New York only 124,000. The official vote of the State about complete, gives Cleveland's majority at 194,000. Cland receives 536,200 votes and Folger 342,300. Garfield received two years ago 558,544 votes.

abolition of the duplex rates is strongly urged. Silk culture and raising is also recommended. The abolition of the duty on lumber is likewise advised. In wool and woolen goods a simplification and consistent revision contemplating a change from the duplex system to an ad valorem is recommended. A duty of 10 percent on quinine is advised. To the free list are added 25 articles heretofore rated, among which are spirits of turpentine, spruce, arctic saltpetre, resin, asphaltum and nitrate of lead.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—In the Jeannette court, the morning Engineer Melville continued his account of the search for DeLong and party. His narrative was very pathetic. He gave the details of the discovery of the party frozen to death on the bank of the Lena. The attention of the searchers was first attracted by hat poles sticking out of the snow.
