

Issued every week by the WILLAMETTE FARMER PUBLISHING CO. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: One year, (Postage paid), in advance, $2.50...

THE WILLAMETTE FARMER is now located in the same building as A. G. Walling's job office and the Standard newspaper office...

THE WEEK'S WORK.

For a week past we have been in constant attendance at the State Fair, and that has left no time for consideration of other matters...

Long before the hour of commencing the races, crowds of people were moving in the direction of the race course...

JUVENILE ORANGE PICNIC.

The Juvenile Orange Picnic of Turner Grange was an entire success. Through the instrumentality of your journal it assumed such proportions as to overwhelm our worthy Master, L. Herren...

In the evening a grand display of fireworks took place, under the supervision of George Hughes, of Portland, and it proved the most elaborate pyrotechnical exhibition ever witnessed in the State...

The celebration of the National holiday at Cascade Locks was not as successful as was anticipated. About a dozen persons left the Dalles yesterday morning for that place...

The steamer Traveler took a good crowd from Vancouver, Portland and other towns, yesterday, to Parker's Landing, on the Columbia, where the day was celebrated at Catalpa Grove in an appropriate manner...

Owing to the high water, there was no general observance of the day at the Dalles, further than that inaugurated by the "Small Boy Legion," who from Saturday until last night kept up a fusillade of fire-crackers...

What in some portions of Marion county is beginning to head.

(Continued from First Page.)

horse will hourly wake the echoes of the everlasting hills and mountains; with our annual billions of salmon, with which to fickle the palates of the epicures of both Europe and America...

Never, in its palmy days, did the Fair Grounds present more encouraging scenes, as to the numbers in attendance. Monday, such crowds and crowds of people! All day Sunday, teams come in from the country, from every direction, seemingly by hundreds...

High Willis has a fine display in photography, but we miss the usual exhibits of Messrs. Buchtel and Abell, of Portland, whose art galleries are always an attraction.

The first heat was a running race 3 in 5, free for all, as mentioned in Sunday's STANDARD. The entries were John Merritt, owned by Powers & Coggin, three years old, Pedigree of Mrs. Langford, of dam, Sweetwater, Frank Hastings, owned by Joe Taylor, of Portland...

The first heat was closely contested between Merritt and Tillie W, both passing the stand neck and neck in 1:48, and was given to the former, Tillie W second, Hastings third, Rye Straw fourth and Glen Dudley last.

In the evening a grand display of fireworks took place, under the supervision of George Hughes, of Portland, and it proved the most elaborate pyrotechnical exhibition ever witnessed in the State, and as the brilliantly colored pieces revealed to the immense crowd of spectators a succession of wonders and beauties of the pyrotechnic art, the enthusiasm and applause was immense.

The celebration of the National holiday at Cascade Locks was not as successful as was anticipated. About a dozen persons left the Dalles yesterday morning for that place...

The steamer Traveler took a good crowd from Vancouver, Portland and other towns, yesterday, to Parker's Landing, on the Columbia, where the day was celebrated at Catalpa Grove in an appropriate manner...

Owing to the high water, there was no general observance of the day at the Dalles, further than that inaugurated by the "Small Boy Legion," who from Saturday until last night kept up a fusillade of fire-crackers...

What in some portions of Marion county is beginning to head.

increase of heat, and closes as the atmosphere evaporates. He has also a new invention which finds much favor with the farmers...

The residents of St. Helena had a very enjoyable celebration of the day in a small grove, and each and all entered heartily in its observance. The oration was delivered by Ex-Governor A. C. Gibbs, of Portland.

The celebration of the National holiday at Powell Valley took place on Saturday last, and was a great success. About five hundred persons took part in the exercises.

High Willis has a fine display in photography, but we miss the usual exhibits of Messrs. Buchtel and Abell, of Portland, whose art galleries are always an attraction.

The first heat was a running race 3 in 5, free for all, as mentioned in Sunday's STANDARD. The entries were John Merritt, owned by Powers & Coggin, three years old, Pedigree of Mrs. Langford, of dam, Sweetwater, Frank Hastings, owned by Joe Taylor, of Portland...

The first heat was closely contested between Merritt and Tillie W, both passing the stand neck and neck in 1:48, and was given to the former, Tillie W second, Hastings third, Rye Straw fourth and Glen Dudley last.

In the evening a grand display of fireworks took place, under the supervision of George Hughes, of Portland, and it proved the most elaborate pyrotechnical exhibition ever witnessed in the State, and as the brilliantly colored pieces revealed to the immense crowd of spectators a succession of wonders and beauties of the pyrotechnic art, the enthusiasm and applause was immense.

The celebration of the National holiday at Cascade Locks was not as successful as was anticipated. About a dozen persons left the Dalles yesterday morning for that place...

The steamer Traveler took a good crowd from Vancouver, Portland and other towns, yesterday, to Parker's Landing, on the Columbia, where the day was celebrated at Catalpa Grove in an appropriate manner...

Owing to the high water, there was no general observance of the day at the Dalles, further than that inaugurated by the "Small Boy Legion," who from Saturday until last night kept up a fusillade of fire-crackers...

What in some portions of Marion county is beginning to head.

increase of heat, and closes as the atmosphere evaporates. He has also a new invention which finds much favor with the farmers...

The residents of St. Helena had a very enjoyable celebration of the day in a small grove, and each and all entered heartily in its observance. The oration was delivered by Ex-Governor A. C. Gibbs, of Portland.

