Correspondence from the G. W. C. T.

MILWAUKIE, March 10, 1877.

ED. FARMER: Since I wrote you last I have again visited Nonpareil Lodge, and am pleased to report its officers and members all at work for the cause.

On the eighth inst. I visited Marshfield in Clackamas county, and had the pleasure of a visit with Hon. W. A. Mills and his kind family.

Lone Star Lodge, No. 91, I am pleased to say is at work once more, and the L. D., Bro. Mills, says, "we will keep it going—we mean business here, and you may look for a good report from us."

Last evening we held a public temperance meeting here in Milwaukie, which considering the hard "show" was well attended. Bro. Packer, the L. D. of the Lodge, and who is always on hand at our Lodge meetings, tells me that gallant old 57 has initiated five new members this term and is making its influence for good felt in the community.

While here I am at home in the comfortable and beautiful residence of that firm and unflinching champion of temperance, Bro. J. H. Lambert. He and his excellent family have done much for No. 57, and their faith in the efficiency of organized effort has not diminished.

ILLINOIS.—The Interior, speaking of the temperance work commenced under the influence of the Moody meetings, says: "The temperance revival in our city gets larger. The success of it is mainly due, under God, to Mr. Sawyer. He is raised up especially for this work. He has prodigious energy, and a kind of ponderous personal import, which make him well nigh irrefragable. His power is in personal work. It is estimated that nearly a thousand drunkards have been saved. Men who were so far from hope that Christian people passed them by with scarce a thought that they could be rescued, this man has won to Christ, and therefore to salvation for time and eternity. Mr. Moody has telegraphed him to his aid in Boston, and on Friday will be the last temperance meeting under his charge. The prayers of God's people will follow him that he may be blessed in other places as he has been here."

MICHIGAN.—Dr. Henry A. Reynolds is doing a very successful religious temperance work in the principal cities of this State. He has visited Ypsilanti, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Hastings, Monroe, Saginaw City, Bay City, Adrian, Coldwater, Hudson, etc., and now we hear of him in Detroit, the very headquarters of the liquor interest. In all these places large Reform Clubs have been organized, sometimes 200 signing in one evening. The religious papers speak of it as a great religious as well as a temperance work, and the secular papers give long and favorable accounts of the meetings.

MISSISSIPPI.—David Satum and his wife, Quakers from Ohio, are making a tour through the South, delivering lectures on temperance and meeting with good success.

SWEDEN.—A remarkable temperance revival is in progress in Sweden, and many counties, it is announced, are prohibiting the entire sale of liquors. Numerous petitions for prohibition are in circulation. In Upsala, the location of a great Swedish college, a total-abstinence society has been formed among the students which has reached a membership of 430. The method of saloon-visiting, after the manner of the Ohio movement, has been adopted, and tracts, pledges, and petitions are distributed. An appeal, if doubtfully signed, is being very widely circulated. King Oscar II. regards the movement with much favor, and to a society named "Fight and Victory," in Gothenburg, has contributed the sum of three hundred crowns.

AUSTRALIA.—A bill is now pending, and is expected to pass, in Parliament to amend the law regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors. It is said to be the result of an arrangement effected between the "publicans" and the teetotalers.

GREECE.—A temperance movement has been auspiciously inaugurated in Greece. From a letter of an Athens correspondent in the Alliance News, we learn that in a population of about 1,500,000 the annual expenditure for liquors and tobacco is 127,750,000 francs. A temperance society has been organized, which has a pledge and code of laws, and holds regular meetings.

BEAVERTON, OR., March 13, 77. ED. FARMER: Notwithstanding the pouring rains and the "high tides" prevailing here at this time, our meeting last night was well attended. After the public exercises were closed a meeting of the Lodge was held and I am pleased to say that I found it in most excellent trim and exerting a controlling influence in this thriving and well-to-do community. The officers are prompt and efficient in the discharge of the duties assigned them. Samuel Tucker is W. C. T., and Richard Wilmot, Lodge Deputy. The Wilmots, Tuckers, and others are alive to the interests of the cause in this community.

W. R. Dunbar, G.W.C.T., writing from Portland, under date of 11th inst. says: "The meeting of Multnomah Lodge, No. 12, I.O.G.T., was a very interesting one, and was largely attended by its own and members from other Lodges. Bro. L. F. A. Shaw in the chair insures good order, and the officers all were prompt in the performance of their duty. Quite a time was spent under good of the Order, and instrumental music, songs, speeches, recitations, and readings, were given by Bros. Shaw, La Grand, O'Donnell, Crawford, Winney, and Sisters Agnes Coburn, Camilla Coburn, Dora McCord, Annie Stearns, Emily Crawford, and others. Bros. Gabbert of Myrtle, and Robins of Bethel Lodges, seemed to enjoy themselves very much. Old Multnomah is herself again, and is doing her duty well. The honors of Lodge Deputy are worn by that old temperance veteran Bro. J. B. Garrison."

