

THE RELIGIOUS CELEBRATION.

China Town in its Best and Tackler Making its Devotions at the Josh House.

The other wing of the Republican party, as the Chinese are now being universally termed, began one of their annual and barbarous celebrations in the Josh House yesterday.

A HEROIC WOMAN.

When the noble quality of heroism takes possession of a woman's breast it seems to inspire her with a courage almost wonderful.

Couldn't Agree.—After listening to the learned and eloquent arguments of District Attorney Caples, for the State, and Palmer and Thompson for the accused, in the case of the State vs. J. W. Rollins, charged with the murder of "Kelly the Vag," the jury squared themselves in their chairs to receive the law from Judge Stott.

The Murder Case.—Probably one of the dullest trials ever had in our courts is the murder case of J. W. Rollins, who was indicted by the Grand Jury for killing "Kelly the Vag" on the 22 day of last August.

THE COURT BEATEN.

When his name was called in the Police Court yesterday he didn't appear to hear it. He was resting himself on the railing by propping his head up with his hand in a sorrowful sort of a way.

John stood, it is true, but he was still abstracted and gazed out into vacancy in a poetic way which frightens the bystanders. The Court also appeared to be somewhat of a drowsy fellow.

Passed over the Veto.

At the noon session of the Senate, Gov. Thayer returned, without his approval, the bill granting the Oregonian Railway Company the public levee on the following grounds:

When you visited us at Washington, Del., in May last, Mrs. Grover could not sit up two hours in the day. She is now able to sit up nearly all day, and is improving slowly right along.

Similkameen Silver Mines.—Messrs. A. B. Glover and D. J. Doane, says the Olympia Transcript, returned on the Messenger on Thursday evening, direct from the Similkameen country, via Fort Hope and Victoria.

The Forest Grove Fire.—The following are the losses and insurance of the sufferers by the fire at Forest Grove on Tuesday night: Dwelling house of Jacob Mayer, $600; no insurance; H. J. Barret, store and stock, $1,200; insurance on same, $1,000; Mrs. E. P. Willis, store, $1,000, insurance, $600; insured in New Zealand Insurance company, stock most all saved but more or less damaged; John Williams, dwelling house, loss $400; no insurance; S. J. Boos, hardware, loss $200; by removal of goods; Chas. Holston, photographer, loss, $20; by removal of goods; Harper & Walker, boots and shoes, $100; by removal.

Scow sunk.—Friday evening as the little Commodore Perry was coming down the river towing the scow Boss, she ran up the bank opposite St. Helens and the scow went to the bottom.

The Thieves Elsewhere.—The thieves who of late were prowling about the outskirts of this city have evidently gone up the valley. We have missed them in the returns at the Police Court, but now and then we get an item from up the country which makes amends for their absence.

A Serious Accident.—While a Mr. Bryant who lives near Tangent was engaged in running a horse-power wood-saw and when under motion the balance-wheel, which was cast-iron, broke, pieces flying with great force, one piece striking Mr. Bryant's right arm, splitting it nearly to the elbow, another struck the same arm just above the elbow, cutting the arm nearly off, and still another struck him about the forehead, inflicting a ghastly wound.

Doing the Grand.—The reception given to the members of the Legislature by the Woman's Rights at Salem was a brilliant affair. Mrs. Duniway, of course, was the presiding genius, and acquitted herself admirably.

Narrow Gauge.—The railroad connecting Silverton with the Willamette, is in running order. Freight and construction trains are making French Prairie lively.

Heavy Purchase.—Mr. Villari states that he and his associates have purchased a large body of wood lands in Washington Territory, in the Palouse country, from the Northern Pacific, comprising all the railroad lands within sixteen townships, estimated at 150,000 acres.

The Boencing Cases.—The case of Sweeney vs. Brennan came up for trial before Justice White yesterday noon. A jury was empaneled and after hearing the evidence they cleared the Doctor at once and laid the costs on Sweeney.

A Lone Hand.—Tom Hayden, the well known saloon man, has on exhibit in his store, which is a genuine curiosity, being nothing more nor less than the half petrified hand of an Indian woman, which some workmen found while engaged in digging a well at Baxter's Landing.

The Wool Trade.—The wool men in this city and surrounding country are doing an immense business just now. The Columbia river boats, daily bring large quantities of the finest Eastern Oregon wool to our city.

The Bridge.—The pile-driver is at work on the last driven pier for the Willamette bridge. The cribwork around pier No. 1 was sunk yesterday. President Beck, heaving the first stone. The hammer for the pile-driver first used weighed a ton, but was found to be too light.

The Narrow Gauge.—Grading is now completed on the entire line of the Narrow Gauge from Ray's Ferry to Brownsville, a distance of 79 miles. Track laying is going along at a lively rate and the contractors expected to reach Seaside last night.

Broke Jail.—Friday night at a late hour six prisoners confined in the County Jail at T. A. Hall's, for various offenses, succeeded in making their escape.

