

1,000,000 BOTTLES OF THE CENTAUR LINIMENTS.

have been sold the last year, and not one complaint has reached us that they have not done all that is claimed for them.

Mr. Josiah Westlake, of Marysville, O., writes: "For years my Rheumatism has been so bad that I have been unable to sit from the house."

READ! READ! Rev. Geo. W. Ferris, Manokill, Schoharie Co., N. Y. says: "My horse was lame for a year with a fetlock wrench."

It makes very little difference whether the case be "wrench," sprain, spavin or lameness of any kind, the effects are the same.

Laboratory of J. B. Ross & Co., 46 Day St., New York.

CHILDREN.

A complete substitute for Castor Oil, without its unpleasant taste or recoil in the throat.

Pitcher's Castoria is particularly recommended for children. It destroys worms, stimulates the food, and allows natural sleep.

This is one of many testimonials: "CONWELL, LEBRON CO. Pa., March 17, 1876. "Dear Sir:—I have used your Castoria in my practice for some time."

Mothers who try Cast via will find that they can sleep nights and that their babies will be healthy.

J. B. Ross & Co., New York.

LUCIUS BELL, Sole Agent for the Pacific Coast, for the collection of money.

FOR BUYING AND FORWARDING FROM New York via Panama, Pacific Railroad, and Cape Horn.

ATTENTION SHEEP GROWERS!! CARBOLICS SHEEP MANUFACTURED BY MALLINGROD & CO. ST. LOUIS, MO.

A SURE CURE FOR Soab, Sore Worm, AND ALL Parasites that infest Sheep.

Improves the Health OF THE ANIMAL AND THE QUALITY OF THE WOOL.

BY TELEGRAPH. THE GREAT RAILWAY STRIKE.

Chicago, July 25, 11:15 P. M.—The night so far has been one of excitement and trouble.

Washington, July 25.—Dispatches to-night show a general feeling of anxiety in disturbed districts.

Chicago, July 25.—5 P. M.—The rioters have been busy all day in various parts of the city.

Reading Pa., July 24.—Large crowds gathered at the scene of last night's affair and about the same time several companies of the 4th regiment marched down Seventh St.

Buffalo, July 25.—Excitement is increasing. The mob have driven men several manufacturing establishments in the lower part of the city and intend to close them all up.

Buffalo, July 25.—The mayor has admonished all law-abiding citizens to keep within doors between 10 o'clock and 5 in the morning.

New York, July 25.—At the meeting about 10,000 men were present and all nationalities were represented.

Buffalo, July 25.—The Tompkins square meeting ordered an address to President Hayes, asking that troops be used not against the people, and not in favor of railroad corporations.

New York, July 25.—Members of the Brotherhood of Firemen who previously urged the strike now vociferously condemn it.

Syracuse, N. Y., July 25.—A stock train ran away from the strikers this morning, but they pursued on an engine and compelled the fireman to leave, and brought the train back a distance of six miles.

Syracuse, July 25.—Late to night the striking brickmen, firemen and conductors, in a meeting at East Syracuse, unanimously resolved to recommence operation of the road to-morrow morning.

Hornellville, July 25.—The following is the substance of the conditions of settlement of the strike; men to go to work at a uniform reduction of 10 per cent; also acknowledgment of title to land occupied along the track by companies; no discharge on account of this strike, and no arrests unless for dangerous or criminal offenses; the restoration of discharged employees left to the company.

Dayton, July 25.—Trains on all roads entering the city are now running regularly, and all danger of any riot is thought by the authorities to be over.

Jackson, Mich., July 25.—At a conference with the Michigan Central officials to day a meeting of employes decided to stand by the company. Engineers and firemen, however, refused to participate, and struck to-night.

Galveston, Texas, July 25.—A News special from Marshall and Dallas reports a strike on the Texas Pacific railroad. The men demand three months' back pay and the withdrawal of the late order for 10 per cent reduction of wages.

Newark, July 25.—The engineers on the Morris & Essex railroad, at Hoboken, struck this evening and travel is suspended.

Jersey City, N. J., July 25.—The strike on New Jersey Central is complete. Passenger cars have been detached at Phillipsburg and passengers detained.

Newark, N. J., July 25.—The engineers on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, after a long session in Hoboken, decided to strike at 6 o'clock this evening, and no trains have passed here since. The tracks and depot are deserted.

Reading, July 25.—Obstructions have been removed. Trains on the Reading railroad and branches resumed running as usual to-day. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of over 100 persons alleged to have been concerned in the recent destruction of property. Up to a late hour to-night fourteen arrests have been made. Ten killed and upwards of 50 wounded comprise the number of victims of Monday night. New cases of wounded are constantly reported. Twenty soldiers were wounded with stones and brickbats, some seriously.

any interference with or obstruction of train, or attack on private or public property, or riotous conduct, will be considered as rebellion against the government of the United States.

Washington, July 25.—Dispatches to-night show a general feeling of anxiety in disturbed districts. Officials here are confident.

Chicago, July 25.—5 P. M.—The rioters have been busy all day in various parts of the city, but chiefly between Canal and Green streets and between Twelfth and Twenty-second streets.

Reading Pa., July 24.—Large crowds gathered at the scene of last night's affair and about the same time several companies of the 4th regiment marched down Seventh St.

Buffalo, July 25.—Excitement is increasing. The mob have driven men several manufacturing establishments in the lower part of the city and intend to close them all up.

Buffalo, July 25.—The mayor has admonished all law-abiding citizens to keep within doors between 10 o'clock and 5 in the morning.

