The CITY MEAT MARKET

Fresh and Salt Meats :: Sea Fish and Foods in Season :: Our home cured Hams and Bacon :: Pure Leaf Lard

BLACKERT & GARRETT, Proprietors

FISHING TACKLE

Splendid assortment of Fine Rods—all prices—Silk and Linen Lines, Reels, Creels, Flies and Fish Lures—new Stock

Everything for the ardent Angler

The BoN-ToN

Special Prices All Next Week. Read Them.

3 lbs. Fine, Lage Raisins for 25c.
Best Toilet Soap; per Bar 5c.
An Excellent Cleanser per Can 5c'
And Hams will go at 22c per lb.

Big Values

In 5, 10, and 15 cent articles.

We Have

Flour, Sugar, Potatoes, and goods of the best quality, all new and clean.

At The Old Gold Hill Cafe Stand.

THE TRUAX CO.
Mrs. Cora J. Truax,
Manager

E. R. CROUCH, Assayer, Chemist, and Metallurgist.

Custom Assay Office. Mail Order Business Solicited Prices; Gold, $1.00; Gold and Silver, $1.25; Copper, $1.00; Gold, Silver and Copper, $2.00. Mailing envelopes free on request. Reference: Josephine Co. Bank. Rooms 201-203 Hall Bldg., Grants Pass, Oregon.

Local News Notes

It is high time to fly the swat.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Benson, were in from Foots Creek Friday.

Mrs. C. H. Bowman visited with friends in Grants Pass Thursday.

Professor B. G. Harding was in Rogueriver for a short time Wednesday.

For hard or soft wood of finest quality order from John J. Ritter, Phone 3F21.

Mrs. Fred Witt and son were visitors in Grants Pass between trains Tuesday.

Mrs. Horace Pelton returned Sunday morning from an extended visit to Portland.

Mrs. G. A. Landis and Miss Judith Balcom, were visitors at Medford Saturday last.

Butter paper, printed in accordance with the law, for sale on order at The News office.

B. J. Palmer, of Palmer's Piano Place, Medford, was in and around Gold Hill Tuesday.

Miss Mildred Costlet, of Jacksonville, has been the guest of Mrs R. H. Moore since Tuesday.

Mrs. H. L. White, returned to Gold Hill, last Saturday after spending several weeks in Medford.

Miss Claire Tucker arrived home from Berkely, Calif., where she has been attending the University of Calif., Sunday evening.

"The Master Key," a mystery film marvel. At the Comus.

Get your dynamite of D. H. Miller, all orders filled promptly any day in the week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence, on upper Kanes Creek, Wednesday, May 19th, a son.

J. W, Merritt was down from Central Point Wednesday on business concerning his local store.

Mrs. Sam L. Sandry and daughter, of Rogueriver, visited with Mrs. W. P. Chisholm Tuesday.

I saw cordwood to stove lengths with power saw, promptly on order. Phone John J. Ritter, 3F21.

Frank Hull, proprietor of the Savoy movie at Central Point, was in town Thursday and Friday.

For Sale—One 2A Folding Brownie in first class condition, also Portrait Attachment. Inquire at The News.

Mrs. Maude Stickle, who had been visiting with Mrs. Jennie Cheshire at Grants Pass, returned home Sunday.

Prof. Burt A. Adams took an auto load of seniors to the Valley Pride picnic in the Applegate district, Thursday.

Francis M. Fauvre, Asst. Treasurer of the R. R. P. S. corporation, was in town Thursday on business connected with that company.

Wood by tier or cord at lowest market price, delivered at your shed. Finest fir, pine, laurel and oak. John J. Ritter, Phone 3F21.

Found—Valuable pair of eye glasses, specially ground lenses. Owner may recover property by calling at News office and paying charges.

Roy Bowman visited with his mother in this city the first of the week. He has been employed on a ranch at Weed for several months.

A number of local people saw the circus at Medford on Monday, among them being C. C. McClendon, one of Gold Hill's pioneers.

20 hard-working men desire positions in the country at reasonable wages. Address Portland Commons, 195 Burnside St., Portland, Oregon.

T. N. Anderson left Wednesday for his mine beyond Grants Pass, after spending several weeks in this city attending to local business matters.

Gasoline and auto oils always on hand and for sale at unbeatable prices, at the Darling & Hodges stable. Gasoline street pump, prompt, effcient service.

Get your Pianos tuned by the home tuner. Beginning Feb. 15th, special reduction in prices for two months. Satisfaction guaranteed.—W. C. THOM.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weston, and J. B. Palmer were an auto party to the Applegate district Sunday.

Wanted to trade—Light driving team for 1200 lb. work horse.

DARLING & HODGES,
Gold Hill, Oregon.

