Why is it we always feel so mad when we are told of faults that we know we possess?

The slaves of to-day are those who just make a living and refuse to strive for more.

Dewey is hitting Aguinaldo's sensation-mongers and liars some hard blows, these days.

Now that all the votes in Kentucky have been counted, the election board can proceed to count the governors.

Bryan didn't win many laurels as a man behind the gun, but as a man behind the mouth he is a world beater.

Editor Laura E. Jones, of the Drain Watchman, declares that the hardest branch of learning grows on a birch tree.

The world is crowded with people who can do anything, but its big salaries are waiting for those who can do something.

The trusts have given us the horseless carriage, and they now seem about to bring about a state of carriageless babies.

People who know enough to come in out of the rain never get credit for their sagacity when there is no rain to come in out of.

Mr. Beckham issues a proclamation in which he says he has been "legally elected governor of Kentucky." Not honestly elected, however.

With goats selling at $5 per head in Benton county, and sheep at $5.50 per head, the farmers are beginning to find out how profitable stockraising is.

The News Job plant is rushed with orders this week the work having been piled up since the editors absence from the city the past week or ten days.

According to plans already made a modern locomotive will soon be seen in what is believed to have been the site of the Garden of Eden. Something worse was seen there once, according to Genesis.

Treasury receipts last month were $1,200,000 ahead of the same month last year and $6,200,00 greater than in January, 1898. Disbursements show a large falling off. The country begins the year 1900 in first class financial shape.

The action of the school board in abolishing free tuition to non-residents of the district is one that should be taken. Those who do not contribute to the district's support have no claim on its privileges. The community is under no more obligation to educate non-resident children than to support non-resident paupers.

The prohibition ticket is a "back number" in most sections of the country. Not so, however, in Josephine county, where the prohibitionists have just placed their first county ticket in the field. These people have but two demands to make—first, the prohibition by state and national legislation of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, and second, the election of United States senators by the people. They might as well have asked abundantly while they were about it, since the pleasure of asking is all that they will get in return for their trouble.—Ex.

Will Clark be expelled from the senate? The only difference between him and most of the other senators is this, that it cost him a large amount of money to get in, while it cost them smaller amounts. He had it, and could pay. But they got in through bribery, the same as he. The only remedy is the election of senators by direct vote of the people. It is impossible to control any considerable number of them, either with money or with promise of office. But members of the legislation.—Ex.

The citizens of the valley are complaining bitterly at the citizens and officials of Grants Pass for the manner in which they are endangering the surrounding country. It is a current rumor that the people of the Pass hired three tramps to bury a person who had died from small pox, and that the three tramps were fired from the town to spread the disease over the country. We do not know whether the report is correct or not, but as there is so much talk we feel it our duty to criticize the officials of Grants Pass and call the attention of the people to this matter. We hope the report is not correct, but should it be there is no punishment too severe for the parties responsible for the act.

Candidates for office will find the News to be a good medium for reaching the eye of the people. The cards of those who desire to announce themselves will be published from the present date up to the time for holding the conventions for $2.50 each.

A correspondent says that, since the relief of Kimberly, Cecil Rhodes "is in excellent spirits." Had Kimberly not been relieved he might have been a spirit himself by now—though certainly not an excellent one.

A Tacoma robber has been identified and his conviction and punishment made certain by his possession of a prayer book. There ought to be some sort of a moral in this, but it seems to be just a little bit obscure.

A freight car was broken into between Hornbrook and Ashland Sunday, and looted of a large quantity of boots and shoes, tobacco, whiskey and underwear. It is supposed to have been done by tramps.

This paper has been informed on pretty good authority, that Governor Geer is engaged to be married to Miss Trullinger, of Astoria. Miss Trullinger formerly conducted an art studio in Portland, and is handsome, accomplished, and her parents are well-known and highly respected citizens of Astoria. The engagements has not yet been formally announced, but it has been discussed in certain circles for some weeks. The reporter's informant is a particular friend of Miss Trullinger, and upon meeting her in Portland a few days ago asked if the report was true. The replied that it was.—Oregon City Courier.

THE ROUNDABOUT WAY.

"You have three brothers, haven't you?" he enquired.
"Yes," she answered. "Why?"
"Oh, I was just wondering if you would like to make me a fourth."
"I'm very sorry," she replied, "but I will be a wife to you."

The friends of W. A. Carter are pushing him for representative. He is well qualified for the position. He is bright, popular and energetic, a thorough Republican, and if nominated would add strength to the ticket. His nomination would be very acceptable here and in the different Applegate precincts.—Jacksonville correspondent in the Ashland Tidings.
