With the majority of our citizens in the mountains and those at home doing little to make news items it is a hard matter to publish a paper of much interest.

The advance agent of Ringling Bros. big railroad show was in the city one day the first of the week billing the town for their show which will exhibit at Medford on Monday, September 10. This is one of the best shows on the road and will probably be the only circus to exhibit in the valley this year, so those of our readers who wish to see a good show should avail themselves of this opportunity of seeing something good.

HAND ON A SAW.—The first of the week J. T. Miller who was employed at the mill of James U. Smith on Sardine creek had the misfortune to get his hand against a small circular saw which nearly severed his thumb of his right hand which will keep him from work for a month or so.

SUMMER RESORTS.

"To the mountains our people in increasing numbers yearly look for those days of relaxation and recreation necessary to maintain the human machine in fair working condition. The languorous sloth of the seashore proves very seductive while it lasts, but may have decided that the annual outing should provide not only radical change of air and surroundings, but also such stimulation of flagging energies as will provide brawn and vigor for the return to labor. For this they urge the mountain climb and ramble, the balsam of the mountain pines, and the clear, unadulterated mountain air."

"In this direction the Shasta Route now affords a wealth of attractions. The entire line of road from Ashland to Redding is studded with charming and accessible hotels and camps, where are sheer and comfort and healing at reasonable cost, and where you can hunt, fish, ride, loaf, or play with equal facility."

"Or if you look for healing waters, none better can be found, hot or cold, than the springs of Ashland, Coolest, Anderson, Bartlett, Byron and Paso Robles."

"Before visiting Europe, the people of the Northwest should see the glories of Yosemite Valley, and the wondrous groves of Mariposa and Calaveras; the Parisians are likely to make inquiries concerning these attraction resorts."

Send to Mr. C. H. Markham, General Passenger Agent, Portland, for new booklets on Castle Crag, Shasta Springs, McCloud River, Yosemite, and excursion rates thereto."

It is unfortunate that some people do not work as hard to pay off their own debts as they work to pay off the debts of their church.
