

The Pinkham Remedies

For disorders of the feminine organs have gained their great renown and enormous sale because of the permanent good they have done and are doing for the women of this country.

If all ailing or suffering women could be made to understand how absolutely true are the statements about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, their sufferings would end.

Mrs. Pinkham counsels women free of charge. Her address is Lynn, Mass. The advice she gives is practical and honest. You can write freely to her; she is a woman.

Taken Literally.

It was only playfully that she referred to her husband as "a regular heathen," but it is always well to label such remarks when made in the presence of children.

The little one who overheard this remark trotted away to Sunday school immediately thereafter, and in some way the subject of attendance at church came up in the class that day. "My papa doesn't go," volunteered the little one.

"No?" returned the teacher inquiringly.

"Oh, no. He's a heathen, you know."—Chicago Post.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

TAKES A WOMAN

To Insult Another Woman in a Sure, Effective Way.

"It takes a woman to insult another woman," casually remarked the man with a flower in his coat, "and I don't mean to insult the sex by saying it, either. It is simple fact." "Oh, very well," assented his listener. "But what do you call it beside 'simple fact' when you make such a sweeping charge?" "Well, for instance," said this man with a flower in his coat, "I was at a reception the other afternoon, where a pretty young woman, a local artist, was bidden to sing. She happened to be suffering from a bad cold, but rather than disappoint the hostess, who depended on her voice for entertaining the guests, she began bravely a well-known German song, which she does usually remarkably well. And then I was an eyewitness to a scene that illustrates my 'sweeping charge.' Seated directly in front of the singer were two ladies who disdained the art that had been fostered in a rival clique, and who were determined to let their victim see how despised she was, how bad her voice, how crude her method; at least this was all written on their countenances, as I saw them. The lady who knew it all signaled the lady who knew that she knew it all by pushing out a Boston boot and touching the other's foot. Indescribable weariness lifted the eyebrow of the lady who knew it all, and the lady who knew that she knew it all leaned forward, resting her chin in her glove, as though unable to hold herself erect an instant longer. And still the song went on! And still the ladies rustled and twisted, fastening their gaze blankly on the singer, but at last the lady who knew that she knew it all perceived her insult was not taking effect, and thereupon she arose, bidding her hostess good-by in the middle of the last verse with a great flourish." "And you think this is a nice thing to relate," cried a woman, who, happily for her, doesn't know a note of music." "No," said the man, calmly, "but was it nice of your sex to try to upset a fellow-creature, by letting her see how distasteful she was, not because she couldn't sing, but because here came a chance to pay off some old scores? Yes, I persist in saying that it takes a woman to insult another woman. I should never have dreamed of going out in the middle of a song given at a private drawing-room, no matter how much I hated the man who was singing it." "Perhaps not; but doubtless the lady was faint, ill, a wreck, and emotion was not good for her. That is the most charitable light in which to look at any such breach of good manners."—Boston Herald.

The Secrets of Planets Revealed.

The immense telescope which is now in process of construction is expected to bring the moon within a mile's eyesight of this world, and to reveal the secrets of all planets. It may cause as great a change in the world's thought as Hestetter's Stomach Bitters does in the physical condition of sufferers from dyspepsia, constipation, liver or kidney troubles. The Bitters strengthen the entire system, and also prevent malaria, fever and ague. Try it.

ANOTHER FAST TRAIN.

The Rio Grande Western Railway "The Great Salt Lake Route," has resumed its fast train services to the East, making the run from Portland to Chicago in three days and a half. No layover is necessary, and only one change of cars is made. Those who desire it have the privilege, however, of a day-light stopover either at Salt Lake City or Denver. Three daily express trains are run, leaving Ogden, Utah, at 7:15 a. m., and 1:15 and 7 p. m. The morning train carries a through standard sleeper to Chicago, via the Burlington Route, and the night train one via the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway. The tourist sleepers and chair cars run daily as formerly through from Portland to Denver. Twice a week tourist excursion cars are run through from Portland to Boston. All trains carry dining cars, making the trip across the continent, via "The Great Salt Lake Route," most desirable. The Rio Grande Western Railway is the only road running through Salt Lake City, and with its connections—the Denver & Rio Grande and the Colorado Midland—takes the passenger through the famous Rocky mountain scenery of Colorado.
