

Willamette Farmer. CLARKE & CRAIG, PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS. Terms of Subscription: One copy one year (12 numbers), in advance $2 00...

TELEGRAPHIC. EASTERN STATES.

Grain Movement at the East. NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Members of the produce exchange claim that there is no cause for uneasiness, but owing to large supplies of grain coming forward, the storage capacity of this port will soon be found inadequate to the demand.

Terrible Fire and Loss of Life. KANSAS CITY, Nov. 8.—Cole & Co.'s candy factory, one of the largest establishments in the State, is now burning, having caught on fire from the explosion of the starch dust, a material largely used in the compounding of fancy candies.

Abandoned in Mid Ocean. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 11.—Capt. Flaherty, of the steamer Zealand, arrived from Astoria yesterday, and reports that on November 5th he picked up the bark Royal Arch, of Sunderland, which had been abandoned by the crew.

Getting Ready for Grant. WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Committees on the reception of Gen. Grant met to-night. Judge McArthur, the chairman, stated that in pursuance of a citizens' meeting on the 25th ult., he had selected a committee of 100 to make preparations for the reception of General Grant when he should visit Washington.

Another Near Admirals' Sons. BALTIMORE, Nov. 11.—Rear Admiral Augustus H. Kilty, U. S. navy, died yesterday at his residence in this city, aged 72 years.

Scandal, Murder and Lynching. St. Paul, Nov. 11.—A special from St. Cloud says that John Walde, the town of Wald, having alienated the affections of a Mrs. John Colville, a neighbor's wife, had his house burned by the scandalized women of the neighborhood.

Expatriated Chinaman. The Chinese residents of Chicago had a meeting to-night and decided to advise the Chinese consular authorities of San Francisco that Wong Chin Foo, who is lecturing here on the doctrines of Confucius, is a bad man, who was driven from China for his crimes, and that he should properly be returned to China and receive the extreme penalty of the law.

Treasury Supplies. The treasury department to-day purchased 365,000 ounces of fine silver for the Philadelphia and San Francisco mints. Five hundred and fifty-one thousand ounces of standard gold bullion, being a portion of that received from Europe, was to-day ordered by the treasury department from the assay office in New York to the Philadelphia mint for coinage into gold coins.

Serves Them Right. NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The panic among dealers in lottery tickets here continues, the arrests of the past two days being followed up by proceedings calculated to cause dismay in the ranks of speculators.

Collisions at Sea. BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.—The steamer Falcon, Capt. Kirby, left this port at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Charleston with a full cargo and seven passengers. When off Barren Island she collided with the three-masted schooner S. C. Tyson, Capt. Nickerson, laden with ice from Kennebec river for this port.

What De Lesseps Will do. De Lesseps writes to Col. Totten, veteran engineer of the Panama railroad, that on his arrival at Aspinwall, Dec. 26th, he expects to personally preside over the international commission of engineers, to examine lines and means of construction of a ship canal. He invites Totten to membership of the commission or appoint a substitute.

Latest From New York. The Times differ from the Sun's estimate of the election results, by claiming Hoskins probably elected lieutenant-governor, also Wendell, Republican, treasurer by over 2,000. The official count begins to-morrow.

Revolutionists in Cuba. NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—General Calisto Garcia y Nouze, member and chairman of the Cuban revolutionary committee of this city, says that all the eastern provinces of Cuba from Cape May to Cape Cruz, are overrun by our forces, numbering at present over 5,000 well armed men, under command of Moncada, Peralta, Maceo, Gonzales and Benitez.

Dangers of the Sea. The Austrian bark Rebus, which arrived in port this afternoon, brings news of the loss of the schooner Petrel, with 15 passengers and her crew, including the captain; also brings six survivors, all that were left of a company of 21 persons. On the 29th of October she was capsized in a squall and 16 persons were lost, including Capt. Fisher.

More Indian War. EL PASO, TEXAS, Nov. 11.—A desperate fight took place yesterday at the mouth of the Rio Grande, between a large band of Indians (about 200) and a party of 50 men from Carizsa, New Mexico, 30 of whom were killed and 18 escaped wounded.

