COMMERCIAL.

Thursday, Jan. 26, 1882.

During the week the English market has shown improvement to the extent of one dollar a ton, or three cents per bushel, and Wednesday's dispatches showed it steady at that advance. The continental demand has caused a strong and upward tendency for the last three days. The present top price in the market is $1 60 per cental, and it is noticeable that freights have stiffened here in consequence of the European demand. They sympathize strongly with the latter market abroad. A charter of a wooden vessel was made Saturday at 75s, and even more is asked now, the quotation being 76s 6d for wooden vessels to United Kingdom, and 77s 6d for iron.

During the part week there have been seven arrivals of deep sea vessels; and four more ships were known to be outside on Tues. day, and have probably crossed the bar since then. Twelve more ships are due to arrive in January and February, and will be in time to load and clear by March 1, a date that allows them to reach England before another harvest. These vessels, added to the tonnage in the river, make a large fleet, with great carrying capacity, but unfortunately they cannot carry off the whole Columbia river surplus before March 1, and therefore the demand for vessels continues to be greater than the supply.

Of late very little wheat has come from this valley; arrivals for two weeks past have not averaged over 2,500 sacks a day, while the O. R. & N. Co. has been bringing down an immense quantity of wheat, intended for immediate shipment, sent from the Walla Walla and Umatilla regions. Receipts from this source aggregate 20.000 tons, leaving only about 4,000 tons stored on Snake river. All this wheat, added to stocks on hand here, fill up Portland warehouses and create a demand for tonnage that has caused ship owners to hold for a stiff figure. Another fact, that seems reliable is, that the exporters, who own all the wheat now on hand for shipment, and are occasionally recruiting their stock from this valley by moderate purchases, are at the mercy of ship owners, for they need all the tonnage now in the river and liable to arrive in the next six weeks; so the game is between them and those who have ships, and outsiders are powerless.

The great struggle of the season will be condensed into the next six weeks, after which time vessels will accumulate on our hands, and freights must tumble fearfully. That, at least, is the supposition. Taking all our known surplus and it does not reach within 75,000 tons of the 300,000 that it was predicted we should have in October. The California surplus seems to exceed estimates as much as ours fall short of them.

During the past week eleven new vessels have been added to the register, that have left Rio Janeiro, Monte Video, and European ports, since December 1, or are now heading this way, but none of this fleet, with about 20,000 tons capacity, can be expected to arrive here within six weeks, so as to load and reach England before harvest, but with this addition, and the certainty that others will come, we need have no fear but that every bushel of our surplus can be sent to market.

California cargoes, of the 1881 crop, are now arriving in England, and are selling at a loss to those who own them. The great fleet from San Francisco and the Columbia will, from this time on, exercise a perceptible influence on the foreign market. During a few days past rain has visited the grain fields of California, and wheat is cheaper on that account. When they feared a short crop in '82 they refused to sell, but better prospects threw more wheat on the market, and freights go up and wheat goes down.

A number of vessels, loaded so as to draw 22 feet, are lying in Baker Bay and have long been there, waiting a smooth bar, as with only 23 feet on the bar at low tide they dare not risk a rough passage. Even when the bar is tolerably smooth they don't dare to venture with the tugs that they can command, which, it is said, can hardly hold their own against a strong ebb tide. We need strong, yes, mighty tugs and considerable bar improvement. These ships are earning a bad name for our river. To be successful, our commerce must command the service of heavy draught ships that can carry 3000 to 3500 tons.

Oats hold up at a fair figure and promise to be a good price right along.

Potatoes have been in such demand in San Francisco that the home supply has rather overstocked that market, and prices are duller without any receipts from Oregon. Owing to low water in the Willamette and Columbia rivers, steamers carry very light cargoes; and only 5000 sacks of potatoes are sent down each stream when they could carry 20,000, with plenty of water. If Portland would stand aside and let Astoria be our sea port, Oregon products could be sent off much more expeditiously. On Tuesday a produce house here sold off their stock of potatoes (Garnet Chili) at 87½c per bushel, but the weaker feeling of Wednesday caused another house to accept a much lower figure; 75c may be taken as the present market average, with a premium for whites. The California supply is undoubtedly short, and Utah potatoes are going East to Kansas; Puget Sound has much less than usual, and the future of the market for "spuds" need not be doubted. They will hardly stay long as low as 75c.