To Plead.—The notorious Annie Lynch, the woman who attained an undesirable publicity by cutting Alex. Mathieson in the bowels some time ago, was yesterday arraigned for the offense in Judge Stott's Court, and given until to-day to plead.

The Episcopal convention on Wednesday appointed Rev. Geo. M. Dunlap, Missionary Bishop of Arizona and New Mexico.

James Haines wants a Western sporting paper and says: Having used "four of sulphur" (powdered limestone) in my chicken house to eradicate chicken lice (which it does), I concluded to try it on dogs showing signs of mange.

STATE NEWS.

The bill to incorporate the town of Pendleton has passed the Legislature. Hogue & Young have bought the mill at Oak Point, and are running in full blast.

S. Bradie, at Salem, tried to pay his wash bill by beating the Chinaman, but failed. Frank Daguire, who lives near Silverton, had a horse worth $150 killed in a runaway.

The Alice brought 3,000 cases of salmon to Astoria lately for shipment to San Francisco.

The Oregon Railway and Navigation Company have resolved to increase their capital stock from $6,000,000 to $9,000,000.

The Harrisburg Nucleus says that many persons who left Linn county for Eastern Oregon now wish themselves back.

The Post says the run of salmon in Rogue river is not up to expectations, but tells of one fish caught that weighs 75 pounds.

An exchange says Brooks & Dinmore have 150 swarms of bees near Silverton, and are raising honey on a large scale.

Capt. West is removing his cannery from Westport to below Knappa, and will make it the model thing of the kind on the river.

The Columbian thinks that if St. Helens were incorporated it would be a great advantage in some respects. They could pass a hog law and at least abate that nuisance.

The State of California, says the Astorian, came across the bar yesterday at low tide through the new cut and drawing sixteen and a half feet of water. The Captain reports twenty one feet of water at low tide, or about twenty-seven to twenty-eight feet at high tide.

The Del Norte Record says: The wrecking steamer May Bell will be used for the purpose of continuing the search for the wreck of the Brother Jonathan. We are inclined to think that those having the matter in charge are confident of having either found the wreck or the immediate vicinity in which it now lies.

The Inland Empire says: The new charter for our city should be received here in a day or two, as it passed both houses of the Legislature before the close of last week and was reported on Tuesday as having been correctly enrolled. When it goes into effect we hope to see the Council take some efficacious measures with reference to sidewalks, which now are a standing disgrace to our otherwise beautiful city.

TERRITORIAL.

The Episcopalians are about to erect another chapel at Seattle.

The O. R. & N. Co. will commence grading on the Blue Mountains this Fall.

Two fine mountains near Seattle have been spoiled lately by being called Mt. Hayes and Mt. Ramsay.

The first torchlight procession ever witnessed in Idaho Territory was held at Boise City Saturday last.

The bark Cassandra Adams, 1,127 tons register, was sold lately by W. J. Adams to Dunsuir, Deigel & Co. for $55,000.

The Steellacoom Express has suspended publication, and its publisher, S. W. Maxwell retired to his farm in King county.

A running race, dash of three miles, open to all, for a purse of $2,000, will take place at Walla Walla about the 1st of November.

The steamers Annie Faxon, John Gates, Spokane and Almota are all engaged on the Upper Columbia in carrying railroad iron to the front, the last three going to Ainsworth with rails for the North Pacific. As soon as the road is ironed to Texas Ferry, the Gates and Spokane will be sent up into Snake river to ply between that point and Lewiston.

August Flower

The immense sale and great popularity of Green's August Flower in all towns and villages in the civilized world has caused many imitators to adopt similar names, expecting to reap and harvest for themselves at the expense of the afflicted.

A New Phase of Decorative Art.

Some of the semi-scientific idlers at Nahant, says the Springfield Republican, have taken to cherishing families of decorated crabs. The plan is to treat the newly captured crab to a hard scouring with a nail brush until his shell is perfectly clean; when he is placed in a jar with a quantity of seaweed.

HODGE, DAVIS & CO., OFFER A NEW AND POSITIVE CURE. WENZELL'S INFALLIBLE ANTI-SCAB. A SAFE AND EFFICIENT Compound based on SCIENTIFIC PRINCIPLES, and Warranted free from Injurious effects upon the Wool and Sheep, and Condensed Form costing little for freight.

PUT THE CONTENTS OF ONE CAN INTO tin pail or vessel capable of holding about five gallons, a coal oil can with top cut out will answer; fill with water and allow to stand overnight. If not thoroughly dissolved apply heat, and when solution is complete, add it to 20 gallons of tepid water contained in the proper receptacle for dipping the sheep. Unshorn sheep after their removal from the bath should have the liquid pressed from the wool and the liquid returned to the receptacle, and in order to insure the destruction of the parasite, they should receive another bath in about two weeks.
