

1,000,000 BOTTLES OF THE CENTAUR LINIMENTS.

have been sold the last year, and not one complaint has reached us that they have not done all that is claimed for them. Indeed, scientific skill cannot go beyond the result reached in these wonderful preparations. Added to Carbolic, Arnica, Mentha, Senecio-Oil and Witch Hazel, are other ingredients, which make a family liniment that defies rivalry.

The Centaur Liniment, Yellow Wrapper, is intended for the tough fibres, cords and muscles of horses, mules, and animals.

Rev. Geo. W. Ferris, Manokill, Schoharie Co., N. Y. says: "My horse was lame for a year with a fetlock wrench. All remedies utterly failed to cure it."

CHILDREN.

A complete substitute for Castor Oil, without its unpleasant taste or recoil in the throat. The result of 20 years' practice by Dr. Sam'l Pitcher, of Massachusetts.

Pitcher's Castoria is particularly recommended for children. It destroys worms, assimilates the food, and allows natural sleep. Very efficacious in Croup and for children Teething. For Colds, Feverishness, Disorders of the Bowels, and Stomach Complaints, nothing is so effective.

LUCIUS BELL, Successor to J. M. KESLER & Co., 25 Liberty St., NEW YORK, Commission Agent.

Scab, Screw Worm, Foot Rot, AND ALL Parasites that infest Sheep. IT IS SAFER, BETTER AND VASTLY CHEAPER THAN ANY OTHER EFFECTUAL REMEDY FOR THE TREATMENT OF SHEEP. IT Improves the Health OF THE ANIMAL, AND THE QUALITY OF THE WOOL.

T. A. DAVIS & Co., PORTLAND, OREGON, Wholesale Agents for the State, Or to your nearest Retail Druggist.

Mrs. Rohrer's New Remedy FOR THE LUNGS. MEETING WITH WONDERFUL SUCCESS!

J. A. STRATTON, Attorney at Law, SALEM, OREGON. Office on State Street, opposite the Bennett House.

BY TELEGRAPH.

A large contingent of the Russian army is marching on the Balkans. News of crossing the Balkans has evidently caused great excitement in Constantinople. A telegram from that city says the Turkish newspapers are urging the inhabitants to form volunteer corps as the enemy is at their gates.

The Russian troops commanded by the Czarovich, are reported to have occupied Vetova, between Ragusa and Ruscuk, thus completely interrupting communication on that line. It is reported from Semolitza that the Czar left yesterday for Tirnova.

Disasters throughout Asia continue. Mukhtar Pasha's brilliant generalship must be acknowledged, his troops fight like demons incarnate. All tribes of the Caucasus are in armed revolt against Russia, and have taken all important outposts.

Vienna, July 18.—A correspondent telegraphs as follows: Not 18, but 45 battalions of Russians crossed the Balkans. It remains to be seen whether Suleiman Pasha will arrive in time to bar their further progress.

London, July 18.—A dispatch from Petrov says the Czarovich's headquarters crossed the Yanina on Wednesday in preparation for an advance on the river Lim, and the investment of Ruscuk. Half of the fourth corps, numbering probably 12,500 men will cross the Danube and advance towards the Balkans.

London, July 18.—A dispatch from Petrov says the Czarovich's headquarters crossed the Yanina on Wednesday in preparation for an advance on the river Lim, and the investment of Ruscuk.

London, July 18.—A dispatch from Petrov says the Czarovich's headquarters crossed the Yanina on Wednesday in preparation for an advance on the river Lim, and the investment of Ruscuk.

Chicago, July 21.—The Tribune's London special says the formidable character of the Russian advance across the Balkans was realized to-day when it was learned that 40,000 men had gone through Haink pass and that artillery was on the way. The London Times' Pera correspondent telegraphs that the Turks are utterly demoralized by the Russian advance over the Balkans and doubts if any substantial opposition will be made to the Russian movement on Adrianople.