Timothy seed is 8 to 9c per lb. We had intended before this to make a regular quotation of such seeds, and will try to do so next week.

Apples have a long range from 50 to 80c, and sound fruit and good keepers would bring the higher figure. All fruit ripened early last Fall, and apples were neither so good an average, nor have they kept so well as usual.

Dried fruits are without animation, and quotations remain unchanged, but it is hardly time yet for an active demand in this direction.

Help for the Great Army of Convalescents,

Who, after an attack of disease, get so far back on the returning way to health and no farther. One of the most serious impediments which the medical profession has to encounter is the tendency in all diseases, whether acute or chronic, towards debility and loss of vital force. To meet this condition of low vitality, the Compound Oxygen, which acts directly on the great nervous centres, rendering them more efficient, vigorous, and active, and capable of generating more and more of the vital forces, which are life and health, offers an agent of help and restoration which acts promptly and surely. Our Treatise on Compound Oxygen, its Nature and Action, is sent free. Address DRS. STARKEY & PALEN, 1109 and 1111 Girard street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Marketed.....	48,730,800	48,730,800
Stock January 1, 1882, lbs.....	5,000,000

The circular claims that the spring clip, in appearance and soundness of growth, was superior to last year's production, but there is more difficulty every year in finding wool free from bur or seed; that the fall clip was better than that of 1880; that low prices prevented some fall shearings; that the number of large flocks is decreasing; that the great desideratum is to combine sheep raising with general farming, as is done in the Eastern States. The value of the wool exported from California last year is given at $7,000,000. The height of production in this State was reached in 1876, when the clip was 56,551,000 pounds. The product last year was nearly 3,000,000 pounds less than in 1880.

From Over North.

A correspondent writes to the Nez Perce News from Christian valley, as follows:

This valley lies nine miles north of Lewiston, one of the best farming localities in the Palouse country; it is well watered by living springs which gush from its hills and its level lands. The land in this section is pretty much all taken up; the average crop of this year has been 30 bushels of wheat to the acre, 21 bushels of flax and 60 bushels of oats. We are well satisfied any person that tries to make a living in this country can do so if he is willing to work. Jake Cambridge, one of our solid men, came here eleven years ago with 25 cents; now he possesses two deeded claims—a homestead and a timber claim and is well supplied with horses, cattle, hogs, chickens, ducks and children, to say nothing of his plows, harrows, mower and reaper, fanning mill and threshing machine, and all paid for. T. J. Barringer came to this valley four years ago last August with nearly $20 cash; he has now got 385 acres of land, 224 of which is under fence; he threshed 1872 bushels of grain, and has put up 5000 pounds of pork this year; and others that have worked in this vicinity have done as well accordingly. The Winter has been very pleasant so far; no snow only in drifts and a chinook rain nearly every week, which soon removes the drifts.

AN OLD FIRM DISSOLVES.—The firm of Shindler & Chadbourne was dissolved yesterday by mutual consent, Mr. Shindler taking charge of the interest heretofore owned by Mr. Chadbourne. The business will be conducted in future under the firm name of G. Shindler & Co. If ability, integrity and close attention to business will give success then the new firm cannot fail, because they possess the qualities and character that make our best Portland business houses respected at home and honored abroad. Success say we to the new firm, which, by the way, is no experiment on the part of Mr. Shindler.

NINETY-ONE (91) cases of the Household Sewing Machine have just been received direct from the factory ex steamer "State" at Garrison's Sewing Machine Store, 167 Third street, making the fourth heavy shipment of these superior sewing machines received during the last five months. The Household has become the leading sewing machine. tf

A LETTER.