Abandoned in Mid Ocean. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 11.—Capt. Flaherty, of the steamer Zealand, arrived from Astoria yesterday, and reports that on November 5th he picked up the bark Royal Arch, of Sunderland, which had been abandoned by the crew.

Getting Ready for Grant. WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Committees on the reception of Gen. Grant met to-night. Judge McArthur, the chairman, stated that in pursuance of a citizens' meeting on the 25th ult., he had selected a committee of 100 to make preparations for the reception of General Grant when he should visit Washington.

Another Near Admirals' Sons. BALTIMORE, Nov. 11.—Rear Admiral Augustus H. Kilty, U. S. navy, died yesterday at his residence in this city, aged 72 years.

Scandal, Murder and Lynching. St. Paul, Nov. 11.—A special from St. Cloud says that John Walde, the town of Wald, having alienated the affections of a Mrs. John Colville, a neighbor's wife, had his house burned by the scandalized women of the neighborhood.

Expatriated Chinaman. The Chinese residents of Chicago had a meeting to-night and decided to advise the Chinese consular authorities of San Francisco that Wong Chin Foo, who is lecturing here on the doctrines of Confucius, is a bad man, who was driven from China for his crimes, and that he should properly be returned to China and receive the extreme penalty of the law.

Treasury Supplies. The treasury department to-day purchased 365,000 ounces of fine silver for the Philadelphia and San Francisco mints. Five hundred and fifty-one thousand ounces of standard gold bullion, being a portion of that received from Europe, was to-day ordered by the treasury department from the assay office in New York to the Philadelphia mint for coinage into gold coins.

Serves Them Right. NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The panic among dealers in lottery tickets here continues, the arrests of the past two days being followed up by proceedings calculated to cause dismay in the ranks of speculators.

Collisions at Sea. BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.—The steamer Falcon, Capt. Kirby, left this port at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Charleston with a full cargo and seven passengers. When off Barren Island she collided with the three-masted schooner S. C. Tyson, Capt. Nickerson, laden with ice from Kennebec river for this port.

What De Lesseps Will do. De Lesseps writes to Col. Totten, veteran engineer of the Panama railroad, that on his arrival at Aspinwall, Dec. 26th, he expects to personally preside over the international commission of engineers, to examine lines and means of construction of a ship canal. He invites Totten to membership of the commission or appoint a substitute.

Latest From New York. The Times differ from the Sun's estimate of the election results, by claiming Hoskins probably elected lieutenant-governor, also Wendell, Republican, treasurer by over 2,000. The official count begins to-morrow.

Revolutionists in Cuba. NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—General Calisto Garcia y Nouze, member and chairman of the Cuban revolutionary committee of this city, says that all the eastern provinces of Cuba from Cape May to Cape Cruz, are overrun by our forces, numbering at present over 5,000 well armed men, under command of Moncada, Peralta, Maceo, Gonzales and Benitez.

Dangers of the Sea. The Austrian bark Rebus, which arrived in port this afternoon, brings news of the loss of the schooner Petrel, with 15 passengers and her crew, including the captain; also brings six survivors, all that were left of a company of 21 persons. On the 29th of October she was capsized in a squall and 16 persons were lost, including Capt. Fisher.

has been taken before a U. S. commissioner. His bail has not yet been fixed, and he is now at his residence under surveillance.

FOREIGN NEWS. The Dilemma Settled. A dispatch from Cairo says, The recent difficulties concerning the obelisk have their origin in a long standing litigation with the Egyptian government concerning the land upon which the obelisk stands.

VIENNA, Nov. 9.—A St. Petersburg letter to the Abend Post says: If the new British Parliament sustains Lord Beaconsfield's policy Russia will occupy Northern Afghanistan.

LESDON, Nov. 9.—The Catholic bishops of Ireland have adopted resolutions appealing to the government and to all public bodies and private individuals to help the poor, as the poor law act is insufficient to meet the demand of the impending crisis.