New York, July 25.—At the meeting about 10,000 men were present and all nationalities were represented.

Buffalo, July 25.—The Tompkins square meeting ordered an address to President Hayes, asking that troops be used not against the people, and not in favor of railroad corporations.

New York, July 25.—Members of the Brotherhood of Firemen who previously urged the strike now vociferously condemn it.

Syracuse, N. Y., July 25.—A stock train ran away from the strikers this morning, but they pursued on an engine and compelled the fireman to leave, and brought the train back a distance of six miles.

Syracuse, July 25.—Late to night the striking brickmen, firemen and conductors, in a meeting at East Syracuse, unanimously resolved to recommence operation of the road to-morrow morning.

Hornellville, July 25.—The following is the substance of the conditions of settlement of the strike; men to go to work at a uniform reduction of 10 per cent; also acknowledgment of title to land occupied along the track by companies; no discharge on account of this strike, and no arrests unless for dangerous or criminal offenses; the restoration of discharged employees left to the company.

Dayton, July 25.—Trains on all roads entering the city are now running regularly, and all danger of any riot is thought by the authorities to be over.

Jackson, Mich., July 25.—At a conference with the Michigan Central officials to day a meeting of employes decided to stand by the company. Engineers and firemen, however, refused to participate, and struck to-night.

Galveston, Texas, July 25.—A News special from Marshall and Dallas reports a strike on the Texas Pacific railroad. The men demand three months' back pay and the withdrawal of the late order for 10 per cent reduction of wages.

Newark, July 25.—The engineers on the Morris & Essex railroad, at Hoboken, struck this evening and travel is suspended.

Jersey City, N. J., July 25.—The strike on New Jersey Central is complete. Passenger cars have been detached at Phillipsburg and passengers detained.

Newark, N. J., July 25.—The engineers on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, after a long session in Hoboken, decided to strike at 6 o'clock this evening, and no trains have passed here since. The tracks and depot are deserted.

Reading, July 25.—Obstructions have been removed. Trains on the Reading railroad and branches resumed running as usual to-day. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of over 100 persons alleged to have been concerned in the recent destruction of property. Up to a late hour to-night fourteen arrests have been made. Ten killed and upwards of 50 wounded comprise the number of victims of Monday night. New cases of wounded are constantly reported. Twenty soldiers were wounded with stones and brickbats, some seriously.

Albany, July 27.—The governor received a dispatch stating that the sheriff and deputies had taken possession of the Northern Central railroad near Elmira and dispersed the mob.

San Francisco, July 25.—Every precaution is being taken to insure order during the night. A full regular and special police force is on duty all night.

San Francisco, July 25.—The fire at the corner of Stockton and Broadway was extinguished and order restored. A man was run over and killed by a horse cart on the way to the fire.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

San Francisco, July 25.—A mob this evening set fire to a large lumber yard near the Pacific Mail Co's dock.

Philadelphia, July 28.—The president of the Pennsylvania railroad makes the announcement that the road and its branches are open for freight and passengers from Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York to points as far as Altoona on their main line.

Toledo, July 27.—Manufacturing establishments closed by the mob Wednesday, are quietly resuming operations. Quiet to-day.

Indianapolis, July 28.—Trains on all the roads are running except the Vandalia and Indianapolis & St. Louis road on which trouble exists, west of here.

Saratoga, Pa., July 28.—The main line of the D. L. & W. is now idle. The mines are rapidly flooding, and nobody is allowed to touch the pumps under peril of their lives.

Elmira, July 27.—The Northern Central strike is ended; no concessions, no disarming, no military. There is great rejoicing.

Detroit, July 27.—All roads but the Lake Shore are running on schedule time. The Lake Shore is allowed to run no freight.

Detroit, July 28.—Strikers on the Canada southern have resumed work on the Canadian division. All trains are moving as usual.

Louisville, July 27.—The military are active, and the mob are weakening. Gen. Ragsdale arrived to-day.

Louisville, July 28.—The city is quiet and no disturbances probable. Strikers have generally returned to work, though some are holding out. Steps are being taken to organize a permanent citizens' militia.

Nashville, July 27.—U. S. authorities have been protecting railroads, but the feeling is strong against allowing passenger trains to go out to-morrow.

On most of the railroads where strikes occurred, the dispatches represent trains as running—at some places there is interruption, but generally there is no disturbance.

FOREIGN.

Bucharest, July 25.—Reports current assert that Raoul Pasha has surrounded the Russian force at Eski Saghira, but he has been defeated with a loss of 10,000 killed, wounded and prisoners.

Vienna, July 25.—It is confirmed that the Russians have been defeated near Kalofter consequently the men's minds are becoming calmer at Philippopolis.

It is telegraphed from Oravonra, near Balg that the Turks are harassing Christians without mercy. A dispatch to the Greek ambassador at Constantinople, asks for prompt assistance, as otherwise not a man a man will be left. An English war sloop with Austrian steamers left immediately to receive the fugitives.

Paris July 25.—It is reported Turkey uses for peace, and Russia will not treat until she holds Constantinople.

Regina, July 25.—All the caulding forts around Nioca have been captured by the Montenegrins. The fortress of Nioca itself holds out.

Vienna, July 25.—It is announced from the seat of war that the Marshak Cossacks are absolutely massacring all the population and abandoning themselves to all imaginable excesses.

Suleiman and Raouf Pashas, have effected a junction of their forces and are now at the head of an army of 80,000 men on the south side of the Balkans.