AN ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE THE HUNGARIAN PRIME MINISTER.—PESTH, Nov. 27.—Last night while Tisza, the Hungarian prime minister, was entertaining Count Andrássy and members of the legation, a bomb exploded in the alley between the fortress theater and the minister's palace. The bomb had been charged with dynamite. The windows of the palace were shattered but nobody hurt. Great excitement prevails.

AN ARMY MAN SPEAKS PLAINLY.—CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—The Tribune's Washington special says that Gen. R. B. Marcy, inspector general of the United States army, has prepared a paper charging the Indian bureau with being thoroughly impregnated with corruption, and that any change would be to the advantage.

EVARTS' LOGIC APPLIED TO THE CHINESE QUESTION.—CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—The Tribune's Washington special says: The proposition of Pacific coast politicians to open war upon the Chinese treaty, brought up a new point in the discussion, namely: how far the position assumed by Secretary Evarts in his letter regarding the conference of the local laws of Newfoundland with the fishery provisions of the treaty, apply to the local laws of California which are hostile to the Chinese, and in violation of the rights and protection conferred by the treaty.

THE INDIAN SQUABBLE.—WASHINGTON, Nov. 31.—Gen. Bachman, who died in Washington yesterday, commanded Fort Humboldt in 1854, and was Grant's commanding officer, and through whom his resignation was tendered.

CONGRESSMEN AND RAILROAD MEN AT WASHINGTON.—TO-day's trains have brought to Washington large numbers of congressmen from all directions, and by to-morrow there doubtless will be more than a quorum of both houses.

ANOTHER COMMERCIAL SMASH.—GLASGOW, Nov. 29.—The failure of Henry Taylor & Sons, grain and flour merchants, is announced. Liabilities $6,500,000. Wm. Taylor is an imprisoned director of the City of Glasgow Bank and is a senior partner of the firm.

FINLAND TO BE LIBERATED.—LONDON, Nov. 29.—Official correspondence in regard to Afghanistan from 1855 to the present time is published. It covers 266 pages. The answer's letter in reply to Lord Lytton's request for the reception of Sir Neville Chamberlain's mission, complains that before the viceroy's letter was read or his messenger had audience, other letters had reached the viceroy from commissioner at Peshawar to the commander of Ali Masjid, written threatening and containing hard words, repugnant to courtesy, and in a tone contrary to the ways of friendship and intercourse.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS.—LONDON, Nov. 28.—A correspondent with the Khurum column telegraphs as follows: He will probably attack Peiwar Pass on Saturday. A reconnaissance on Wednesday showed that the Afghans who abandoned Khurum Pass were so far without success, endeavoring to mount cannon on the summit of Peiwar. British troops will consequently make a dash hoping to capture the cannon and the pass. All sick and weakly will remain in Khurum fort.

RUSSIA TO THE FRONT.—LONDON, Nov. 28.—The Times has the following dispatch from Berlin: A St. Petersburg correspondent says that Russia has announced her intention of actively supporting the answer in the event of England occupying any points in Afghanistan from which the Russian dominion in Asia might be effectually threatened. This announcement is based upon the assertion that England has violated the alleged Afghan agreement of Lord Clarendon by the occupation of Quetta. The intention of Russia to in-intervention indispensable, now that the occupation of Quetta has been succeeded by expeditions in the direction of Candahar and Herat.

STRIKING MEASURES.—BERLIN, Nov. 29.—An order of the Prussian ministry of state is published that persons considered dangerous may be denied the right of residing in Berlin or its suburbs. Carrying arms is denied, except by persons with special permits, and the sale of pleasure projectiles is prohibited. The order takes effect Nov. 29th, and remains in force one year.

GROWING WORSE.—LONDON, Nov. 29.—The condition of the iron and coal trades in the South Staffordshire district is growing worse, and the closing of works and reduction of wages are noticeable.

A TARIFF RECOMMENDED.—RUSSIAN PRIME MINISTERS say the general depression in agriculture and commerce is largely caused by the protective tariffs of foreign countries, and the duties on foreign productions should be revised.

REDUCING EXPENSES.—LONDON, Nov. 30.—A dispatch from Constantinople says that the Porte has suppressed the Turkish legation at Washington and many consulates, since the cessation of hostilities.

ARMY FOR TURKISH TROOPS.—Twenty-nine vessels have arrived at Constantinople, mostly from the United States, with large cargoes of rifles and cannon. Turkish troops are now as well furnished with arms as before the war.

THE SITUATION NEAR ALI MASJID.—PESHAWAR, Nov. 30.—Gen. Brown's communications have been temporarily cut. Hostile highlanders, estimated at 4,000 in number, have collected in the hills below Ali Masjid. They cut off stragglers and have fired on armed parties. The section of the pass between Jumrood and Ali Masjid has been closed altogether for the present. A strongly escorted convoy failed to force its way to-day. The situation is serious and strong measures are inevitable.

PARLIAMENT.—LONDON, Dec. 2.—It is rumored that parliament, after a brief session, will be dissolved and a general election held in January.

GLADSTONE ON THE AFGHAN WAR.—LONDON, Dec. 1.—Gladstone in a speech at Greenwich, inveighed against personal government. He reproached the government for not communicating anything to parliament relative to Afghan affairs, and the question of sending a mission to Cabul. War had been declared and an invasion begun before parliament was convoked. Parliament, formerly the grand council of the nation, now resembles the parliament of France before the great revolution. He solemnly warns the British people not to abandon the principles of liberty which made its happiness. Speaking of the Afghan war, he declared the money spent thereon is a dishonor to England, and that her responsibilities will but commence with her victory. Lady Macbeth's words, "Here is a smell of blood," are still a powerful reprobation, and unjust wars lead to national downfall.

THE UNDENIABLE TRUTH.—YOU deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable, unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you,—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's August Flyer will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual costiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, &c. Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent and not a Druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents. Three doses will relieve you.
