

Otis Backs Out.

The Bendire-Otis difficulty, which has been under investigation at Vancouver for several days past before arbitration, has assumed a new phase. Proposition has been submitted looking toward an amicable arrangement of differences to both parties, and it is hoped that a passenger on the outgoing steamer.

Boat Launched.

The new ferryboat for the Columbia River, to ply between Vancouver and the Oregon side, has been launched near the mill by her owner, Captain Mr. She will be named the Mayor of Vancouver, who will present her with a set of colors on the occasion of her first visit to that place, at which she will be christened. This new ferry will be ready for service about the first of May.

After Years of Absence.

J. Magers, son of Dr. W. E. Magers of Davis, returned from the States lately, having graduated at the law school of the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor. Mr. Magers is a young man of promise and writes a very fine letter, as proved by some interesting correspondence we had published from him at that place. We may expect that he will show results to equal the advances he has enjoyed and are glad to meet with many friends in welcoming him home.

The Dead March.

Funeral of General Sully.

The remains of the late Gen. Alfred Sully were brought on the steamer Lurline from Vancouver this afternoon. A grand procession was formed at the head of Alder street, headed by the military band from Fort Vancouver, then followed by companies D, G and K, 21st regiment, commanded by Col. Mason, and the caisson bearing the remains, escorted by a company of soldiers. The caisson was covered with a flag and decorated with flowers. Gen. Howard and others followed, on foot, while civil officers of the city and Vancouver followed. The caisson moved west on Alder street to the bank, thence to Sixth, where the funeral services were held in the city Church. The band played a march as the procession moved along. The streets were crowded with people along the route and a large number of people to the church, to pay a tribute to the patriotic dead. The remains are placed in Captain H. Cooke's vault until the time comes to send them East.

Caught at Last.

A band of Land Sharks captured near the mouth of the Willamette valley with more success, escaping the vigilance of the police and officials alike. Salem men were the last sufferers by their depredations. Among the robbers the party at Salem, says the man was the following: On Sunday night, the 20th inst., the steamer was robbed of about thirty dollars' worth of goods.

State and Territorial.

Willamette Valley.

Schools on the Long Tom are said to be flourishing. The persons arrested at Salem for incendiary have all been discharged. The Great Republic Wrecking Company have filed articles of incorporation. The escaped prisoners from the Marion county jail have not yet been retaken. Some scamp tampered with the pile driver at McMinnville and deserves severe punishment.

The Plainedealer says the Grange warehouse in Roseburg, when the improvements are added, will have a storage capacity for 100,000 bushels.

The residence of J. W. White, on Applegate, was burned to the ground on Sunday afternoon, while the proprietor was visiting a neighbor. The Roseburg Independent has a communication from the County Superintendent, speaking in the highest terms of the graded schools of that place. The New Adrian cinnabar mine, in Douglas county, is to have a new furnace and the lead presents a splendid face. So the Star learns from the superintendent. It is reported that ex-Gov. Chadwick has bargained for the purchase of the Bonanza cinnabar mines in Douglas county, for $50,000 in the interest of California capitalists.

John Hess, on Yankee Creek, Jackson county, accidentally shot himself, and had his arm shattered, while out hunting, so the arm had to be amputated. He is 75 years of age. Gin Len, the boss Chinaman of Little Applegate, cleaned up on Wednesday after 21 days' run and washed out one hundred and fifty ounces of dust, worth $2,677, or $127 per day.

J. F. Peckles, of Greenwood, Umatilla county, was thrown from his horse and severely bruised; also, M. Conley, of Twelve Mile House, Umatilla county, met with the same accident. Charlie Graham, a mischievous boy eight years old, entered Marks & Co.'s store in Roseburg, emptied 25 gallons of kerosene and other wasteful things, and says he intended to set fire to the store.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrie Thomas Applegate and Miss Lucy Bart are going to start from Yoncalla to Eastern Oregon on next Tuesday. They will take up their residence in the John Day country. They are going into the sheep business.

The contract for carrying the mails between Ashland, Jackson county, and Lakeview, Lake county, is let to H. F. Phillips, of Ashland, at $1,600 a month—probably Colwell, the old contractor, could have carried it at the same price.

Thomas Sutton, of Couse Creek, Umatilla county, accidentally shot himself a few days ago; the ball entered the thigh in front and ranged downwards to the knee joint. Dr. Epperson was called and extracted the ball, and he is getting along well.

