Last Chance For Recognition

Your Efforts Will be Evincd in Standing

Monday, Feb. 28th is the date set for the first count of the News Popular Publisher's and Merchants' Piano contest. In view of the short time allowed for each candidate it should not be necessary to reiterate the necessity of every contestant putting forth her best efforts in what is now termed the "recognition" period of the contest.

It is obvious that at no season of the campaign will a little conscientious work be more effective. You owe it to your friends to "try", if not to yourself. It costs nothing but a little effort which shows your appreciation of the opportunity and the courtesy and friendly spirit manifested by those who are watching your progress more than you imagine.

There are always surprises at the first count. Rumors and counter rumors are always in the air, but the wise candidate will give these no consideration. The main thing is to lay out a well defined campaign. Don't try to do it all in one day. The publisher will gladly give necessary instructions, names of subscribers and new prospects. Armed with these you know who you want to see and see a number each day. Your success depends upon your ambition.

The interest is growing each day, the subscribers are picking the ones they will support, therefore, the first count is a critical period. A few thousand votes now mean much. Hurry!!! Get busy today; tomorrow then will be easier. Subscription and merchant coupons should be saved by every family. One coupon has often been the means of awarding the beautiful piano. Above all things start today. The names of the contestants are as follows:

MISFITS: Ruled and Unruled

By All A. Boar

He kissed the babe far and near,
He called the ladies sweet and dear,
The boys he met with handclasp clear
And of the men he had no fear.

He said he'd like to buy the beer
For all the tipplers "there and here,"
But Oregon laws were made so queer
He could not do it and sail clear.

He wrote the voters all a note
About the way they ought to vote
And said their craft would surely float
With him as captain of the boat.

But after all the counted vote,
The daily papers held this note:
In spite of all the stuff he wrote
His party primary "got his goat."

Got His Goat? Yes, Got His Goat!
His party primary got his goat.

T. D. BALLARD
