COMPLETE ROUT OF FEDERALS CERTAIN

Fleeing Mexican Troops Reach Ojinaga on Border in Demoralized State.

Presidio, Tex.—The complete rout of Huerta's federal army in northern Mexico with the frantic flight of his generals for safety on the border and the demoralization of the unpaid troops was established with the arrival at Ojinaga, Mex., opposite Presidio, of the civilians and soldiers who deserted Chihuahua city.

In the remarkable heira which struggled for eight days over the 185-mile trail through the desert and endured great hardships for want of food and water, were General Salvador Mercado, Huerta's deposed military governor, and commander of the federal troops in the north; General Pascual Orozco, General Antonio Rojas, General Marcelo Caraveo, General Ynez Salazar and a host of subordinate officers. They had deserted their posts in fear of General Francisco Villa's rebel army.

Along with them came, burdened with property they could carry, men, women and children, representing some of the richest families in the republic. Their flight with the army was in the face of reports that they might expect no mercy should they fall into the hands of the rebels.

Lives of Foreigners to be Safeguarded. Mexico City.—Foreigners must not be interfered with if fighting occurs in the federal district. This indication is contained in the general army orders. These orders specifically say that in the event of fighting the officers in command of the government troops must understand that the lives and property of all foreigners are to be respected.

MANY STOCK SHOW ENTRIES

Idaho Boys Win Hog Contest With Oregon Aggies Second.

Portland, Or.—With nearly 900 entries, the Pacific International Livestock exposition opened Monday morning at the Portland union stockyards, to continue throughout the week.

Idaho carried away first place in the students' judging contest and in the fat carload hogs. The team from the university of Idaho made an aggregate score of 2351½ out of a possible 3000, and won first prize, $80 in cash.

The remarkable development in the students' contest was the close score, a difference of only 64 points separating the four teams.

Oregon agricultural college was second with 2346; Washington state college third with 2331.

No More Veal on Hotel Menu.

Portland, Or.—Hotel keepers of Oregon, in an effort to lower the price of beef, will not serve veal to their patrons, if the terms of a resolution adopted by the Oregon state hotel association are carried out.

NEEDLE ATTACKS ON WOMEN TO BE PROBED

Newark, N. J.—Federal authorities probably will join state officers in an investigation of the poison needle mystery growing out of the experiences of Mrs. Marjorie Graff in a moving-picture theater here. So far the only arrest is that of Armand Megaro, a young South American, who is held in $20,000 bail on an assault charge made by Mrs. Graff after a man seated near her in a box jabbed a needle into her arm and she was seized with drowsiness.

The cases of five young women reported to have been victims of experiences similar to those of Mrs. Graff are being investigated by the police, and the attention of the federal authorities has been brought to the Graff case in connection with their inquiry into several white slave cases.

The needle used on Mrs. Graff had not been dipped in poison, so far as a microscopic examination showed. There will be an effort to obtain the nature of the drug used.

California Progressives Meet.

San Francisco.—From every congressional district of California the progressives of the state met here in party conference, repudiated their one-time "affiliation" with the national republicans, cheered their leader.

Ex-Train Robber Would Be Governor.

Oklahoma City, Okla.—Al Jennings, reformed bandit and train robber, who is now a respected attorney at law, will be a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor of Oklahoma next year.

Mrs. Hetty Green, the richest woman in the world, who recently celebrated her seventy-ninth birthday.

OUTLAW KILLED BY COWLITZ OFFICERS

Chehalis, Wash.—Deputy Sheriff Kirby and Howell, of Cowlitz county killed an unknown desperado just north of Toledo, 32 miles south of Chehalis, on the Cowlitz river. The dead man was one of a pair which, it is alleged, robbed the Castle Rock hardware store of Wehtje & Gehlman. The second man, believed possibly to be Mike Donnelly, a mulatto, a paroled convict from the state penitentiary at Walla Walla, made his escape.

The details of the immediate events leading up to the shooting are said to have been that when the sheriff's posse approached the outlaws the latter were on a level place at the top of a small hill and had their campfire in the middle of the trail. Salal several feet high surrounded the place. As the officers approached they ordered the two men to throw up their hands, and apparently they did so, stepping back out of sight and opening fire on the posse. The deputies began firing about the same time, and eight or ten shots were exchanged in all.
