

CIRCULAR.

The Gold Hill Mercantile Company thanks the people of Gold Hill and vicinity for the liberal patronage bestowed upon them, and herewith makes the following announcement:

To make room for a full stock of Fall and Winter goods we have decided, for the next forty days, to make reductions on all lines, namely: Dry Goods, Millinery, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, Gents' Furnishings, Fancy Goods, Clothing, etc. Also in order to encourage trade we will, in addition to the reductions mentioned above, offer premiums to those who deal with us. The premiums will consist of hundreds of articles of more or less value—staple, fancy, educational, useful and ornamental. Any customer purchasing, for cash, goods to the amount of $1 will receive a present of the value of ten cents; any purchase of $2 worth will receive a present valued at twenty cents; $5 will receive present valued at fifty cents; $10 will receive present valued at one dollar; $20 purchasers will receive present valued at two dollars, and so on. The value of the present will always be ten percent of the amount of the purchase. Purchasers wishing to let their amounts run on until they reach a larger sum, say $25, $50 or $100, will receive presents proportionate in value.

Again thanking you for patronage given us and extending a welcome to all, we remain.

Yours Faithfully,

But they shoe horses—because that is their business. Let me prove to you that I have learned every detail of the trade. There isn't a branch in blacksmithing that I do not understand. My prices will not cripple your purse, neither will the shoes I set cripple your horses.

Milton Davis, aged 16, lives near the Green Spring mountain, about 13 miles from Ashland, on the Ashland-Klamath Falls stage road. He was practicing lariat with a companion on Friday last, when in some manner the rope caught Davis' arm, throwing him to the ground, and from the fall he received a compound fracture of the left forearm, just above the wrist.

Indicted for Killing a Man.

GRANT'S PASS, Or., Sept. 28.—The grand jury, now in session, today found a true bill against Levy Kirk for the killing of a man of the name of Jones near Wolf creek about a month ago. He was given until tomorrow to plead.

$10 AND COSTS.—Thursday night Claud Lawrence was arrested by Marshal Hubbard on a complaint of unlawful co-habitation and immoral practice with one Miss Willie McElroy. He was released on $25 bail to appear for trial today at two o'clock. After hearing the evidence the Recorder imposed a fine of $10 and costs which amounts to $18 all told. We are sorry to be compelled to publish the proceedings of such cases but it is our duty to give the news regardless of personal feeling and we hope this will prove a lesson to the rising generation of Gold Hill, and we sincerely hope such things will not again happen in our bright, prosperous little city, but that the young men and women may rise to higher standards of morality.
