

WILLAMETTE FARMER PUBLISHING CO. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: In Advance, $3.00; In Advance, $3.00; In Advance, $3.00.

Latest by Telegraph.

EASTERN.

Increase of Appropriations Asked. WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The book of estimates containing the amount of appropriations required for the public service during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1887, has been completed.

Table with columns for Department, 1882, and 1881. Rows include Treasury, War, Navy, Interior, Post Office, Agriculture, and Justice.

The total amount estimated for all the Executive Departments aggregate $14,536,404 23 for 1882. The appropriations made for the same in 1881 were $13,408,908 50.

Railroad Complications.

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—The Tribune says that although all the parties interested by their signals have not yet reached the final conclusions of the Vanderbilt road with the Chicago and North Western, yet the latter power combinations are performing arrangements which will shortly result in a union.

Justice of the Common Pleas, has been appointed Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench, vice Sir Alexander Cockburn, deceased. League's Trials. Healy and Walsh will be tried at the Cork Assizes, Dec. 7th.

The Claret men left Lough Mask yesterday under a strong escort. There was no demonstration. The Hussars will remain to protect Boycott, who will leave Saturday.

AMERICAN TONNAGE. The annual report of the Register of the Treasury states that the total tonnage of the country exhibits a decrease of 101,566 tons; enrolled tonnage increased 37,751 tons, while registered tonnage decreased 138,723 tons.

CHRYSENE, N. V. 26.—Advised to the Leader from North Park state that a party of five miners going from Georgetown, Col., to the North Park, were pre-occupied in an immense snow slide on the Continental divide on Saturday last.

PARIS, Nov. 25.—Great uneasiness is felt in English and American circles here, as it is feared many Englishmen and Americans were passengers on board the lost steamer Uncle Joseph.

FOREIGN. Years of Being Boycotted. DUBLIN, Nov. 21.—Merchants and other citizens declare that they will not sever on the jury in the State trials for fear of injury to their business or murder.

Land League Defense Fund. The Lord Mayor of Dublin announces that in consideration of the fact that only £2,000 had been raised of the £10,000 necessary to defend the Land Leaguers, he has transferred to the fund for that purpose £108, the balance of a political defense fund which he is the sole proprietor of.

Arrested and Discharged. LONDON, Nov. 24.—Five prisoners arrested near Longhairs for reinstating an evicted family, have been discharged, no case being found against them.

London Wool Sales. LONDON, Nov. 24.—At the wool sales to-day 8,000 bales were offered, which sold at 8-1/2 pence, Victoria and New Zealand; attendance full. Good qualities were steady, but faulty descriptions sold mostly in favor of buyers.

Defending the Land Leaguers. CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—The Leader-Oregonian special from Dublin says it is stated the Irish Executive intends to station a military force permanently at Claremorris, and also increase the garrison at Castlebar, so it will be easy to send troops from these two centers to any part of West Ireland.

Conditions as to Duligno's surrender. VIENNA, Nov. 26.—The Montenegrins passed through Mazzara, leaving a garrison there, and occupied the Nish retranchments on the heights. A detachment subsequently advanced to take possession of Duligno.

ITEMS BY TELEGRAPH.

The weather is extremely cold in the East. There is an alarming scarcity of coal in New York City.

Harwood & Co., of Minneapolis, have failed for the sum of $604,000. Assets, $508,000.

The report heretofore published relating to the Northern Pacific syndicate are confirmed. The Republicans around Washington are still engaged in making up Garfield's Cabinet.

The military commander of the Ute reservation is ordered to repel all forcible intrusion. The New York Times says Garfield will offer the Secretaryship of the Treasury to Sherman.

A. R. Meacham, who was arrested in connection with the murder of Jackson on the Ute Agency, has been released on $5,000 bail.

The Pullman Palace Car Company is about to erect a large laundry in New York, and employ 200 Chinese to do the washing for the Company.

James O'Brien, alias Robert Lindsay, who was indicted on the 24th by the Grand Jury for perjury, in connection with the Morry Chinese letter, was arraigned before Judge Cowing in the General Sessions. He pleaded guilty and was remanded yesterday.

Garfield's majority in Maine is 4,169. O'Brien was not sentenced Friday for perjury.

The money market in New York is reported very stringent. Indian Agent Berry has given $5,000 bonds for his appearance.

The New York Tribune denies the story that the Pullman Car Co. propose to import Chinese laundrymen.

There were 235,000 ounces of silver purchased this week for the New Orleans and San Francisco mints.

Small out cases continue to be reported at the San Francisco Health Office. On the 26th six new cases were reported.

A Phoenix, Arizona, dispatch of the 26th says: Demetrio Dominguez was hanged today for the murder of Mr. Thomas, over a year ago.