MADRID, Nov. 9.—Two Kabyle tribes in Morocco have had a desperate conflict. One hundred and ninety were killed on one side and 90 on the other.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 9.—A loan issued by the government to cover the deficit of the present budget, which was offered at 95 c. 10, has been subscribed three times.

CHILLI, Nov. 10.—A telegram from Valparaiso announces the capture of Zinaqua, Peru by Chileans.

PARIS, Nov. 9.—Marshall Canrobert, Bonaparte, was to-day elected senator from the department of Lorraine. Guifey, republican, was elected senator from the department of Haute Alpes.

THE IRISH LOCAL GOVERNMENT has made a special report to the imperial government respecting the state of affairs in Ireland. The report says that the potato crop is everywhere deficient and inferior, and that, combined with the absence of great fuel owing to rain, is regarded as the leading cause of the distress, which is expected to culminate during the winter and spring.

PARIS, Nov. 9.—The Monitor Vinicole estimates that the results of the vintage in nine departments of the southwest, compare favorably with those of last year. The deficiency varying from one-tenth to one-fifth in the departments of the south and central regions, and over one-half in nine departments of the western region, about two-thirds in ten departments of the north and central regions and nearly two-thirds in ten departments of the northeast. In the northwestern region the deficiency is great. The loss in champagne by failure of vintage, is estimated at 30,000,000 francs.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 11.—The editors of all the principal newspapers in St. Petersburg have recently been summoned to a press bureau of the ministry of the interior and instructed with reference to the conduct of their respective papers. They were informed that frequent complaints have been received from Livadia that articles in the St. Petersburg press interfered with the imperial policy, and therefore they must not continue in the same strain.

PARIS, Nov. 11.—Abdel Kader, a famous Algerian chief, died at Damascus, aged 72.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 11.—All Russian papers have articles upon the latest steps taken in Constantinople by the British government, and in certain circles an uneasy feeling is generating. The Goides says: That in the event of England attempting to violate Turkish independence, and at the same time to infringe on the vital interest of Russia, a collision between the powers would be more convenient for the latter on the confines of Asia Minor than in the d. p. th of Central Asia.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 11.—There is grave reason to fear that the reckless, dogged and passive resistance which has hitherto baffled all efforts of the British ambassador to Turkey will continue to sink gradually, as it has been doing the last twelve months; until a catastrophe produces a radical change in the situation.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Col. Macpherson reports that the country beyond Rho and Cabul is open and the road easy.

THE SHEFFIELD DAILY TELEGRAPH reports Edward Stanhope, under Secretary of State for India, as saying, during a speech at Horn Castle, that parliament might last fall this very near year, but in all probability it was very near its end, and he took the opportunity of advising his hearers to prepare for an election at an early date.

that the whole as shown would mill $160 per ton, while selections could be made which would go high in the hundreds.

NEW CONSTITUTION ENACTED. The new constitution provides that the directors or trustees of corporations and joint stock associations shall be jointly and severally liable to creditors and stockholders for all moneys embezzled or misappropriated by the officers of such corporation or joint stock associations during the term of office of such officers or trustees.

ON TRAIL OF OUTLAW. REP. HARRIS, Nov. 9.—The Mendocino outlaw, Brown, Billings and Gunn, have been tracked within a few miles of this place. Their trail was lost a few miles west of here. Sheriff Moore, of Mendocino, and Chas. Foster, sheriff of this county, are after them, and have a large posse of men out. It is thought that they will be captured soon, as they must be somewhere in this immediate vicinity.

ST. FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—The storm of yesterday morning was productive of considerable minor damage among the shipping in the harbor. Several small craft in Mission street were driven ashore or sunk. The steamer Hilda dragged her anchor and went ashore at Potrero. The ship James Chester and Elderside came into collision and both were considerably damaged. Perry steamers had very rough passages, and creek boats were drawn off.

CITIZEN OF POLICE. A report round the City Hall is that Pat. Crowley will be appointed chief of police next month. The selection is the most satisfactory that could be made, by virtue of his previous record in that position.

