My mother suffered with chronic diarrhoea for several months. She was attended by two physicians who at last pronounced her case hopeless. She procured one 25-cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and five doses gave her permanent relief. I take pleasure in recommending it as the best on the market.

—Mrs. F. E. Watson, Aiken, Ala. Sold by Emery Eastman, Gold Hill, or Ben Haymond, Rock Point.

I. Wright, J. W. Hayes, J. E. Coffee, Isaac Householder, A. Crabtree, Lawrence Cardwell, Mike Chavner, Oliver Dews, Wm. Bogue, John McLendon and J. W. Marks were all passengers for Ashland last Tuesday morning to hear William Jennings Bryan speak. There were about two hundred of our citizens at the train that evening to greet the Colonel as he passed through on his way north.

Mr. James Braden the owner of the water works ditch, intended turning on the water from Rogue river this week, and commence pumping water into the city water mains, but he finds that more work must be done on the ditch, and about eight hundred feet of flume built, so it will be a week or so longer before he will get started.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cowing, of Portland, who have been boarding at the hotel for the past two months went to housekeeping last week in the Steele house on G. street between 5th and 6th. On last Friday evening Mrs. Cowing entertained a few friends, the occasion being the birthday of Mr. Cowing.

E. B. Greenough, of Berkeley California, an assayer, arrived in Gold Hill this week and has opened an assay office in the building where Mr. Ray has been experimenting on ores, on the corner of Main and Third street. He came to do some work for C. R. Rav, of the Braden mine.

Some fine mountain "smelt" were caught out of Rogue River by fishermen this week. A speckled beauty eighteen inches long is worth landing, and there were several caught nearly that long. Rogue river is a favorite stream for expert anglers who love exciting sport.

The Board of Trade meets at the Ditch Company's office on 3d street next Monday evening at eight o'clock. The chairman of every committee should be present, as abundant work is mapped out, and nearly every committee will have work to do.

We understand that six modern cottages are to be built in the Dekum addition to Gold Hill, which will be for rent, and three are already spoken for. More houses are needed.

Prof. P. H. Dailey reports one hundred and twenty school children enrolled in the Gold Hill public schools, and says that another teacher will be required next year.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. Mearkle, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie, Bedford county, Pa. For sale by Emery Eastman, Gold Hill, or Ben Haymond, Rock Point.

J. E. Ryan, a mining engineer, who has been in Gold Hill this week, having recently returned from New York, is one of the kind of rustlers needed in this section. He is in touch with capitalists of Portland, San Francisco, Spokane, Denver, Chicago and New York, and interests them in dividend paying propositions. Since Mr. Ryan is so frequently seen in Gold Hill it emphasizes the fact that he has strong faith in the future of this section as a great mining center. His time is too valuable to spend in a locality where dividend paying mines are unknown. We want capital interested in our mines and Mr. Ryan and his associates should be welcomed.

William Jennings Bryan the apostle of free silver and candidate for next president of the U. S. passed through Gold Hill on the afternoon train on his way north. As the train stopped here about two hundred of our residents assembled at the rear car and Mr. Bryan came out on the platform. Someone presented him with a bouquet of wild flowers. Grandpa Messner, who is a great admirer of Mr. Bryan, pushed into the crowd to shake hands and said: "Got pless you, Mr. Bryan, I vill live to see you next president of this country." and made quite a speech. Someone in the crowd said: "He is full Mr. Bryan; he will vote for McKinley." It was worth seeing to note the angry expression on the old gentleman's face, for he felt himself insulted.

THEY WILL BUZZ.—The Knights of the Maccabees will hold a smoker in the I. O. O. F. hall on next Tuesday, April 2. There will be plenty of enjoyment and entertainment and good cigars for all. Everybody invited.

RAINBOW SOCIAL POSTPONED.—The committee on arrangement for the rainbow social have decided to postpone the date of the entertainment for one week which will make the date April 12, one week from Thursday. The programme will appear in next weeks issue of the News.

A. R. De Fluent, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm, has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails." For sale by Emery Eastman, Gold Hill, or Ben Haymond, Rock Point.
