

The Home Circle.

Edited by Mrs. Harriet T. Clarke.

GONE

MARY E. BRADLEY. The ripe midsummer days are here again, With all their splendor of white-clouded skies...

CHOICE RECIPES.

Potato salad is one of the best and most easily made dishes for tea. Boil the potatoes or steam them with their jackets on...

Testing the Sex of Eggs.—In selecting eggs to set, choose the medium sized ones, with blunt ends, and you will usually get three pullets to one rooster...

EVAPORATING SWEET CORN is a much easier process than canning, and will probably supersede it to a large extent. It is performed in the so-called evaporating machines...

LYNN, MASS., always was a good place for health, but it has become a modern Bethesda since Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham...

SHIRAZ. "World's Health Renewer" restores health and vigor, cures Dyspepsia, Impotence, Sexual Debility.

SILK CULTURE.

There are thousands of women who are unable to labor in shop, field or factory, and have no means outside of their household duties of converting labor into capital.

In the lower Southern States three crops can be raised a season, two in the upper Southern States, and one in the Middle, Eastern and Northern States...

It has also been demonstrated that silk raising will absolutely pay better with light labor than cotton or rice, or sugar or tobacco with heavy labor.

The above facts we take from a circular issued by the New York Silk Exchange, of No. 27 Bond street, New York.

Sunflowers and Seed.

In popularizing the Sunflower Oscar Wilde has rendered one benefit to community. There is probably no other article more useful for horse feed than sunflower seed.

When a saddle horse is required to be particularly active and sprightly, he may be given a pint of sunflower seed with his oats at night, and half as much in the morning...

These gatherings make the little ones happy, and mothers would often gratify the children if they only thought about it.

Editor Home Circle: I am a little girl 10 years old. As you were so kind as to publish my other letter...

For The Children.

A MEETING.

MENELLA BUTE SMEDLEY. Two that wrecked each other's hope, Parted coldly in their prime...

They spread their stories out, Face to face and hand in hand, Looking back with wistful doubt...

Looking where the dawn had been Till each gray and pallid line Shivers with a sun unseen...

Saying softly, "Yes, I think You were there—you came at ten."

"I remember what you said," "But you laughed, and I despaired."

"Something in your voice assures You have angry feelings yet."

"Sure the flame was very weak!" "Twas your silence, let it die."

Face to face and hand in hand, Looking at those eastern skies, In the light along the land...

Lo, the hill, the sea, the plain, Flushing with familiar rose! Look away, and look again!

OUR LETTER BOX. The few hints that have been given to our little correspondents have certainly done good...

Editor Home Circle: As you were so kind as to print my last letter, I will write again, as I think that our Letter Box is getting empty and needs replenishing...

Editor Home Circle: I am a little girl 10 years old. As you were so kind as to publish my other letter, I will, after so long a time, try again...

Editor Home Circle: I am a little girl 10 years old. As you were so kind as to publish my other letter, I will, after so long a time, try again...

Editor Home Circle: I am a little girl 10 years old. As you were so kind as to publish my other letter, I will, after so long a time, try again...

Editor Home Circle: I am a little girl 10 years old. As you were so kind as to publish my other letter, I will, after so long a time, try again...

Our first letter this week is from a little girl who never saw apples grow on trees; that to her would, perhaps, be a nicer sight than a snow mountain.

Mahlon and Sarah send each a good letter, telling how helpful they try to be.

Our "Country Girl" writes a letter that it would be difficult for a city girl to surpass. It is a pleasure to Aunt Hetty to see her girls improving.

MARSHALL, W. T., Aug. 7, 1882.

Editor Home Circle: As it has been some time since I have written, I will write again to the FARMER.

WALDO HILLS, Aug. 4, 1882.

Editor Home Circle: As you were so kind as to print my last letter, I will write again, as I think that our Letter Box is getting empty and needs replenishing...

Editor Home Circle: As you were so kind as to print my last letter, I will write again, as I think that our Letter Box is getting empty and needs replenishing...

Editor Home Circle: As you were so kind as to print my last letter, I will write again, as I think that our Letter Box is getting empty and needs replenishing...

Editor Home Circle: As you were so kind as to print my last letter, I will write again, as I think that our Letter Box is getting empty and needs replenishing...

every day; I ride a big grey and lead one. Pa has to help through the gate, but I can manage them very well for a little boy.

DELIGHT, Kan., July 16, 1882.

Editor Home Circle: I would like to come to Oregon to live. My pa is talking of going to Oregon this fall.

GENERAL NOTES.

Democrat: We are told of a quick job in threshing which takes the lead at the present writing.

The Dalles Times: One cannot ascertain the healthfulness of our climate by any better method than by comparing the mortality records of this with cities on the Atlantic seaboard.

Post-Intelligencer: Robert Tilton, a logger on the Snohomish river, writes as follows to Mr. W. A. Perry of this city.

George W. Ely kindly furnishes us with the result of his harvesting this year. The average number of bushels from 37 acres of wheat was 38; for 16 acres of barley, 35 bushels; for 19 acres of oats, 26 bushels.

Goldendale Itemizer: The crops in Kittitas valley will be much better than was anticipated. The new school house at Ellensburg will be completed in time for the fall term.

Walla Walla Statesman: Walla Walla is certainly an objective point for immigrants, for their teams go through these streets at all hours of the day.

The Dalles Times: The recent school census of Seattle shows in that district 1,372 children, over 4 and under 21 years; 483 under 4 years; 12 away to school elsewhere.

Make your old things look like new by using the Diamond Dyes, and you will be happy. Any of the fashionable colors for 10 cts.

Children CRY FOR Pitcher's Castoria.

Mothers like, and Physicians recommend it. IT IS NOT NARCOTIC.

CENTAUR LINIMENTS; the World's great Pain-Relieving remedies. They heal, soothe and cure Burns, Wounds, Weak Back and Rheumatism upon Man, and Sprains, Galls, and Lameness upon Beasts.

SPORTS of disgusting Mucus, Snuffles, Creaking Pains in the Head, Fetid Breath, Deafness, and any Catarrhal Complaint, can be exterminated by Wad De Meyer's Catarrh Cure, a Constitutional Antidote by Absorption.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

For all those Painful Complaints and Weaknesses so common to our best female population. A Medicine for Women. Invented by a Woman. Prepared by a Woman.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S BLOOD PURIFIER will gradually every vestige of Bile from the Blood, and give tone and strength to the system, of weak woman or child. Instruct on looking it.

CONQUEROR OF ALL KIDNEY DISEASES.

HUNT'S REMEDY KIDNEY AND LIVER MEDICINE.

NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL. CURES WHEN ALL OTHER MEDICINES FAIL. It acts directly on the Kidney, Liver and Bowels restoring them at once to healthy action.