AFTER SWAMP LANDS. The Central Pacific Railroad Company today commenced suit in the third district court against the City of Oakland to quiet title to about 500 acres of land lying along the water front of that city on the south side of San Antonio creek. This course has been made necessary by the recent agitation of the water front question in Oakland and a squatter war which has been in progress on the water front.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—John T. Curlee, who has been 14 months in the State prison, under conviction of participation in the murder of T. Wallace Moore, an old trial by jury, having been granted a new trial by the supreme court. His counsel, J. M. Brooks, in the district court, at once demanded a new trial, and the prosecution, through the acting district attorney, acknowledged that they had not legal evidence to convict, and asked that the prisoner be discharged from indictment.

ASSAY EXHIBIT. VIRGINIA, Nov. 10.—The Gold Hill News to-night publishes two assays of Hale & Norcross rock. The first is the rock taken Saturday gives $24 12. The second, taken on Sunday, yields 28 60, gold, and $243, silver; total, $171 90.

THE W. P. C. IN TROUBLE. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—In the county court this morning Judge Wright overruled a demurrer to the complaint in a suit brought to oust those officers elected by the W. P. C. who took the salary pledge. The case now begins to look serious for the officers elect. A jury trial has been demanded.

ANOTHER SHOT. SAN JOSE, Nov. 11.—This afternoon Joe Rodriguez, an ex-convict and desperado well known to the officers of this city, was shot by Joseph Felix in front of Minch's saloon in Mayfield, the latter using a shotgun loaded with buckshot. He died soon afterward. The trouble arose from the refusal of Felix to furnish deceased with money.

MORE SCHOOL TROUBLES. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—The finance committee of the board of Supervisors, to whom was referred, for investigation, charges against Director Mountain, for having received $200 for promising to obtain a position for a young lady in the schools, have reported, sustaining the charge and finding Mountain guilty of a misdemeanor. In consequence of the findings of the finance committee, Mayor Bryant will at once commence legal proceedings to oust Mountain from his seat in the Board.

THEY MUST HAVE THE OFFICE. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—The German club, W. P. C., met this evening to discuss Judge Wright's salary pledge decision. The sentiment of the meeting generally expressed was that if possible, otherwise by force. The Workingmen held an open air mass meeting at the corner of First and Howard streets this evening, about 2,000 being present. Kesrny addressed them, recommending that when the day arrived for the new officers to take their seats, the Workingmen should assemble at the sand lot, march in procession with their officers-elect to City Hall, and seat them. Judge Wright or any other court to the contrary notwithstanding.

KEARNEY WADES IN BLOOD. The workingmen held another anti-Judge Wright decision meeting this evening at the corner of Fifteenth street and Potrero avenue, at which Kearney announced that on the 1st of December he proposed to wade knee-deep in blood and perish in the pool in the attempt to seat the workingmen's candidates. There is a deep-seated impression that Kearney's threats are allegorical in their nature, as he testified on a previous occasion when placed on trial for incendiary utterances.

STRIKE ON THE COMSTOCK. VIRGINIA CITY, Nov. 9.—An important strike has been made in Hale & Norcross, and in a cross cut in the 2,100 level, running west 150 feet from the Savage line. At 10 o'clock to-day this cross cut was six feet in good milling ore with no indications of a west wall. The Gold Hill News this evening says of it: The formation is certainly a promising one. The cross cut is 6 feet in this ore. The ore contains black sulphurets and chlorides with spots of stauropite. The outside of a specimen secured is covered with fine rich chlorides, and much of the ore seen is a fine white chloride. There is no hesitancy in saying

The bridge erected across the Touchet, on the Mullan road, is said to be the best one in the country. It has a single span of 77 feet and is very solid and substantial.

A large and valuable vein of coal has been discovered in the vicinity of Boise City. At a depth of ten feet on the vein the coal is nearly pure and of the kind known as semi-bituminous.

The Watchman tells how two men deposited parcels with the landlady of the St. Louis Hotel, at Walla Walla, who made a mistake and gave $250 belonging to L. L. Lewis to a man named Geo. Lynch, whose purse only contained $95, but who wasn't honest and spent all but $61 of the $250, so that the landlady lost $183 and Lynch was taken drunk to jail.