BEAVERTON, WASHINGTON CO., March 18, 1877.

ED. FARMER: At the request of Bro. W. R. Dunbar, I send you the list of officers of Crystal Lodge, No. 257, for the ensuing quarter for publication. Saml. Tucker, C. T.; Miss Maggie McKay, V.T.; A. H. Danks, Sec.; G. W. Tefft, F.S.; E. Squires, T.; P. Wilkinson, M.; O. S. Curtis, Chap.; Mrs. J. Squires, I.G.; Willie Squires, O.G.; R. B. Wilmot, L. D.

Mrs. Emily M. Vandervart, Lodge Deputy of Rosa Lodge, last week organized a Juvenile Band of Hope, with ten members, at Highland Hall, Polk county, three miles from Salem.

THE CAUSE ELSEWHERE.

THE PITTSBURGH REVIVAL.—The work in this city is one of the most wonderful ever known. It is a temperance and religious revival in which multitudes are rescued as brands from the burning, and many are converted to God. It is essentially a work of grace. Mr. Murphy seems specially endowed for the work. The churches, even to the Episcopal and Roman Catholic, open their doors and enter upon the good work. The Methodist Recorder says: "The great temperance revival continues with unabated power. Upwards of fifty thousand persons have signed the pledge! Mr. Murphy toils on, and his method stands the test of criticism and overcomes all opposition. It is the Gospel. As we have given large room to this movement thus far, our readers will pardon us for such brief notices of so great a work this week. We shall have more to say again. The entire community is aroused as never before on the subject of temperance. It is God's work, and marvellous in our eyes."

"Bro. Francis Murphy itinerates from one meeting to another during each evening, carries a half hour, speaks, leaves his blessing, and so toils on for souls as no man in this field has ever done before. His speeches are always short, pointed, practical, and full of spiritual power. He preaches Christ as the Deliverer. He urges immediate and full surrender to him. And the uniform testimony of the converts to temperance is that of praise to Christ, who opens the prison doors and breaks the captive's chains."

"The Temperance Ensign, February 15, a new paper just started, says: 'Up to this date, since early in December, about sixty thousand persons have signed the pledge in this city in Pittsburgh and suburban towns.' The liquor-traffic has suffered greatly. The Ensign says: 'One of the greatest evidences of the influence of this grand temperance movement is having over liquor-dealers is the fact that on one street alone in this city (Penn Street) there are almost one hundred saloons either closed entirely or bearing the sign 'No Let.'"

ILLINOIS.—The Interior, speaking of the temperance work commenced under the influence of the Moody meetings, says: "The temperance revival in our city gets larger. The success of it is mainly due, under God, to Mr. Sawyer. He is raised up especially for this work. ED. FARMER: Since I wrote you last I have again visited Nonpareil Lodge, and am pleased to report its officers and members all at work for the cause. C. H. Whitney, W. S. James, Julia Simpson, Mrs. Stearns, Walter Robinson, and a score of other members, work nobly for the best interests of the Order.

On the eighth inst. I visited Marshfield in Clackamas county, and had the pleasure of a visit with Hon. W. A. Mills and his kind family. Bro. Mills is the merchant of the place and is doing a very good business. Lone Star Lodge, No. 91, I am pleased to say is at work once more, and the L. D., Bro. Mills, says, "we will keep it going—we mean business here, and you may look for a good report from us."

He and his excellent family have done much for No. 57, and their faith in the efficiency of organized effort has not diminished. No. 57 has been organized over ten years and it never misses a meeting. It has a hall, organ and fixtures of its own—has expended recently over one hundred and fifty dollars in moving and repairing the hall, and it has yet about seventy dollars in the treasury. Many other Lodges would do well to pattern after this one in watching their finances. Lodges can do a much more effective work when they have the specie to back them. Bros. Lambert (and family), Packer, Bailey, Keenan, Keller, Henry Lambert, and Sisters Ross, Grimes, and others, are entitled to great praise for their labors in behalf of our cause. Yours in haste, W. R. DUNBAR.

