TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

EASTERN.

The Army of the Potomac.

HARTFORD, June 8.—At the meeting of the Army of the Potomac Gen. Sherman spoke at great length to the encampment. He said that there were but few idlers in the army now. They were the pioneers of civilization and aids to frontier enterprise. The army was fine in physique, intelligence, patriotic sentiment and heroic quality. He referred to the value of the regular army as disclosed in the last war. He denied that army reunions keep alive the animosities of the war, but the contrary was the case. He declared that in spite of Jeff Davis' assertion in his last book, he approved o' Grant's movement from Washington to Richmond by land instead of water.

An Old Catholic Talks.

ROME, June 8.—Father Carci, now eighty years of age, who in 1877, was expelled from the order of Jesuits for recommending a madius vivendi between Italy and the papacy, has published a work entitled "The New Italy and Old Zealots." It highly praises the character aims and methods of the present pope, severely blames the misplaced zeal of the extreme Catholic party as tending to maintain the antagonism against the church in Italy. He declares a restoration of temporal power impossible, and that it would, even if practical, be harmful amongst modern democracies; deplores the language of the Catholic press in Italy, and exhorts Catholics to participate in politics so as to introduce Christian ideas in national legislation.

Arrest of Clerks.

HAVANA, June 8.—Several treasury clerks have been arrested.

The British Commons.

LONDON, June 10.—The home secretary stated in the commons to-day that the reports of the occurrence at Skull and Sibbereen are much exaggerated.

The under foreign secretary announced that as the provisions of the treaty of Washington under which Americans enjoy the privilege of fishing in British colonial waters could not in any case expire before 1885, the government was not at present in a condition to consider the expediency of terminating the treaty so far as it relates to the fishery question.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 11.—Disturbances are reported at Khasoff and other towns in southern Russia. Several incendiary fires are reported.

PACIFIC COAST.

Report Unfounded.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—There seems to be no room for doubt that the statemant that the committee of 200 had nominated Captain Merry for mayor is incorrect, at least that nobody that can claim to fairly represent the committee has made any such nomination. It is believed that certain persons connected with the committee has made some such movement but that it is not general or representative.

Wool is now coming in at a rapid rate, and is selling at 25 cents per pound.