The Walla Walla Statesman says: The immigration to this country is very large yet. Every day a large number arrive by the train, and long trains of teams, from all points between Northern Minnesota and Southern Texas, wind through town daily. As a rule, the immigrants are all of very high class. Their principal destinations are the Palouse and Spokane countries.

THE WORK OF GRADING THE N. P. R. R. has been finished to a point twelve miles beyond the mouth of Snake river. Great difficulty is found in obtaining good water. All used at present is taken from a well 128 feet deep, by a central seven inch cast iron pipe, and 40 cent steam boiler set. From the track has been laid at Walla Walla. If this can be obtained it will be laid as far as the road is graded this winter.

THE WATER DEPARTMENT having approved the estimates for building water works to supply Fort Walla Walla with good pure water, every available man in the garriçon is employed in the labor of constructing them. A large reservoir has been constructed of brick by John Goody, near Singleton's place, which will form the head of the water supply, to be conveyed in large pipes to the post, where it will be carried into every building.

THE DEDICATION OF THE NEW UNIVERSITARIAN church at Dayton took place Sunday, November 9th. Dayton people recognize the need of a railroad from that place to Walla Walla and say it must come.

A NEW BRIDGE IS TO BE ERRECTED AT what is called the "Old Mullan crossing" on Snake river, leading to Lyon's ferry, on Snake river.

BUSHAW WRIGHT, of La Grande, threshed 15,500 bushels of grain during the threshing season. Of this 6,170 bushels was threshed in Eagle valley.

THE WALLA WALLA STATESMAN says: The roads are still thronged with teams hauling their quota of the golden harvest to add to the glut of grain at the railroad depot.

COMMISSIONERS OF COLUMBIA COUNTY have accepted the plans and specifications submitted by A. S. Miller & Son, of Portland, for a bridge across the Touchet, on Main street.

THE DAYTON, W. T., NEWS says: A man named James Newville, was arrested by Sheriff Steen, about seven miles up the Touchet for an offense of horse stealing committed about a year ago.

JOHN HAMCOCK, of Douglas county, is entitled to the blue ribbon, as the champion bear hunter, having killed two bears and three panthers last week.

IT IS THOUGHT THAT ABOUT $1,400 was obtained from the mail by the robber who stopped the stage near Bass. The rewards offered for his capture amount to $1,300.

THE COOS BAY NEWS tells of an affray between S. S. Bailey and Captain John Magee, where angry words were followed by revolver shot fired by Bailey, but no one was hurt.

C. J. Callahan, of Cole's valley, in the Umpqua basin, in digging a well on his place recently, found a vein of coal six feet in thickness about 29 feet from the surface of the ground.

Charles Jones, a Blacksmith at Camas Valley, ran off last Sunday with the daughter of a Mr. Benham.

A desperado named Furdy, who robbed a country store six miles below Lakeview, Lake county, escaped from the Lake county jail over a month ago and made his way to Modoc county, Cal. He is suspected of murdering a sheep herder at Salt Lake since his escape. The sheriff of Modoc county undertook his arrest, got on his track, and even near enough to exchange revolver shots, but Furdy got enough start to possess himself of a Henry rifle, and stood guard at a bridge, where he was master of the situation and his captors had to turn back.

THE OLYMPIA EXPERIMENT will suspend its daily issue until times mend.

THE SEATTLE POST says the locomotive A. A. Denny, that was so badly stove up as not to be considered worth repair, has been put in such order that it is even better than it was before.

THE COUNTY THOROUGHFARE which was authorized at the last sitting of the commissioners, leading from Pleasant Bay, Lake Washington, to Newcastle, open to settlement some choice locations of government land, in a neighborhood where good society and public schools are among its inducements to actual settlers.

THE SEATTLE POST says: The university bill had passed the Council after being cut down to $1,000 per annum for salaries of teachers, instead of $1,500, and allowing $500 for apparatus. A conference committee will be asked for. The university will receive the same aid by this measure as during the past two years, with the apparatus added.