W. R. Dunbar, G. W. C. T., writing from The Dalles under date of 6th inst. says: "Our public meeting here last night was largely attended. Harmon Lodge, No. 161, met at the hall and marched with regalia to the M. E. Church, where there was large number of citizens awaiting the exercises of the evening. The meeting was called to order by my young friend C. H. Reed, the popular and efficient W. C. T. of the Lodge. Some excellent singing was done by the members, and prayer offered by Rev. Hawn, the Chaplain of the Lodge, and one of the earnest workers for the cause here. To-night I met the Lodge in regular session and a more pleasant meeting we seldom have. The Lodge numbers near a hundred members, and they all appear so genial and social that I felt entirely at home. This is one of the best Lodges in the State, and intends to pull for the banner at next session of the Grand Lodge. Bro. Wm. Mitchell is Lodge Deputy, and he has long been one of our best workers. Hon. J. C. Cartwright and his excellent lady are active members. There are so many active members in this Lodge that I have not space to specify them by name."

GRANGE MATTERS.

In Memoriam.

At a meeting of Oswego Grange No. 175 held March 14th 1877, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

A Demand for Oregon Beef.

Mr. Theodore Cartwright, who came down from Antelope Valley, Wasco county, last week, informs us that stock men east of the mountains are preparing to drive their beef cattle to the Central Pacific R. R. for shipment to Chicago. This was commenced last year, stock being driven to Reno, Nevada, and those who engaged in the business are said to have done well at it, so the stock men propose to take hold of it themselves and see how much there is in it. This confirms the statements made by Mr. Cross in the FARMER that Oregon beef will be wanted for the East in large quantities and his advice to improve the stock of beef cattle by crossing ordinary stock with shorthorn, is well worthy the attention of all cattle men.

CENTENNIAL DIPLOMAS.—Gen. C. B. Norton, late Secretary Centennial Board of Finance writes to E. M. Waite, Secretary State Agricultural Society, that persons entitled to diplomas at the late Exhibition can have them framed and shipped for the sum of five dollars, by addressing as above. The frame is very appropriate and made expressly for this particular use.

From a Distinguished Jurist. "I have tried the PERUVIAN SYRUP and the result fully sustains your prediction. It has made a new man of me, infused into my system new vigor and energy. I am no longer troublous and debilitated as when you last saw me, but stronger, heartier, and with larger capacity for labor, mental and physical, than at any time during the last five years." Sold by all druggists.

A Remarkable Cure. WEST TOWNSEND, VT., May 14, 1869. Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & SONS, Gentlemen.—Several years since I took a severe cold, which settled on my lungs, where it remained without relaxation. I was then in Massachusetts, and growing worse and becoming unable to attend to my business I returned home and commenced searching in earnest for some medicine which would restore my lost health. I consulted physicians, I tried many remedies, but obtained no help, but daily grew worse. I had a terrible cough, and raised a good deal of blood. I had profuse night sweats, and severe pain in my side. I continued in this state for months, and became so weak that it was with great difficulty I could walk, when I was advised to try WESTAN'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and to my great joy I soon found that this remedy had arrested the disease. I continued to use the BALSAM to the extent of five bottles, and have since then experienced no difficulty of lungs. I believe the BALSAM saved my life, and I shall ever hold it in high estimation. Yours truly, LEWIS PHELPS.

This Pear is one of the most valuable new Fall Pears in cultivation. Price of trees, $1 each.

Oregon Champion Gooseberry. This berry is worth all other Gooseberries for profit, as it is a fine large berry, and the most prolific bearer ever known. Price of plants, $1.50 per doz., $10 per hundred.

Red Warrington Gooseberry. This is the largest of all Gooseberries, and is a blood red, very ornamental, and an excellent berry. Price of plants, 50 cents each, $5 per dozen. Peach Seedlings. Per hundred, $4; per thousand, $30. Price lists sent free to any address.

Plum and Prune Trees on Peach Roots. I claim that the Peach root is far superior to Plum roots for grafting prunes and plums on, for these reasons: 1. You never have any sprouts to destroy the life of your trees. 2. The prunes and plums succeed better on peach than on plum. 3. The prunes and plums bear sooner on peach roots, and the fruit is of better quality. My brother has a frame orchard of 400 trees on peach roots five years old that had forty pounds to the tree this season. His trees are very thrifty and fine. I can show any man peach roots that are twenty-five years old, perfectly sound and healthy.

Testimony in favor of the Peach Root. M. MINNIVILLE, Oct. 25, 1876. H. W. PRETTYMAN, Dear Sir: You are quite in regard to Plum trees on Peach roots, in as much. I have a number of large, healthy Plum trees twenty years old, grafted on peach roots. They have never sprouted, and bear extremely well. I would not have a plum or prune tree unless it was on peach root. Yours, respectfully, W. T. NEWBY.
