SUNDAY SERVICES.—Next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock the regular Union Sunday School. At 11 o'clock the M. E. church will hold its regular semi-monthly services. Rev. F. T. Downing filling the pulpit. In the evening at 7 o'clock the Young Peoples Society of Christian Endiavor will hold its first regular weekly meeting. All these meetings will be held in the School House Hall.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—Last Sunday night quite a large crowd of young people gathered at the residence of W. H. Beidler and organized a Y. P. S. C. E., electing the following for officers for the ensuing term of six months: Emery J. Eastman, president; Miss Maggie Miller, vice-president; Wm. A. Carter, Cor. Secretary; H. Head, Treasurer.

MEDFORD SHOOTING SCRAPE.—Last Monday John Edwards was engaged in a quarrel with a gentleman in Court Hall Saloon when Bill Eatman entered and interfered whereupon Edwards drew a revolver and fired at Eatman. The ball struck Eatman in the hip, ranging downward to the inside of the leg about eight inches above the knee, where it lodged. Eatman will probably recover providing he takes good care of himself. Edwards immediately left the town and his whereabouts is unknown.

HIT BY THE FLYER.—Tuesday morning as the California flyer was passing through our city at the rate of about 30 miles an hour S. V. McFarren's valuable jersey cow attempted to cross the track just below the water tank when she was struck by the engine breaking her right hind leg just below the knee. Mr. McFarren gave her to Andy Baley who will place her in a swing dress the leg and take care of her. In all probabilities she may pull through, but the chances are against her.