It is rumored that Wm. H. Vanderbilt and D. O. Mills, of New York, are negotiating for a block of U. P. stock, which will give them control of the road.

The Supreme Court of New York has decided that National Banks cannot be taxed by a State because the State law authorizing such taxation is invalid.

Judge Hill, of the United States Court, quashed the charges against the Democratic Commissioner of the Sixth District at Jackson, Miss., on the 25th.

The police of Jersey City suspect Mrs. Martha Leback, who burned herself last night, to have met her death at the hands of her husband, a barber.

The President has appointed E. L. Bierbower United States Marshal for Nebraska, and Almont Barnes, of Vermont, United States Consul to Caracas.

John G. Thompson will retire from politics and become a journalist, having purchased a half interest in the Daily Times when he will make the central Democratic organ in Ohio.

STATE NEWS.

A 200-pound bear, which had been doing considerable damage around Roseburg, was killed last week by G. W. Jones.

John Wesley was arrested at Corvallis for an assault with a dangerous weapon, and held in bail in the amount of $100.

Dr. W. F. Alexander, of Albany, was married to Miss Estella J. Walters, of Jefferson, on the 18th inst. We wish them both a happy and long life.

W. H. Vaughan, of Molalla, raised the past season over 1,000 bushels of wheat, 1,000 bushels or oats, 800 of barley and 700 of peas. The barley will bear comparison with some of the best barley in the world.

The Catholic Fair at the Dalles Monday and Tuesday was a grand success. Diphtheria is prevailing in Sheridan, and several deaths have occurred recently.

About two-thirds of the wheat at Sheridan has been sold and shipped to market.

Many petty thefts are being perpetrated at Dufur and Eight-Mile Creek, Wasco county.

The Independent Academy at The Dalles will be ready to receive pupils by the 5th of January.

The trial of James Leary for the murder of S. A. Bazley was to take place at The Dalles yesterday.

Judge Piper, Prosecuting Attorney for the Third District, has removed to Salem from Independence.

The Mountaineer says the improvements next year at The Dalles will double those of the past year.

A Lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen will be instituted in Dallas during the coming week.

Poison put out to destroy coyotes made sad havoc among the blooded sheep dogs of Fifteen-Mile Creek, a number having died from the effects of it.

Prineville will have a newspaper in a week or so, and will begin to take upon itself metropolitan airs. It is a rapidly growing and thriving town, with excellent prospects.

Last Saturday a young man named Smith, residing near Lebanon, while out hunting, was seriously wounded by the gun being accidentally discharged. His recovery is doubtful.

The Agricultural College will never so prosperous as now. Over 150 students are in attendance. The Agricultural Department has its full complement of sixty young men, who are being educated at the expense of the State.

A correspondent from Perrydale to the Dallas Itemizer says: Our bridge builder on the narrow gauge, Mr. S. Morrison, informed us that on Monday last work was begun at Dayton, having for its object the extension of the railroad through to Portland.

Henry Humphrey, of Boise City, has received the appointment as a cadet to West Point.

G. W. Cummings, aged 23, a native of Ireland, was killed at Blalock's fume by a railroad fire striking him.

FRATERNAL FAREWELL.

The Departure of Col. Elisha I. Baily, Medical Director of the Department of the Columbia.

In response to orders received from the army headquarters, Colonel Elisha I. Baily, for a long time attached to the Military Department of the Columbia as Medical Director, leaves on the steamship Columbia to-morrow morning en route to Washington to report for duty, and it is anticipated he will be assigned to some other department.

Many petty thefts are being perpetrated at Dufur and Eight-Mile Creek, Wasco county.

The trial of James Leary for the murder of S. A. Bazley was to take place at The Dalles yesterday.

Judge Piper, Prosecuting Attorney for the Third District, has removed to Salem from Independence.

The Mountaineer says the improvements next year at The Dalles will double those of the past year.

A Lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen will be instituted in Dallas during the coming week.

Poison put out to destroy coyotes made sad havoc among the blooded sheep dogs of Fifteen-Mile Creek, a number having died from the effects of it.

Prineville will have a newspaper in a week or so, and will begin to take upon itself metropolitan airs. It is a rapidly growing and thriving town, with excellent prospects.

Last Saturday a young man named Smith, residing near Lebanon, while out hunting, was seriously wounded by the gun being accidentally discharged. His recovery is doubtful.

The Agricultural College will never so prosperous as now. Over 150 students are in attendance. The Agricultural Department has its full complement of sixty young men, who are being educated at the expense of the State.

A correspondent from Perrydale to the Dallas Itemizer says: Our bridge builder on the narrow gauge, Mr. S. Morrison, informed us that on Monday last work was begun at Dayton, having for its object the extension of the railroad through to Portland.