You can buy flour for $1.85 that is guaranteed as good as any in town. Also have a small amount of alfalfa hay. Call at Fountain's Furniture store, south side of town.

Wanted:—Good milch cows, calves and ittle pigs, on time; deferred payments well secured. Address Sleepy Hollow Farm, Gold Hill; H. A. Ensign, A. E. Dixon, managers

Oliver Typewriters for sale and rent:—No. 5 Oliver Machines in first-class conditions rented at the rate of $4.00 for three months. —A. E. KELLOGG, Sales agent for the Oliver Machine.

J. B. Palmer, local photographer, was in Medford several times this week, making arrangments for opening a studio there. His many friends here will miss his smiling face and joyous whistle.

One of the largest crowds to gather at Rock Point for some time was assembled there last Saturday to witness and participate in the taking of the movie pictures of the early days.

Mrs. W. A. Marvin and son, Maxwell, came down from Medford, Wednesday to visit her mother, Mrs. W. H. Stickle. Mrs. Marvin returned to her home the following day, master Maxwell remaining with his grandmother.

For Sale at 1-2 price the following articles of furniture—Library table, writing desks, rocking chairs, book shelves, dining chairs, dining table, kitchen table, kitchen chairs, beds and springs, dressers, child's bed, stoves, tubs, fruit jars, and other articles.

—BURT A. ADAMS.

SALT! SALT!

Have just received a car of Leslie Salt DAIRY and TABLE

Our prices cannot be equalled--lower than ever offered!

Merritt & Company

General Merchandise

If you don't like this paper—don't borrow it.

A. A. Flynn made a trip to Grants Pass Wednesday on matters of business for the R. R. P. S. company.

Miss Olive Turner was a south-bound passenger to Klamath Falls, Sunday, where she will visit for some time.

Ernest Lyman returned from Eugene Sunday morning, where he was a participant in the Inter-scholastic field meet.

Just received a carload of dynamite for all purposes, with better prices, better powder, and better service, at D. H. Miller's.

Merl Kellogg, while participating in a friendly scuffle last Saturday evening, fell, and fractured his collar-bone when his pardner landed on top of him. He was taken to the hospital where it was dressed and relieved.

Orders taken for any book published in the United States. Also we are the subscription agent for all U. S. and many foreign magazines and papers.

—John R. Kelsey, with Gold Hill News.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership lately subsisting between A. E. Kellogg and W. C. Thom, of Gold Hill, Oregon, under the firm of Kellogg and Thom, was dissolved, on the 10th day of May, 1915, by mutual consent. All debts owing to the said partnership are to be received by said W. C. Thom, and all demands on said partnership are to be presented to him for payment.

—A. E. Kellogg,
—W. C. Thom.

Public Sale:—All kinds of machinery, tire bender, tire upsetter, mandrel, anvil, chain vise, drill, coal, and other blacksmith materials. Shoes fitted and unfitted. I desire to close out everything

—Valentine Schneider.

FOR SALE: STOCK RANCHES:

720 acres, solid body, in Meadows district, small house and good barn, old orchard in bearing, several good springs, about 40 acres under cultivation. Price $12.50 per acre.

665 acres, near Debenger Gap, 16 miles from Gold Hill, over 100 acres under cultivation, 10 room house, good barn, live creek through it, and several springs, all good land. Price $35.00 per acre.

200 acres near Beagle, finely improved, including stock and all agricultural implements, all tor $40.00 per acre. Terms.

604 acres in one solid body five miles out, Sams Valley district, nearly all under cultivation, no better alfalfa or grain land in this county. Price $100 per acre.

120 acres on Foots Creek, 7 miles out, 45 to 50 acres under cultivation, as much or more could be easily cleared and cultivated, almost unlimited range for stock, good house, two large barns, hog and chicken houses, good stream through it. Price $75.00 per acre.

160 acres near Asbestos, 20 miles out, some under cultivation, small house, large amount of small fruit, small bearing orchard, most of this is heavily timbered, unlimited range for stock, several good large springs. This is a bargain at $4500. Considerable stock and implements go with the place at that price.

Several other farms, large and small, several fine garden tracts from two up to 50 acres, improved and unimproved, several of them are decided bargains. If you want anything in this line it will pay you to call and see me, or write for particulars on any of the above.

—C. S. REDFIELD, Agent.
Gold Hill, Oregon.

BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

Miss Justice Carter was elected queen of the strawberry carnival at Roseburg.

Coos and Curry counties will hold their dairy show and annual fair at Myrtle Point.

The Polk county chautauqua will be held in Dallas this year from July 4 to 10, inclusive.

One thousand former students of Albany College are expected to attend a big reunion in Albany on June 15.

The Seventh Annual Live Stock Show will be held at Union Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, June 2, 3 and 4.

