The San Quentin Ringleaders.

SAN QUENTIN, Cal., June 13.—
 The entire machinery in the jute mill will be running tomorrow. All the convicts, with the exception of 40 of the ringleaders that were in the mutiny, will go back to work.
 The ringleaders are still in solitary confinement on a diet of bread and water, and will remain there until the incorrigible or silent ward, which is to be erected on the second floor of the old factory building, is finished. Work will be commenced on this ward tomorrow. When completed, the ringleaders of the strike will occupy this department for an indefinite period.

His Stomach Loaded

Articles Found Inside a Human Ostrich---Nails Made Him Sick.

KANSAS CITY, June 12.—Harry Whallen, a traveling circus performer, was cut open at his own request in the German Hospital here today, and fully three handfuls of hardware, which he had swallowed within the past two weeks, taken from his stomach. A photograph of the articles taken by George H.
 Tilley, a responsible photographer, later in the day, revealed the following things: One four-bladed knife, four inches long; three other knife-blades, ranging from one to three inches in length; thirty-eight eightpenny and tenpenny nails and spikes; thirty-four sixpenny wire nails, sharp-pointed; twenty-six shingle nails; sixteen carpet tacks; three large screws; one horseshoe nail; one barbed-wire staple; three ounces of fine glass.

Whallen claims to have traveled around the country for the past seventeen years eating glass and other hard substances in his avocation as a human ostrich. Up to two weeks ago his peculiar diet had agreed with him perfectly. It is believed he will recover from the operation.

Oxen for Alaska.

Last Tuesday Ninemire & Morgan, of Chehalis county, shipped 30 head of oxen to Seattle parties, who intend taking them to Circle City, Alaska. They will be taken by steamer to Juneau, and from there driven to their destination, about 900 miles. Part of the distance feed will have to be taken along for them. It is expected they will arrive at Circle City the latter part of August, where they will be turned out to grass for about a month before being sold.
 It is estimated that the cost of getting them to Circle City will be $10,000, but as the oxen average 1800 pounds in weight and the meat will sell at 50 cents a pound, there will be some profit if all goes well. Only hardened old veterans could stand such a trip, which is the reason that younger cattle were not taken.