New York, July 22.—The Russians during the week past have proclaimed little but performed prodigies in war. All parties admit their great success. The Oglo Turks are in a panic. The general deduction from the latest news is that a considerable Russian force is marching rapidly on Adrianople.

Constantinople, July 21.—A special says Russians are within three hours' march of Philippopolis. The Turks are now displaying great activity, troops and munitions being dispatched in all haste.

Chicago, July 19.—The Journal's Washington special says: It is announced that certain members of the national Republican committee, holding federal appointments, intend to decline to retire from either post.

Chicago, July 18.—A Times London special says: Communication with the seat of war on the Danube is completely closed. It is inferred that a battle is in progress.

Chicago, July 19.—A Times London special says: The Tribune's London special says: Notwithstanding the adverse position of the Turks in Bulgaria their position is not desperate.

London, July 18.—A dispatch from Petrov says the Czarovich's headquarters crossed the Yanina on Wednesday in preparation for an advance on the river Lim, and the investment of Ruscuk.

London, July 18.—A dispatch from Petrov says the Czarovich's headquarters crossed the Yanina on Wednesday in preparation for an advance on the river Lim, and the investment of Ruscuk.

Chicago, July 21.—The Tribune's London special says the formidable character of the Russian advance across the Balkans was realized to-day when it was learned that 40,000

THE GREAT RAILWAY STRIKE.

Columbus, Ohio, July 20.—The blockade of trains at Newark, in consequence of the strike on the B. & O. continues. No freight trains have been permitted to go out so far. Several trains attempted to get out but were stopped.

Columbus, July 19.—The strike on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad has extended to Central Ohio division, and all freight trains were detained at Newark to-day. It is stated the strikers have threatened to use fire in case of the removal of trains.

Baltimore, July 20.—There appears to be little difficulty thus far in obtaining men to work trains. Some strikers have applied to be reinstated. Trains begun moving from here this morning in charge of small detachments of U. S. soldiers.

Baltimore, July 20.—The strikers are so violent at Columbus and the Gov. Carroll, of Maryland, has called out the 5th regiment of State militia to go and aid in suppressing the riot.

Baltimore, July 21.—The result of the firing last night is nine persons dead. Several more will probably die and all far as accounts about twenty wounded.

Pittsburg, July 21.—The freight depot of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis R. R. and general offices of the same company were fired at 4:30.

Washington, July 21.—The President this afternoon issued proclamations warning all persons engaged in or connected with domestic violence and obstruction of laws at Cumberland and along the line of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

Mr. Wm. S. Smith brought us to-day a sample of wheat cut through and cleaned by W. H. Parrish's new invention, a machine that combines reaper thresher and separator in one.

The Indian War.

The Times' Washington special says: Owing to the news of Gen. Howard's late success against the Indians, it is Secretary McCrary's present intention to leave him undisturbed.

A dispatch dated Camp McReh, Kamia, I. T., July 14th, via Walla Walla 18 h, says: Chief Joseph has moved over the mountains and sent a messenger to Gen. Howard, to the effect that he desires to surrender.

Capt. Ainsworth received yesterday the following dispatch from Capt. Babbitt. The telegram is dated Fort Lapwai, July 17th, via Walla Walla, 19 h:

The war is virtually ended. The Indians are badly whipped, and quarreling among themselves. Small parties are continually coming in and surrendering.

Capt. Hunter, of the Dayton volunteers, left camp at Kamia on Wednesday at 5:30 p. m. From him we gather the following items: The regular cavalry and Lewiston volunteers pursued and overhauled the Indians on Tuesday.

A Lewiston Teller extra of Friday, July 20, has the following: Capt. Hunter, of the Dayton volunteers, left camp at Kamia on Wednesday at 5:30 p. m.

Howard will return to Lapwai, and Hunter was informed that he intended to move north to the Spokane country.

Why was Noah never hungry in the ark? Because he always had Ham with him!