those two years I noticed that she grew constantly pale and thin; she never was betrayed into speaking of herself. Sometimes when I would ask her if she felt worse than usual, she would reply, "Oh, no, I am a little tired—that is all."

MANAGEMENT OF THE STALLION. National Live-Stock Journal. The condition of the stallion for the next season's business will depend largely upon the manner in which he is kept from now until the season commences.

HEATING MILK FOR WINTER SETTING. National Live-Stock Journal. Heating the milk of small dairies in Winter is very necessary where the temperature of the milk room is much below 60 degrees.

Curing a Balking Horse. A correspondent of the Toronto Globe would cure a balking horse as follows: "I would prepare myself with a good strap—I want no whip; perhaps he has got a taste of that already, and still he is master."

Care of Young Pigs. Three or four weeks is the age at which pigs always need the most careful attention. At about this period the pig reaches a point when the milk of the sow is not sufficient to keep up a healthy growth, and unless the pigs have been taught to eat before this time, there will always be trouble with them.

Wild Game in the Blue Mountains. Almost every person who comes in from the Blue mountains, says the Walls Walla Statesman, brings the news of the depredations committed by the bears raiding on cattle and hogs.

CURING HAMS AND BACON. National Live-Stock Journal. The Journal has, on more than one occasion called the attention of its readers to the fact that in very many cases farmers will find it more profitable to kill their fat hogs at home and cure the meat than to sell "on foot" at prevailing prices.

The Value of Breeding Animals. Indeed, to a man who is breeding pure bred stock of any kind, it is impossible to measure the value of a single animal introduced into the herd. A single mistake may cost him thousands of dollars, and carry him backward to such an extent that years cannot regain the lost ground.

A Sea Captain's Noble Wife. In October, 1877, the brigantine Mooreburg left Foochoo, in China, for Melbourne, carrying four seamen, the captain, mate, and last, but by no means least, the captain's wife, who was a little, delicate woman, and the baby.

Consumption Cured. An old physician, retired from practice having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure for Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows.

Who that has ever walked through a genuine English lane forgets its charm? About our moorland village we found every variety, and studied the Devonshire verdure and blossom in many aspects. The roadways are generally narrow; a firm foot and wagon path with close hedge rows, diversified by brambles, holly, woodbine, honeysuckle and climatic.

Ague Mixture. Chills and Fever are permanently cured by Dr. Jayne's Ague Mixture. With a little care on the part of the patient to avoid exposure, and the occasional use of JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS, this remedy will be found to be certain in its operation, and radical in its effects.

Our Littleness in the Universe. Astronomers say that this world of ours, which seems so large, is in fact so small in comparison with the sun and stars, that its presence or absence is, to the universe, a matter of inconceivably small importance; and that, even in its own system, it would hardly be noticed by an eye capable of taking in at one view the sun and its attendant planets.

Intermittent and Remittent Fevers are effectually cured by Dr. Jayne's Ague Mixture. In these complaints care should be taken to follow the directions closely, and especial attention given to the liver, which should be assisted in performing its functions by Dr. JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS.
