

I. O. G. T.

Address by the G. W. C. T.

SILVERTON, OR., April 23, 1877. To the Lodges of I. O. G. T., Greeting: BROTHERS AND SISTERS: The next Annual Session (the 13th) of our Grand Lodge will meet at Albany, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., on Tuesday the 12th day of June 1877.

CONSTITUTION. ARTICLE I.

Sec. 3. The members of this body shall be its officers and past officers, representatives and past representatives, who are contributing members of the several Lodges subordinate to this Grand Lodge, and who have taken the Grand Lodge Degree, and been admitted as required by the Constitution.

Sec. 5. Election and Time of Service. The regular election of Representatives shall be held at the first regular meeting in the quarter during which the annual session of the Grand Lodge is held. Written ballots shall be used, and a majority of all votes cast shall be necessary to a choice. If the Lodge fail to elect at the regular time, or if vacancies occur, or a Lodge is entitled to additional Representatives, previous to any session, an election may be held at any regular meeting within four weeks of such session.

Sec. 6. Privileges of the Grand Lodge. All acting and Past Worthy Chief Templars, acting and Past Worthy Vice Templars, and all Deputies of the Grand Worthy Chief Templar, shall be entitled to the Grand Lodge Degree, and all the privileges of membership in this Grand Lodge, except voting, provided that they are in good standing in their several Lodges, and present the proper credentials.

Sec. 7. Credentials. All Representatives shall receive regularly attested certificates of election to this body. All members entitled to the Grand Lodge Degree, under Section 6, shall receive certificates of service in their respective offices, from the Lodge in which said services were rendered, and this shall be their proper credentials, entitling them to seats in this Lodge, and the Grand Worthy Chief Templar's commission shall be the requisite credentials for Deputies—but no Representatives or non-voting members can be admitted unless they are full Degree members, and in possession of the current quarterly pass-word.

BY-LAWS. ARTICLE VII.

All Representatives to this Grand Lodge shall be chosen in conformity with Article I, Section 4, Uniform Constitution, and that each Subordinate Lodge in the jurisdiction shall be entitled to one Representative for its Charter, and one additional Representative for each forty members in good standing, and fractions of forty, when such fraction exceeds twenty members. Lodges are entitled to an Alternate for each regular Representative, to be elected the same as regulars, such alternates to be entitled to all the rights and privileges of the Grand Lodge in the absence of regular Representatives.

ARTICLE VII.

No Subordinate Lodge shall be entitled to representation in this Grand Lodge which has not reported and paid all dues to the Grand Lodge for the quarter preceding the session of the Grand Lodge. And no Lodge is entitled to a vote in this Grand Lodge unless the duly elected Representative or Alternate is present.

HALF FARE RATES:

I have made arrangements with the O. S. N. Co. and the two Rail Roads as follows: Officers, Representatives and others attending the Grand Lodge, will pay FULL FARE going; and during the session of the Grand Lodge the G. W. Secretary will issue to each a certificate which will secure transportation back FREE. Persons passing over two or more of these routes must obtain from the G. W. Secretary a separate certificate for each route and present the same to the Conductor or Purser.

It is to be hoped that a full representation may be had from all our Lodges, and that the noble cause for which we labor may be greatly benefited by our proposed meeting. Let us gather in to the beautiful city of Albany—one of the loveliest of our young State—and feel at home with each other. May this call to our membership be responded to from every point of the compass—from every latitude and longitude of Oregon—from Snake river, on the east, to the surging Pacific on the west—from the shadows of the everlasting Sielklyous on the south, to our extreme toward the north. We are about to the close of another year's work against intemperance, and we are called to meet in council, and Brothers and Sisters, it is a council of war—glorious war; war against the strongest, direst foe of human kind. I am glad to feel assured that as we gather into this council none of us will come to advise capitulation or surrender. No, thank heaven the fortunes of our past career furnish no occasion for indulging a spirit of surrender or even discouragement. On the contrary we are still bearing aloft our standard with strong and steady arm, with the records of past victories and the presages of future triumphs emblazoned on our banner, marching onward, onward, "abouting the battle cry of temperance." Then let us come together to greet each other, to rehearse the incidents of the campaign just closing—to inspect our arms—replenish our munitions of war—redistribute our forces—bid each other God speed and go forth again to valiant conflict with the vile demon that lurks in the wine cup. Hoping to meet many of you at the time and place above named, I am yours, fraternally,

W. R. DUNBAR.

W. R. Dunbar, G. W. C. T., reports visits to Union Lodge, No. 166, Western Star, No. 10, and onward, No. 229, which are all doing a good work. He says want of time forbids his giving an extended notice of these Lodges, but that he found in their ranks many earnest and valiant friends of the Order and veteran workers for the cause. On the 27th of April he was to lecture at Harrisburg.

Correspondence from the G. W. C. T.

HARRISBURG, April 28, 1877.

ED. FARMER: On the evening of the 27th inst. we had a public meeting at Tanager, and on the 27th at Harrisburg, where I had the pleasure of meeting with Bros. Hart, Starr, and others who had come up on a hand-car from Halsey for the purpose of attending the lectures. Bro. B. H. Allen was prevented from attending on account of having been called to the bedside of a dying friend a few minutes before the time fixed for starting. Our Halsey Brothers are the true grit and nobly keep their organization moving on in the line of duty.