The Sentinel says the very late and continued rains are a blessing to that section, keeping up the supply for mining purposes and assuring the heaviest crop of grain ever raised in that valley. In fact, the only question next Fall will be—what are our farmers to do with their grain?

East of the Mountains.

Hay brings $18 a ton in Walla Walla. Thousands of fat cattle are grazing in the Yakima country. Ed. Sharon has made a map of Umatilla county for county use.

The Walla Walla fruit crop has got a good start, with no probability of damage by frost. Sterlin Brinley, living near Pendleton, has been pronounced insane and sent to the asylum.

Veins of gypsum and soapstone have been discovered on the Columbia, near the mouth of Snake river. The County Court has decided to bridge Umatilla river on the Weston road, and also at Happy Canon.

Beggs, one of the drivers of the U. I. & O. Stage Co. Umatilla county, was thrown from the box and hurt to such an extent that he concluded to lay up for repairs.

Guiser, a German living fifteen miles north of Lewiston committed suicide on Friday evening the 25th, by taking a dose of strychnine. Cause domestic tribulation.

Coal has been discovered in paying quantities near Heppner. The vein is 12 feet wide and 24 feet in depth. They are using the coal in the blacksmith shops at Heppner.

The Pendleton Independent learns that a dwelling house on the farm of Jonathan H. Keeney, about three miles above Pilot Rock, caught fire from a defective stovepipe, and before assistance arrived, was burned to the ground. The house was occupied by the families of James S. Jones and S. C. Hardesty.

The East Oregonian says reservation Indians have commenced running horses again, above the agency. Several of our citizens were at the races last Sunday and reported heavy bets being made in the way of blankets, etc. These Indians delight in horse racing, and have very little pity on horse flesh, as their races are from one mile to six miles in length.

Paget Sound.

Col. Larrabee has returned from a visit to the East. The Seattle Post speaks highly of Miss Rose Eytting's performance there.

The convocation of Western Oregon and Washington assembled at Seattle during last week. The Tacoma Herald says there are now 15 families located on Vashon's Island, which lies in the sound opposite Tacoma.

The Dakota on her last trip from the Sound took the largest list of passengers that has left the Sound for a number of years. According to the Transcript the slaughter house of J. M. Lamson & Co. was robbed of meat, probably by Chinamen or Indians.

The Seattle Post gives interesting particulars of the rescue of the Portuguese sailor, in the dark night, from the wrecked schooner McKinnon.

The Olympia Experiment says: Wm. Johnson was killed in a logging camp near Olympia on Saturday afternoon by the falling of a tree, a limb of which struck him in the temple.

A coroner's jury has found a verdict that seven white men and three Chinamen came to their deaths from a gas explosion in the Wellington mine, caused by a Chinaman passing toward the face of No. 10 level.

Rosch's German Syrup

Can now be purchased right at home; it is the most successful preparation ever introduced to our people. It works like a charm in all cases of Consumption, Pneumonia, Hemorrhages, Asthma, severe Coughs, Croup and all other Throat and Lung Diseases. No person has ever used this medicine without getting immediate relief, yet there are a great many poor, suffering, skeptical persons going about our streets with a suspicious count, and the voice of consumption coming from their lungs, that will not try it. If you die, it is your own fault, as you can go to your Druggist and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it; three doses will relieve any case. Regular size only 75 cents.

MANY readers of this paper little think or even suspicion that they are the selected victims of a very dangerous disease that is slowly but surely fastening its intestine and canorous fangs upon their system, and dragging them down to an untimely grave. It is CATARRH, in its incipient and latent stages, and it is extremely dangerous. If any reader is desirous of obtaining relief speedily, and a permanent cure, we would recommend to use the remedy of Messrs. Dobyns & Mitchell, North Middletown, Ky. See advertisement in another column.

The New Era Suicide.

The evidence adduced and the verdict of the Coroner's jury at the inquest on the body of S. S. Reed, of whom we made mention yesterday as having committed suicide at New Era by shooting through the breast, showed that deceased had been in declining health for about two years, and was subject to fainting spells; that the pain becoming acute, he resorted to taking laudanum, and for this reason, superinduced by financial difficulties, he was tempted, in a fit of temporary insanity, to put an end to his suffering. It was not produced in evidence that deceased's wife separated from him some time since, but subsequently returned, and that he was subject to fits of jealousy. Beside his wife he leaves a daughter, Minnie, aged twelve years.

Dr. JAMES KECK, of Portland, has an ad. in this issue. Anyone suffering from that dread disease, catarrh, would do well to call on the doctor.
