Vote for men who will use office as a public trust, and not as a private snap, for themselves and their favorites.

Cast your ballot on Monday for the straight Republican ticket and you will voice your selection of the best man for each office to be filled

P. H. Daily will be elected school superintendent and will prove himself an efficient officer. Swell his majority by casting your vote for him on Monday.

The people of Jackson county are not going to allow Alex. Orme to be supplanted as sheriff by an untried man. Mr. Orme has served the people well, and deserves another term.

Look out for the lying circulars usually issued on election day. No truth is ever sprung at the last moment. Lies, like mushrooms, spring up in the night and are full of poison which effect every one touching them.

Mr. Reames has advertised all over the district the fact that he is a "boy" by saying that Mr. Watson has called him such, a statement which is not true but the actions of that skyrocket candidate are certainly very boyish.

When you get your sample ballot study it carefully so that you will make no mistake when you get into the voting booth on election day. Remember, when you come to Congressman for the first district that the name of Thomas H. Tongue is the fourth on the list.

The candidacy of Hon. Thomas H. Tongue for congress is booming, and his majority is growing every hour. His experience in congress during the past four years and his unquestionable ability and tireless efforts in behalf of his constituents should give him an overwhelming majority at the polls, and will doubtless do so.

N. L. Narregan, the republican nominee, is splendidly equipped to make an ideal county judge. Besides his excellent legal and mental qualifications for the position he is a broad-minded gentleman who rises above the petty jealousies of geographical location and will administer the duties of the office for the benefit of the whole county. Vote for N. L. Narregan, whose number is 46 on the election ballot.

Prot. P. H. Daily has been a worker in Jackson County schools for eight years and has given entire satisfaction wherever he has taught—he is the Republican nominee for superintendent of schools. Mr. Stocking, his Democratic opponent, has been in the county scarcely one year. Who are you going to support—a man whom you have known for years or a comparative stranger?—Mail.

"Local pride" will have no effect this year in the little contest in the first congressional district. There has been too much of this "local price" manifest in the past, and Lake and Klamath counties will ignore it in the future. It is ability and influence at Washington that the people demand and Thomas H. Tongue is the embodiment of that. His opponent has not the one and would never acquire the other.—Lake Co. Examiner.

If A. E. Reames wants to retain his name as a truthful man he should confine himself to the truth in his political speeches. He has said that C. B. Watson had won only one case during his term as District Attorney. The records of the courts show that nineteen people are confined in the penitentiary today as the result of Mr. Watson's administration of the duties of prosecuting attorney. And that's no joke.

If you wish to have the affairs of your county properly managed elect N. L. Narregan and Thomas Riley to handle them for you. They are men who have proved themselves worthy of public trust by having successfully conducted their own business, and do not come to you with business failure of their own as a part of their history. You do not want anything but men who have successfully conducted their own business to care for yours.

Mr. Farmer, do you discharge your employe as soon as he has learned how to do just what you wish him to do, and employ a novice who knows absolutely nothing about the work you wish him to perform? When your employe has proved a most satisfactory one for you—one who works to your interests, do you dispense with his ser-ed the respect of every one whom he ever came in contact and that those who know him could not be changed in their intentions of supporting him for the position to which he has been nominated by the Republican party. Do not believe any of the underhanded slurs cast against him and on Monday cast your vote for W. A. Carter and the whole Republican ticket.

E. D. Briggs of Ashland is the Republican candidate for joint Representative between Douglas and Jackson counties. He has made an active canvass of Douglas county and from what we hear has gained many friends there. The people of this district could do no better than to elect Mr. Briggs to the position. For many years he has been identified as one of the most public spirited citizens of our county and a man meriting and having the confidence of all our citizens. He has one of the largest fruit orchards in the vicinity of Ashland and is engaged quite extensively in farming. He has also been largely engaged in mining and in all his ventures he has made a success. He knows what legislation is needed for the benefit of farmers orchardists and miners and has the courage of his conviction, to legislate for that which will advance these interests. The miners especially owe Mr. Briggs their hearty support. When the Ashland mine refused to pay its laborers, Mr. Briggs came to their vices and put yourself to the expense of teaching another to do the same thing? Assuredly not. Then vote to re elect Alex. Orme as sheriff, Gus Newbury as clerk, Peter Applegate as recorder, men who have proved themselves to be efficient and pains-taking public servants.

This is going to be a hard year for the fellow who is a "fusionist" in Oregon. He can't hurrah for the soldiers on Decoration day—that's militarism, as Judge Bennett and A. E. Reames call it; he can't help hoist the flag on the Fourth of July—that's imperialism, according to Judge Bennett and A. E. Reames; he can't tell his friends to come West and take up land in this state—that's expansion as Judge Bennett and A. E. Reames see it; he couldn't welcome the nation's president at the state capital—that's McKinleyism; he can't even get in with the rest of us and boast about the wonderful way Oregon is gaining in population and wealth and beauty and industry—that's prosperity. But when the election returns come in—well, he can go out behind the barn and cry—that's what he can do.—Lake County Examiner.

W. A. Carter, the Republican candidate for representative, deserves the support of every citizen of this locality and would no doubt receive the unanimous endorsement of the people of Gold Hill had it not been for the lying insinuations circulated by his unscrupulous opponent. Every man in this community knows that Will Carter is an upright, intelligent and trustworthy young man, who has attain-help. Advanced the money to carry on the litigation as the laborers had no means. He succeeded in collecting the money due and had it not been for his espousing there cause and for the skillful manner in which he managed the matter the miners would in all probability have lost upwards of $10,000.

A few years ago during the trouble the laborers had with Bouse in the mines at Foots creek. They selected Mr. Briggs to pilot them through. Owing to heavy prior mortgages on the property he was unable to collect in full but he took great interest in the matter and got for the mine laborers all that could be realized and when asked as to his charges he told the men that they needed the money more than he did and would be satisfied if they would refund to him his expenses ($20) which was done. Can the mining men of this section of the country vote against a man that has always been friendly to their interests, and who has always championed their cause. We think not. Mining men rally to the support of Mr. Briggs and let him know by your vote that you can appreciate his kind acts in behalf of the miners and mining interests.

Mr. Abrahams, his opponent, claim for the suffrage of the citizens of this district is not based upon merit or experience as he has only recently emerged from the hands of his tutors in law, of which the cunning Joseph Simon was master. And now not having any law practice (something his rich papa couldn't buy for him) he thought he wanted to play politician and the horded wealth of his father Sol Abrahams being at his disposal to indulge the boy, papa bought him this hobby horse to ride as it will keep the boy busy till election day anyway. The days of giving preference to candidates because of the merits of their sire is passed, though we think in this instance merit consists of gold horded by racial instincts and only will be shown by the returns to avail nought, when such claims stand against real genuine merit and capacity tried and proved, as Mr. Briggs' has been. Mr. Briggs' identification with the interests and progress of this county for years past, are the counterweights that will elect him for the office of Joint Representative on Monday next.

Mr. Briggs is a self made man and by his integrity and personal merit must receive the hearty support of all who know him.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50 cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. BABCOCK, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by Emery J. Eastman, Gold Hill or Ben Haymond, Rock Point.

To the People of Gold Hill.

Since my return from Southern Oregon I have been receiving many inquiries from persons who want to locate. I will remain here until about July 10. If any of your readers know of a vacant situation, (male or female) or of a good business opening, or a desirable farm or residence or mine for rent or for sale, etc., and will write to me, I can be of service to them. Address, E. C. PENTLAND, Independence, Oregon.
