Professional Training Schools for Girls

It is no telling manner to keep up with the progress of the age in matters of education. Twenty years ago, one would have found it a very few the number of mature women who have been exposed to public school education, but today, in our large institutions of learning.

New schools are continually springing up in the different cities, and the number of girls who receive an education in these schools is remarkable. In the past, education was limited to a small number of girls who were fortunate enough to be able to attend school. Today, however, education is available to a much larger group of girls.