WHEN THIS "CRUEL CURT" is over, says the Eugene State Journal, there will be about eight blushing, blooming young widows in the market again, and the old bachelors can take new hope.

MR. BERGER, living below Eugene, fell from a ladder one day last week and broke several of his ribs.

THE TACOMA HERALD says: Wm. H. Dougherty, a resident near Lakeview, was accidentally shot in the left side of the chest by Claudia Gless while carelessly handling a revolver, the ball lodging under the left shoulder joint next to the arm bone, a short time since at Stadium.

WILLAMETTE VALLEY. The vote of our city election last Monday, says the McMinnville Reporter, ran up to 162. Last year it was 75. So you see we are gaining some.

MERELANTALE WHEAT is meeting a ready sale at $1 03 unshelled, at Dayton.

BUSINESS IS STILL BRISK on the W. V. R. R., especially in wheat, of which they are receiving from 15 to 20 car loads per day.

THE NEWLY ELECTED CITY OFFICERS of McMinnville are: Recorder, Henry Warren; Marshal, P. B. Martin; Council, W. G. Henderson, Hiram Adams, J. J. Collins, and C. A. Wallace.

THE EUGENE GAZETTE says: Court will probably finish its session to-day. Judge Watson deposes commutation for the promptness of justice he has displayed in disposing of a large docket in a single week.

UNCLE PHILIP MANKEY, of Eugene, while picking apples, fell off of a step ladder, and broke one rib and bruising himself up considerably.

JUNCTION CITY held her annual city election on last Monday. The following are the successful applicants: Councilmen, W. S. Lee, I. W. Newcomb, J. M. Beebe, Geo. F. Craw, John Wortman; Recorder, J. M. LaSberry; Marshal, James Casteel; Treasurer, D. H. Roach. Whole number of votes cast, 111.

As the Eldorado stage was on its way to this city last Saturday, says the Baker City Democrat, it upset just below the Dooley toll gate, on the Eldorado road. The stage met a heavy loaded freight train on a narrow grade, and in trying to get around it, it turned over.

Some of the boys of Baker City have been having grand sport the past week skating on the pond below the brickyard. If the cold weather continues, no doubt powder river will freeze over and skates will be in great demand.

The Boise City Statesman says: An old man about 75 years old, named Nelson Hennerie Hanson, who lives on the Payette, on the ranch next above the old Payette ranch, shot his son Nelson Hanson, who is about 40 years old, on Saturday last.

E. M. Howard killed a buck elk on Red Blanket prairie, on Rogue river a short time ago. The elk weighed 700 pounds, and the hide when dry weighed over 50 pounds.

Olds & King. This enterprising firm offer new inducements to their customers, as will be seen by their new advertisement. They have all seasonable goods in their line, and, as we have said already in noticing them, our friends in the country can deal with them by correspondence almost as well as in person, as they are working to build up permanent trade and to retain the patronage of their customers. They succeed in retaining a very extensive patronage in this city and here are respected and popular.

State Fair, 1880. The annual meeting of the Board of Managers of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, will commence at Salem, on Tuesday, Dec. 23, 1879. At this meeting, the time for holding the fair of 1880 will be fixed, and the premiums for the same arranged. All members and friends of the society are invited to attend. Per order, E. M. WATTS, Sec'y.

Important to Farmers. The want of a reliable book by which to calculate the value of wheat in this market when quoted at any price in the Liverpool and London markets has long been felt, but which is now happily met in the "Wheat Dealers' Guide," compiled by J. R. Farish, manager of the Merchants' Exchange, this city, and which he has arranged to sell at the exceedingly low price of 25 cents per copy—cash to accompany orders. It is very important to any and all who sell wheat to be able in less than five minutes to tell what they can from this book! the price of wheat in this market when based on English prices, which govern the markets on this coast. Calculations are warranted thoroughly correct. Enclose 25 cts. coin to J. R. Farish, Portland, who will mail the pamphlet in return.

A citizen of Fleming county, Ky., fired at a rat, struck a keg of powder, blew his house up and had to jump in the river to keep from burning up. The rat remains unharmed.