New York, June 2a.—Mrs. Tilton will to morrow publish an affidavit, written in her own viudication, in which she says 20 person was employed in laying carpets at the time specified by Lees, Leeder and Price, and to the best of her knowledge they were never in her house, and their narration relating to herself and Beecher is wholly and ulterly false. She says: There never was any improper relations between Beecher and myself, and all charges of adultery or improper conduct or any attempt on his or my pert to have or societt any improper relations or acts, are ulterly, absolutely false. No act or word ever passed between Beecher and myself that could not, with equal propriety, have passed cotween father and daughter. In conclusion I declare, in presence of Almighty God, that I am absolutely innocent of all offenses charged against me with relation to Beecher, except through the influence of, my husband, which was impossible to resist. I have made charges against Beecher which were false and entirely unfounded, and which I well knew to be false. I left may husband willingly and without solicitation, especially on the part of Beecher, but as far as I have any knowledge to the contrast to Beecher's desire. SENATOR KELLY.—Says the Boise Statesman of June 22d: Senator James K. Kelly, of Oregon, arrived here by yesterday's overland stage from Washington, on his way to Oregon, and will lay over here until this afternoon at 4 o'clock. We had a tew moment's conversation with him in regard to ment's conversation with him in regard to railroad and other matters, but as he corcluded to stop over, we shall be able to see him again, and will then give our readers what information he may communicate to us, in our next issue. The Senator is looking remarkably well, and is as sociable as he used to be.