The twenty-seventh annual convention of the Episcopal diocese of Oregon opened Wednesday in Trinity church at Portland.

Governor Withycombe has issued a proclamation declaring June 11, the last day of the Rose Festival at Portland, Oregon's holiday of roses.

Mrs. W. H. Dancy of Salem, has been appointed a member of the advisory board of the industrial school for girls by Governor Withycombe.

For the purpose of perfecting an organization and mapping out plans for the future, the new fish and game commission will hold a meeting at Salem May 26.

Osteopaths, as well as other regularly licensed physicians, can sign death certificates, according to an opinion of Attorney General Brown, for the state board of health.

The second largest prune orchard in Oregon, which is located near Glide, Douglas county, has been purchased by J. H. Bond of Linn county, from Mrs. Grace W. Baker of Roseburg.

John C. Cady, the flax expert employed by the state board of control to install a flax plant at the penitentiary, has been authorized to go east and purchase the needed machinery.

Seventy-five of Oregon's 107 postmasters of presidential offices have accepted Postmaster Myers' invitation to attend a convention in Portland June 9, 10 and 11, during the Rose Festival.

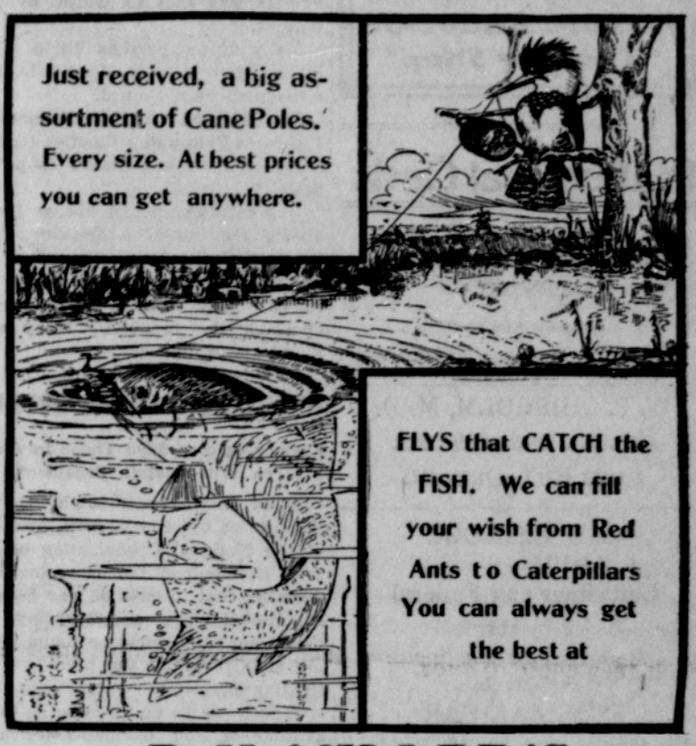
Construction upon the $230,000 Siuslaw jetty project should be under way be July 1, giving employment for 75 men more than two years, according to I. B. Cushman, chairman of the Siuslaw Port Commission.

Salmon by the thousands are clogging the Umatilla river just below the diversion dam for the West Umatilla project, unable to get above the dam, owing to the fact that the fish ladder is too short for the large-size fish.

Grant county is improving and shortening many of its roads. The county court has approved the Canyon City-Dayville road through the gorge of the John Day river, which has cut several miles of travel between the two places. The road was considered a gigantic undertaking because it had to be cut through solid rock for nearly a mile. The cost was $4000, much less than the estimate.

Governor Withycombe appointed Mrs. Clyde Apperson, of McMinnville, as a member of the Oregon Child Welfare commission, to succeed Mrs. J. H. Smith, of Astoria. Mrs. Smith resigned, not being able to devote sufficient time to the work. The other members of the commission are: Mrs. Robert H. Tate, chairman, Portland; Dr. Mae H. Cardwell, Portland; Geo. Rebec, Ph. D., Medford, and L. R. Alderman, Portland.

Just received, a big assortment of Cane Poles. Every size. At best prices you can get anywhere.



FLYS that CATCH the FISH. We can fill your wish from Red Ants to Caterpillars You can always get the best at

D. H. MILLER'S

Electric Cooking

ONCE A LUXURY, NOW A CHOICE.

Perfect cooking first demands a clean kitchen. Modern kitchens have no coal buckets or ashpans. There is an Electric Range built to suit your needs and at a price you can afford to pay.

Flat rate for Electric Range $5.00 per month. We have all the latest types of Electric Ranges on display in our office.

Ask for demonstration

CALIFORNIA-OREGONPOWER COMPANY :: MEDFORD, ORE.
Phone 168 216 West Main Street

Don't you think it would be safer to leave your money in the Bank?

We are insured against Burglary. Our vaults are fireproof.

THE GOLD HILL BANK