A MAGNIFICENT TIME.—Last Saturday evening fourteen members of Nugget Lodge went to Central Point to visit Table Rock Lodge No. 81. After initiating three candidates into the lodge the visiting members helped to install the newly elected officers. The ladies of the Degree of Honor had prepared a delicious luncheon which was relished not only by the Gold Hill visitors but the members of the home lodge as well. Our boys came home feeling that they had had a royal welcome and well repaid for the long and wet trip they had taken in order to meet with the Central Point brethren. All expressed a desire to return at some future date.

Justice of the Peace J. B. R. Morelock received word from the County Clerk the first of the week the books and blanks necessary for the registration of the voters of this district would be forwarded to him as soon as the County Commissioners court met and re-districted the precincts, which will be done on the 22 of this month.

Roadmaster Fredenburg informs us that he has several miles of the bicycle path between Central Point and Tolo graded and ready for surfacing gravel, which will be done in the near future. Work will soon begin also on the path between this place and Jacksonville.—Medford Eye.

The third jury selected to try the case of Wm. Ulrich for having deer hides in his possession has agreed to disagree. There seems to be something materially wrong when an offender of the law cannot be punished.

The placer mines have an abundance of water and are correspondingly happy. They will have a much better season than they have had during the past several years.

The county commissioners' court will be in session next Monday, to transact business which should have been attended to at the regular term.

"A young man came into our store yesterday suffering from a severe attack of cramp colic," writes B. F. Hess, miller and general merchant, Dickey's Mountain, Pa. "He had tried various home remedies without relief. As I had used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I gave him a dose and it soon brought him out alright. I never saw a fellow so rejoiced. Sold by Emery Eastman, Gold Hill, or Ben Haymond, Rock Point.

Mayor-elect Howser gave his friends a banquet at his residence on the East Side on Wednesday evening in honor of his election to the highest office in the gift of the city. The house was filled to overflowing. The band boys with their horns and big bass drum were there, and the violin, the mandolin, the banjo and the mouth-organ, all did their duty to the occasion. There were sedate judges, cunning lawyers, long-faced preachers, heartless doctors, city councilmen, enterprising merchants, democrats, republicans and populists, and that prying, inquisitive meddlesome newspaper correspondent. Some were as full as lords—of enthusiasm—on sweet cider, coffee and cake, handed around by the genial host and hostess and their assistance.—Medford Eye.
