

The Dairy.

Jersey Cows in the Cheese Dairy.

The insinuation is often thrown out, that the milk of Jersey cows is not good for cheese. There is a tendency to this opinion in the minds of many, growing out of the belief that it is not as rich in casein as the milk of some other cows...

Yield of Cheese.

The yield of cheese from any kind of milk depends as much upon its fat as upon its casein; and if either is in excess, it had better be the former. The difference between a "white oak" cheese and a Stilton is, that one is largely casein, the other largely cream...

Progressive Dairymen.

Progressive dairymen have stepped outside the beaten track of routine and empiricism into the open channels of light and reason, and in these they must continue. The milk industry has, as yet, barely entered the field of progress...

MELANEOISE ISLAND.

A writer in the Golden Gate gives the following weird description and legend of the burial place of Vie Trevelt: Melanoeise is the largest of three islands in the Columbia river, 13 miles below The Dalles...

The Kind of Immigrants Needed.

What Jackson county needs is a large number of families from foreign shores to cultivate her garden and orchard lands. It seems that only such are industrious and frugal enough to reclaim our wild lands and are satisfied to commence in a small way...

Poultry.

Fowls for the Table and Market.

The fowl in its various breeds has adapted itself to various uses and surroundings. We have persistent layers for this product chiefly. We have the ponderous Asiatic fowls, rivaling turkeys in weight; we have those of fanciful plumage, combined with hardy utility...

In raising poultry for market it is only necessary to take care that they are healthy and in good growing and breeding condition, for purity of breeding is of little or no account on the market stand.

California Quail Abroad.

A consignment of California quail has reached Inverary from America. They have been sent over by Lord Lorne in the hope that it may be soon possible to introduce the breed into the Highlands...

The Bronze is the largest of the turkey family, many of them weighing so far in excess of our ordinary turkeys as to bear no comparison in regard to value of carcass or profit to those who keep them.

There is no annual flower more completely satisfactory for the farm garden than the sweet pea. Its prominent growth, its constant renewal of abundant bloom up to the time of severe frost...

LIGHTING THE RIVER.

Capt. Geo. T. Davis, inspector of the 13th light house district, has just completed the establishment of lights to mark the ship channel between Portland and Astoria.

A Few Words About Turkeys.

In the hands of careful persons breeding turkeys is very profitable, but is absolutely essential to success that they have plenty of range. Unlike other poultry, turkeys require perfect liberty and cannot brook confinement.

Progressive Farmers.

It is seldom that the editor of the Massachusetts Ploughman offers any better reflections to his readers, who are many and intelligent, than the following in regard to the improved character and condition of the progressive farmer...

REPORT OF THE LIFE SAVING SERVICE.

Capt. Korts of the Ill-fated Tacoma Dr. announced, and Desmond, Keeper of the Station, Dismissed for Cowardice.

The copy of the official report of the investigation made by the life saving service of the Pacific coast into the circumstances attending the loss of the iron collar Tacoma, and the conduct of the lighthouse keeper, Desmond, has been made public...

Keeper Desmond is taken to task for his want of appreciation of the situation, as demonstrating his unfitness for his position, and relative to his refusal to allow the life boat to be taken in tow by the tug, the report says it is inexplicable...

Another New Steamer—a Tillamook Packet. Visiting Flander's wharf, our attention was attracted by a neat little steamer that arrived on Thursday last.

Another New Steamer—a Tillamook Packet. The letter has been received from the authorities in Washington, removing Keeper Desmond, and appointing William Abbott, of San Francisco, to the vacancy.

IN-TRANCE POLICY. Judge Deady, of the United States circuit court, has made the following decision in the case of Spare vs The Home Mutual Insurance company.

A contract for insurance against loss by fire is a contract of indemnity; and a contract to that end with a person who has no insurable interest in the property or cannot sustain any pecuniary loss by the injury thereto is a mere wager...

It is reported that the O. & C. R. R. Co., has bonded considerable property from Skipanon creek, past Tanzy point and down to Fort Stevens, for terminal facilities.