The celebration of the National holiday at Powell Valley took place on Saturday last, and was a great success. About five hundred persons took part in the exercises.

High Willis has a fine display in photography, but we miss the usual exhibits of Messrs. Buchtel and Abell, of Portland, whose art galleries are always an attraction.

The first heat was a running race 3 in 5, free for all, as mentioned in Sunday's STANDARD. The entries were John Merritt, owned by Powers & Coggin, three years old, Pedigree of Mrs. Langford, of dam, Sweetwater, Frank Hastings, owned by Joe Taylor, of Portland...

The first heat was closely contested between Merritt and Tillie W, both passing the stand neck and neck in 1:48, and was given to the former, Tillie W second, Hastings third, Rye Straw fourth and Glen Dudley last.

In the evening a grand display of fireworks took place, under the supervision of George Hughes, of Portland, and it proved the most elaborate pyrotechnical exhibition ever witnessed in the State, and as the brilliantly colored pieces revealed to the immense crowd of spectators a succession of wonders and beauties of the pyrotechnic art, the enthusiasm and applause was immense.

The celebration of the National holiday at Cascade Locks was not as successful as was anticipated. About a dozen persons left the Dalles yesterday morning for that place...

The steamer Traveler took a good crowd from Vancouver, Portland and other towns, yesterday, to Parker's Landing, on the Columbia, where the day was celebrated at Catalpa Grove in an appropriate manner...

Owing to the high water, there was no general observance of the day at the Dalles, further than that inaugurated by the "Small Boy Legion," who from Saturday until last night kept up a fusillade of fire-crackers...

What in some portions of Marion county is beginning to head.

increase of heat, and closes as the atmosphere evaporates. He has also a new invention which finds much favor with the farmers...

The residents of St. Helena had a very enjoyable celebration of the day in a small grove, and each and all entered heartily in its observance. The oration was delivered by Ex-Governor A. C. Gibbs, of Portland.

The celebration of the National holiday at Powell Valley took place on Saturday last, and was a great success. About five hundred persons took part in the exercises.

High Willis has a fine display in photography, but we miss the usual exhibits of Messrs. Buchtel and Abell, of Portland, whose art galleries are always an attraction.

The first heat was a running race 3 in 5, free for all, as mentioned in Sunday's STANDARD. The entries were John Merritt, owned by Powers & Coggin, three years old, Pedigree of Mrs. Langford, of dam, Sweetwater, Frank Hastings, owned by Joe Taylor, of Portland...

The first heat was closely contested between Merritt and Tillie W, both passing the stand neck and neck in 1:48, and was given to the former, Tillie W second, Hastings third, Rye Straw fourth and Glen Dudley last.

In the evening a grand display of fireworks took place, under the supervision of George Hughes, of Portland, and it proved the most elaborate pyrotechnical exhibition ever witnessed in the State, and as the brilliantly colored pieces revealed to the immense crowd of spectators a succession of wonders and beauties of the pyrotechnic art, the enthusiasm and applause was immense.

The celebration of the National holiday at Cascade Locks was not as successful as was anticipated. About a dozen persons left the Dalles yesterday morning for that place...

The steamer Traveler took a good crowd from Vancouver, Portland and other towns, yesterday, to Parker's Landing, on the Columbia, where the day was celebrated at Catalpa Grove in an appropriate manner...

Owing to the high water, there was no general observance of the day at the Dalles, further than that inaugurated by the "Small Boy Legion," who from Saturday until last night kept up a fusillade of fire-crackers...

What in some portions of Marion county is beginning to head.

increase of heat, and closes as the atmosphere evaporates. He has also a new invention which finds much favor with the farmers...

The residents of St. Helena had a very enjoyable celebration of the day in a small grove, and each and all entered heartily in its observance. The oration was delivered by Ex-Governor A. C. Gibbs, of Portland.

The celebration of the National holiday at Powell Valley took place on Saturday last, and was a great success. About five hundred persons took part in the exercises.

High Willis has a fine display in photography, but we miss the usual exhibits of Messrs. Buchtel and Abell, of Portland, whose art galleries are always an attraction.

The first heat was a running race 3 in 5, free for all, as mentioned in Sunday's STANDARD. The entries were John Merritt, owned by Powers & Coggin, three years old, Pedigree of Mrs. Langford, of dam, Sweetwater, Frank Hastings, owned by Joe Taylor, of Portland...

The first heat was closely contested between Merritt and Tillie W, both passing the stand neck and neck in 1:48, and was given to the former, Tillie W second, Hastings third, Rye Straw fourth and Glen Dudley last.

In the evening a grand display of fireworks took place, under the supervision of George Hughes, of Portland, and it proved the most elaborate pyrotechnical exhibition ever witnessed in the State, and as the brilliantly colored pieces revealed to the immense crowd of spectators a succession of wonders and beauties of the pyrotechnic art, the enthusiasm and applause was immense.

The celebration of the National holiday at Cascade Locks was not as successful as was anticipated. About a dozen persons left the Dalles yesterday morning for that place...

The steamer Traveler took a good crowd from Vancouver, Portland and other towns, yesterday, to Parker's Landing, on the Columbia, where the day was celebrated at Catalpa Grove in an appropriate manner...

Owing to the high water, there was no general observance of the day at the Dalles, further than that inaugurated by the "Small Boy Legion," who from Saturday until last night kept up a fusillade of fire-crackers...

What in some portions of Marion county is beginning to head.

What in some portions of Marion county is beginning to head.

What in some portions of Marion county is beginning to head.

What in some portions of Marion county is beginning to head.