Harrisburg is improving rapidly and will soon be quite a city itself. Bro. M. Fuller has charge now of the Alpha House (the old Union) and is making a good house and a popular landlord. The Harrisburg Nucleus under the management of Messrs. Porter and Hammond, is a favorite here and is a spicy little sheet.

The prairie fields of Linn county are teeming with busy laborers, and a vast amount of grain is being sown and the farmers are looking forward to large yields and good prices. So note it be.

IRVING, OR., April 30, 1877.

ED. FARMER: At the hour 1 o'clock and fifteen minutes, on the 27th inst., I jumped aboard the south-bound mail train at Harrisburg under the command of its popular conductor—Hon. George McDowell Stroud once Mayor of Seio—and went whirling off for this place. At Junction we stopped a few minutes to take up some freight cars for points farther south, for be it remembered freight trains run only to Junction and points south of that are supplied with freight cars by the locomotive that draws the mail and passenger coaches. Junction seems to be rapidly building up, and I hear that the Lodge of I.O.G.T. is doing well under the management of the Houstons, Doc. Bolon, H. F. Johnson, Sisters Moore, McClure, Test, Kratz, Poindexter and others.

From Junction, seven miles to this place, we are carried through Grand Prairie, Lane county, one of the richest and most beautiful stretches of farming land in our State. Under the mellow rays of an April sun a ride over this prairie is indeed enjoyable, lovely farm houses, well arranged barns, and finely cultivated fields are found on either hand, and as the traveler through this country looks over these fields of growing grain, and on, past the cosy cottages and thrifty orchards, to the surrounding mountains of the Calapooia coast, and Cascade ranges, timber covered from base and summit—standing like faithful sentinels keeping watch over the rich treasures below—drinks in at one draught of sight a magnificent view and one of which Oregonians may well be proud.

Two o'clock p. m. brings me to this place where I was met by my young friend B. F. Bond, (the efficient Lodge Deputy of Grand Prairie Lodge) and his brother, and behind a span of dashing roadsters we were soon conveyed to his residence some two miles to the westward, where I was made to feel at home by him and his excellent lady (who at last session of Grand Lodge was Miss Clara J. Potter, a representative from No. 188).

During the evening we made a visit to No. 188, and I can assure you we had a grand time. Bro. Green is C.T.; Mattie Bond, V. T.; V. S. Bond, S.; Charles Jennings, T. A dozen visitors were present from Delevan Lodge, No. 159, and all seemed to enjoy the occasion. The members of No. 188, know how to entertain their visitors. At recess a magnificent treat of cakes, pies, &c., was passed around by the good Sisters of the Lodge who know how to fix up such things. Sisters Lou Bond, Mollie Green, Caddie Bond, Clara Bond, Helen Bond, Mattie Bond, Mary Potter, Ella Bond, and Mary Bond, had the thanks of all present for their kindly treat of good things. Grand Prairie Lodge, No. 188, has been running about four years, and in that length of time has done a good work. They in conjunction with the grange own a splendid hall built over the school house, and they are justly proud of their achievements. Sister Lou Bond is editor of Lodge paper.

The farmers in this locality are about done seeding and a much greater acreage has been planted to wheat than ever before. I hear of some fields sown three weeks since in this neighborhood, and the grain has not sprouted at all. The supposition now is that the wheat after being vitriolized for sowing was allowed to remain in the bin until it heated and spoiled. Such is the opinion of Mr. William Bond at whose comfortable home I spent the night after our public meeting of yesterday. In haste,

W. R. DUNBAR.

A Wonder-working Remedy.

No remedial agent has ever been offered to the sick and debilitated at all comparable to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, in cases of remittent and intermittent fevers, constipation, nervous ailments, rheumatism, and disorders involving constitutional weakness or physical decay. It literally "works wonders." The botanical ingredients which its spirituous basis holds in solution, act like a charm upon the stomach, and through the stomach upon the brain, liver, bowels and nervous system. There is nothing in its composition that is not salutary. It contains some of the most potent tonics of the vegetable kingdom and the juices of the best aperient and anti-bilious roots and herbs combined with a perfectly pure stimulating element. The Bitters are peculiarly adapted to those engaged in exhausting or unhealthy occupations, as by its use strength is sustained and the ability of the system to resist atmospheric and other influences prejudicial to health largely increased.

A movement is on foot to build a bridge over the Umatilla river at or near Butter creek.

Ladies, buy your bonnets of Mrs. Wm. Millican, and get a bandbox thrown in, if you want it.

DIED:

April 5th, 1877, in Salem, Friday evening, at 8:30 p. m., of diphtheria, Fanny Pearl, eldest daughter of James and Emma Cross, aged 5 years and 29 days.

From our threshold now is missing, One fair soft sunny brow, But safe in the arms of Jesus, Doth rest her spirit now.

Yes sweet little Pearl is missing, But pleasure 'tis to know, That she is happier above, Than she could be here below.

Landed safe on the other shore, In heaven she sings to-night, And there waits to welcome all, To that haven of light.
