

From Extreme Nervousness.

THAT no one remedy can contain the elements necessary to cure all diseases, is a fact well known to everyone. Dr. Miles' System of Restorative Remedies consists of seven distinctly different preparations, each for its own purpose.

Mrs. L. C. Bramley, 37 Henry St., St. Catharines, Ontario, writes: "For years I suffered from extreme nervousness and annoying constipation, developing into palpitation and weakness of the heart. I was unable to sleep, suffered much from headache, pain in my left side, palpitation and a constant feeling of weakness and prostration. I began using Dr. Miles' Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills and the Anti-Pain Pills to relieve sudden paroxysms of pain and headache. I soon felt much improved and the pains and aches and weariness left me. I then took Dr. Miles' Restorative Tonic and am now restored to my former good health."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 16.—The Constitutional arguments, which have been such a conspicuous feature in the Senate this week, as to our right to acquire the Philippines, will all be forgotten should the investigation which has been started by this government prove that the suspicions now entertained, as to Germany furnishing Aguinaldo with money and advice for the purpose of opposing America's control of the Philippines, are founded on fact, and Congress will be as unitedly behind the government as it was when it appropriated unanimously $50,000,000 to be expended by the President in preparing for the war with Spain. It is because we no longer have an open outside enemy that our Senators are working themselves up over their construction of the Constitution. When there are outside enemies to fight they forget everything, except that we are all Americans.

There was no opposition to the Treaty of Peace in the committee on Foreign Relations, and the treaty was favorably reported to the Senate by Chairman Davis, who was one of its framers. The administration programme is to push it to a vote without delay.

The Canadians aided by Americans, including Secretary Alger, are making a determined struggle to get the Anglo-American Commission, which has resumed its sittings, to make a clause in the commercial portion of the treaty they are working upon that will provide for the importation of Canadian lumber into the U. S. for $1 a thousand feet, instead of $2, as at present. The other side (which won the first battle, under command of Representative Dingley who was instrumental in having the present duty adopted and who has been lying in sight of death for some days) composed of some of the richest American lumbermen is now under command of Representative Tawney, of Minn. Both sides are represented by large delegations, which makes Washington hotel keepers wish that the struggle may be a long one.

Two presentation swords are now on exhibition in Washington. That ordered by act of Congress to be presented to Admiral Dewey, which is said to be the finest ever made in the U. S. which is at the Navy Department, and that made by the order of the Royal Arcanum, to be presented by that organization to Rear Admiral Schley, is at a local jewelry store. Both are attracting crowds.

Senator Mason in his speech in favor of his resolution, declaring that the U. S. will not attempt to govern the people of another country without their consent, was bitingly sarcastic at times. For instance, he said, speaking of the Filipinos: "But, Mr. President, we are told that we must civilize them. Which part of our civilization must we give them first? Shall we show them how to run municipalities, with boodle aldermen? I see the chief of that great ethical society known as Tammany Hall says keep the islands—hold them. Shall we send him to teach the untaught Filipinos cleanliness in municipal politics? Shall we teach them to worship money or the man who has it? Shall we have special instructions to teach them how to kill postmasters and their wives and children because of their complexion? Shall we have illustrations showing enlarged pictures of the work of our mobs within the last ninety days, in N. C., S. C., all Ill? Shall we teach them how to organize trusts, so that one or two men can raise the price of the necessities of life to all people? Shall we amend and print Lincoln's Gettysburg speech so that it will read: "A government of all the people by a part of the people for a few of the people?"

To the uninitiated the Nicaragua Canal would seem to have made progress in Congress this week, but the veteran observer of things Congressional knows that its status was not materially changed when the Senate agreed to vote the next week on the Morgan bill, beginning on Tuesday with the proposed amendments; nor when the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce voted unanimously in favor of the construction of the Canal. It has been generally conceded that the Senate would pass the Morgan bill, with amendments, but what the House will do is as much a matter of doubt now as it has been at any time, owing to the difference of opinion as to how the canal should be constructed. The above committee divided on that immediately after unanimously declaring that the canal ought to be built.

President McKinley surprised the politicians again when he promoted Charlemagne Tower, of Pa., from Minister to Austria, to be Ambassador to Russia, and appointed Addison C. Harris, of Ind., a man unknown to national politics, Minister to Austria. His nomination of Joseph H. Choate to be Ambassador to England was not a surprise.

Representative Landis of Ind., who was one of a number of Congressmen who have recently been in Cuba making personal observation does not take a rosy view of the situation. He said: "I very much fear that we shall have trouble in Cuba. The residents of the island, who have for the past thirty years or more been fighting in a desultory fashion against Spanish domination, are still 'again the government.'" They refuse to work at all, declining $2 a day, which in that country is princely wages, and spend their time in parading with their machetes in hand. The number of these people it is impossible to estimate, but they form a large element of the population."

The Sheffield club is the oldest football organization in the United Kingdom. It was started in 1855, and its minute book for 1857 is still in existence.

A ROMANCE OF SOCKS.

A story is told of an old bachelor who bought a pair of socks, and found attached to one of them a slip of paper with these words: "I am a young lady of 20 and would like to correspond with a bachelor with a view to matrimony." Name and address were given. The bachelor wrote, and in a few days got this letter: "Mamma was married 20 years ago. The merchant you bought those socks from evidently did not advertise or he would have sold them long ago. Mamma handed me your letter and said possibly I might suit you. I am eighteen years old."

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

An Ohio girl advertised for a husband and got him. The advertisement and wedding fixtures cost $9. Within a year he enlisted and was killed at Santiago, leaving his wife $3000 insurance. The wife will in addition to this be drawing a widow's pension in a short time.

SPECIAL SCHOOL MEETING.—Last Saturday at the special school meeting the voters present voted a 12 mill tax to pay interest and indebtedness. This will put the district out of debt except the bonds which was issued to erect the school building.

"I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to all who suffer from pains in the stomach," says Mr. Milt McKinley, editor of the Rawson (Ohio) Herald. "Until I used this remedy it was, at times, impossible for me to be in my office, owing to attacks lasting from one to two days. By taking it as soon as the first symptoms of the attack are felt, I no longer suffer this unpleasant sickness." For sale by Gold Hill Drug Co., or Ben Hayman, Rock Point.