Having been a great sufferer from rheumatism several years, and tried numerous remedies of every imaginable description, and a great number of physicians, all to no purpose, last Spring I had a very severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism so as to confine me to my bed. I was advised to try Dr. Henly's Rheumatic Neutralizer, and to my great surprise I commenced gaining and in a short time was able to get about. I do freely recommend the Neutralizer to all afflicted as I have been, and I firmly believe it is, without exception, the best medicine for eradicating rheumatism from the system in the world.

S. F. MATHEWS,

Dr. Henly's office is 203 Third street, near Taylor.

JUST NOW Frank Abell is taking some of the most charming and lovely promenade and panel photographs we ever saw. Call at his studio on first street, Portland, and see them. Strangers always made welcome.

Another Loved Child Gone.

A third child of Robert and Mary Hally was buried on Tuesday, in the cemetery at Salem. The two eldest were twins, now both have passed away, and the three little sisters lie side by side. These little ones were the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. John Minto, and we sympathize with our old friends in this great trouble, for we have been friends many years, and together have passed through sorrows and joys, each feeling some earnest sympathy in all the pleasures and troubles that go to make up the sum of life. Only two children remain of that happy little group of girls that stood about the mothers knee one month ago.

DR. RAFFETY, visiting physician at the State Insane Asylum, furnishes the following report concerning the institution: Number in asylum Sept. 1: males, 229; females, 82; total, 311. Admitted during the quarter: males, 18; females, 6; total, 24. Number discharged; males, 10; females, 3; total. 13. Number died: males, 5; females, 4; total 9; Number remaining at the end of the quarter: males, 232; females, 81; total, 313.

The O. R. & N. Co.'s supply office and depot at Walla Walla is to be discontinued on and after the 1st of February. Hereafter all supplies for the company will be shipped from Portland.

William Reid, of this city, has subscribed for 5,000 shares of the Salem and Waldo Hills railroad stock, which is one half the amount issued.

A Liberal Offer.

Purdy's Fruit Recorder and Cottage Gardener is the best journal on fruits, gardens and flowers, published in the United States, price $1. As this is a standard journal that every family should read, we have made arrangements to club with it and to furnish its premiums to our own subscribers on the following terms:

Any person wishing to renew subscription, who pays $3.25, or any new subscriber, who sends us $3.25, will receive the FARMER and Fruit Recorder one year, and can have any one of the premiums he may name in addition.

Any subscriber who has already paid up, can send us 75 cents more and have the Recorder one year and a premium. Any person who will send us $2.50 for a new subscriber, can have the Fruit Recorder and either one of the premiums as compensation for trouble in procuring us a new subscriber.

The premiums are:

2. Twenty-five plants of the famous Sharpless strawberry.

3. Six plants of the new early and most productive, large, black cap raspberry known, the Tyler.

5. Six plants of Taylor's Prolific, the hardiest and most prolific blackberry known.

7. Two strong, well rooted, hardy and beautiful roses.

8. One Helena Honey Suckle, the most beautiful grown.

12. Purdy's Small Fruit Instructor, 64 pages, all about growing fruits, with plans for dry houses, green houses and hot beds.

14. A splendid and almost life-size engraving of our dead President—Garfield; by one of the most eminent of living engravers, worth one dollar.

Simply give the number opposite the premiums, and don't describe it.

Consumption Cured.

Since 1870 Dr. Sherar has each year sent from this office the means of relief and cure to thousands afflicted with disease. The correspondence necessitated by this work becoming too heavy for him, I came to his aid. He now feels constrained to relinquish it entirely, and has placed in my hands the formula of that simple vegetable remedy discovered by an East India missionary, and found so effective for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Diseases; also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints. Its remarkable curative powers have been proven in many thousand cases, and, actuated by the desire to relieve suffering humanity, I gladly assume the duty of making it known to others. Address me, with stamp, naming this paper and I will mail you, free of charge, the recipe of this wonderful remedy, with full directions for its preparation and use, printed in German, French or English.
