A town in Pennsylvania, located over a coal mine, is sinking into the hole. Another discouraging drop in real estate.

SOMETHING NEW.—The Southern Pacific Company has just issued a pamphlet upon the resources of Western Oregon, which includes an excellent map of the state, and contains information on climate, land, education, etc., existing industries and their capabilities. Attention is also directed to such new fields for energy or capital as promise fair return. This publication fills a need long experienced by Oregonians, in replying to inquiries of eastern friends. Copies may be had of local agents Southern Pacific Company, or from C. H. Markham, G. P. A., Portland, Ore.

Now is the time when croup and lung troubles prove rapidly fatal. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results is One Minute Cough Cure. It is very pleasant to take and can be relied upon to quickly cure coughs, colds and all lung diseases. It will prevent consumption. E. J. Eastman.

In the present lively competition as to which state has a citizen, who has cast the largest number of votes for president Pennsylvania seems to be in the lead. Its entry is J. Wesley Walters of Philadelphia, who on Nov. 6th cast his eighteenth presidential ballot. He first voted for president in 1828, and is now ninety-four years old.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles, as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. J. W. Gardner, of Idaville, Ind., says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he don't care whether he lives or dies. It gave me new strength and good appetite. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at Eastman's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

The young folks of our town were out with tin pans, horns and bells Thursday night serenading R. L. Darling and wife who were made man and wife one day last week.

There's a plucky woman living over on the old Short place, across the river, which is now owned by a man by the name of Harris, of the Portage Road Co., says the Dalles Chronicle. Officers of the law, armed with writs of execution, have invaded that country for weeks and carried away everything lying around loose that belonged to anyone remotely related to the portage road. Two or three days ago a Justice of the Peace, Constable and a couple of able-bodied Klickitaters went to the Harris ranch and, exhibiting a writ of attachment, demanded possession of half a dozen cows that Mr. Harris' caretaker had driven into the barn before going afieid to work. The demand was made of the caretaker's wife and the plucky little woman, instead of opening the barn door to the invaders, excused herself for a moment while she stepped inside the house and, returning with a loaded Winchester in her hand, addressed the four men in these words: "You see this gun? Well, she's loaded for bear and I know how to shoot. You see that road that leads back to where you came from. Now you hit it, and hit it quick."

It is said one of the men threw up his hands and whined: "Don't shoot. I didn't come here for any trouble," but this is probably not true. It is true however, that the men hit the road in short order and the woman still has her cows.

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pains in the side or chest, give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. One application gives relief.

For sale by E. J. Eastman, Gold Hill, and Ben Haymond, Rock Point.

Edward Cudahy, Jr., who was kidnapped from the home of his parents in Omaha last Thursday was returned to his home after being kept thirty-six hours in close confinement without anything to eat. The kidnapers, six in number demanded $25,000 from the father of the child which was taken five or six miles up the river from Omaha by Mr. Cudahy and left by a lantern by the side of the road as instructed by a letter from the bandits. As yet there is no clue to the apprehension of the outlaws.

If you would have an appetite like a bear and a relish for your meals take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They correct disorders of the stomach and regulate the liver and bowels. Price 25 cents. Samples free, at Eastman's drug store.

A Cape Times correspondent has interviewed Mrs. Dewet, wife of the Boer General. She said: "You Englishmen will never catch my husband. He is going to win back for the Free-Staters what they have lost. He has enough food and ammunition to last for three years, and that is just how long the war is going to last."

Stops the Cough and works off the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

The Lakeview and Paisley stage was held up again last Saturday by a lone highwayman who demanded the letter mail sacks. After delivering the sacks, the driver whipped up his horses and within ten minutes notified the sheriff at Lakeview who immediately with the town marshal went to the scene of the robbery, where they found the sacks cut open and all the letters gone. Owing to the darkness of the night the robber could not be tracked, so the chase was given up till morning.

Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says, "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. E. J. Eastman.

Governor Geer has a level head. He is going about the selection of a text-book commission in the proper manner. Having asked the people of Oregon to name the men they think are fitted and qualified for the responsible position, he has a big list to select from. Of course, no matter whom the Governor selects, there are bound to be a few kickers. But the method employed in securing a list to select from will make the choice as near a public one as possible without the commission being elected by a direct vote of the people.—Eugene Register.

Help is needed at once when a person's life is in danger. A neglected cough or cold may soon become serious and should be stopped at once. One Minute Cough Cure quickly cures coughs and colds and the worst cases of croup, bronchitis, grippe and other throat and lung trouble. Sold by E. J. Eastman.

A thief in Paris, who was chased by the police, threw away, as he fled, the purse he had stolen, and was in a fair way, after being taken to the police station, of being allowed to go for lack of evidence to hold him. When his faithful dog, which had been trained to fetch and carry, trotted into the station with the purse in its mouth.

A Eugene correspondent attributes the low census figures in that city to the fact that many men have located homesteads on government land, and are only temporarily sojourning in town with their families. These people, the correspondent thinks, would number several hundred in Eugene.

At the time, when the beer manufacturers are supplicating congress for the removal of all or a part of the tax on beer it is interesting to know that American brewery plants will pay British stockholders more than $1,000,000 in dividends. This does not look as if the brewing companies were on the verge of bankruptcy because of the war tax.

MASONIC BANQUET.—One of the most magnificent affairs had in Gold Hill for a long time was the sociable and banquet given by the Masonic Fraternity of this place, Thursday evening at the I. O. O. F. Hall, it being on the occasion of Saint John's day. The guests were royally entertained during the early part of the evening by short addresses from a number of Masons, and by selections by the Gold Hill orchestra. At eleven o'clock the merry crowd repaired to the I. O. O. F. Banquet Hall, where a splendid banquet had been prepared. There were 64 guests present and everyone expressed their greatest appreciation of the entertaining qualities of Masons. Immediate steps will be taken toward the organization of a lodge of that order at this place.
