallow, as the conditions of the soil require. This needs a demand for harrowing Alfalfa or small grain, in the spring.

Fourth—This Harrow is made in three sections, connected by loose hinges. The driver, as he moves along in the field, can raise any one of the sections, and pass a tree or stump, or other obstacles, without interfering with the work of the other two sections.

Fifth—By the use of a brace made of a board but 3 feet long and 4 inches wide, let on the top of the levers of the wings, this can be made a stiff Harrow, and the driver by lowering the lever at his right can throw his weight and that of the wheels and extra fixtures on and off at his pleasure.

Complete work can be done up to and all around trees, without changing the course of the team.

We build these Harrows of wood and tubular iron, making beautiful and very powerful Harrows, unaffected by exposure to the weather.

We have any number of letters in praise of these Harrows from farmers who have put them to practical use.
