

The Paris Exhibition. AMERICA LEADS THE WORLD IN AGRICULTURE AND MACHINERY.

In a private letter President White, of Cornell University, speaks of American success in Paris in the following terms: "The Exhibition is really a vast success from every point of view save the financial."

Perhaps the most striking thing has been the taking of the Great Prize for artistic gold and silver work by Tiffany. Splendid as the exhibition was in this respect, Tiffany stood above all his rivals.

Benefits of the Grange.

Whatever of grander opportunity, or loftier possibility, or more practical work may have in store for the farmer, one thing is certain—the grange system is really the first attempt at organized effort, and for the present at least is the best channel for immediate and constant labor.

FLAX AND COTTON.—From the days when Babylon flourished, flax has formed a very important article of manufacture and trade.

THE BAR-ROOM JOURNALIST.—He stands in the stores with his back to the stove and tells how he could run a newspaper: how he could be as independent as a hog on ice, and call things by their right names; how he would expose corruption in high places; how he would write good common sense and none of your frivolous, try-to-be-funny stuff.

write a sensible article every day for a week. Before the week is out he is sure to be pumped dry, and will gape worse for an idea than a chicken does with the pip.

GREAT BRITAIN VS. THE UNITED STATES.—The American Export Journal says: Great Britain is beginning to count up the money it has yearly expended in buying the necessities of life.

TO OUR FRIENDS.

It is desirable to have the friends of the FARMER take an individual interest sufficient to sit down and occasionally write a letter for publication. Many farmers hesitate to do this because they distrust their own powers of interesting other readers, or perhaps they are afraid of the criticisms and the waste basket.

There is one business that never could succeed without a great many strikers, and that is the match trade.

GOOD BYE.

Good bye, old home! to me so dear! We have been friends for many a year; But 'er shall dawn another day, I shall be many miles away!

What! at this hour am I so weak? The time has come for me to seek My place within this world so wide, To battle bravely, side by side With others who, with bitter tears, stave up the joys of youthful years.

GRANGE MEETINGS.

THE MARKETS.

Portland quotations for wheat range from $1.35 to $1.50 per cental. It is claimed that $1.55 is a fair price for ordinary wheat, though $1.75 per cental can be obtained for a good round lot.

We regret what we have before held to the public, that it is the Baltic ports and the American lakes, we may realize some further advance. It seems to us possible that wheat on the present rise, may go to $0.80 a bushel at Salem, where it is now 77c, and it will hardly fall below that before January.

The Centaur Liniments are of two kinds. The White is for the human family, the Yellow is for horses, sheep, and other animals. PROOF OF THE Superiority OF THE PACIFIC RUBBER PAINT.

Report of the committee appointed by the California State Agricultural Society, Sept. 1878, to examine and report upon the merits of mixed paints exhibited.

"Pacific Rubber Paint covered 21,278 sq. in. "Averill Chemical" " 17,841 " "Imperishable" " 11,413 "

An equal quantity of each paint having been used, the above results show that the Pacific Rubber Paint covered nearly TWENTY PER CENT MORE SURFACE than the "Averill Chemical Paint," and nearly FIFTY PER CENT MORE SURFACE than the "Imperishable Paint."
