TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS

With this issue the management of The Gold Hill News changes, and it will hereafter be conducted as a strictly local newspaper, boosting for the best interests of Gold Hill and its industries.

The old friends of The News are asked to continue their support and in time we hope to add many new friends to swell the number. A local paper lives or dies thru the efforts of its friends. We want the News to live to a ripe old age and to that end we will try to merit any and all support given us. We do not promise to perform impossible feats, but we do promise you that we will do our best to work for the prospects of Gold Hill all the time.

We realize that the paper has had many setbacks but in the course of time we hope to remedy all of its past faults and make it one of the best home papers in Southern Oregon. The field is here and it only rests with the people of this city to rally to the support of their home paper and help it make its promises good. No paper can succeed without support.

Our family is here and our worldly belonging will soon be here and we hope to live here for the balance of our natural life. To this end we ask you to bear with us and our efforts to please you. If we should displease you in any way tell us and we will appreciate it. This little paper is printed to serve Gold Hill and its people and we look to you all to help us make good.

Yours respectfully,
F. Wallace Sears.

You Will Have to Hustle To Win the Piano

Only Fourteen More Working Days in Which to Work for the Obermeyer & Sons Piano---Contest
Will Close Monday, April 17

If when you do a kind act you should fatally wait for the gratitude, you might thereby miss the opportunity of doing another, and failing to get what you have foolishly desired, and lose all the joy of life, or, having got it, lose the other chances of being satisfied. Best keep on trying then; what is done for others you may have done twice for yourself, for what is your object other than happiness, which never follows greed?

A piano is never a foolish possession.

Every time you spend a dollar put it some place where you can get a vote coupon and then turn it over to your chosen candidate. You won't be the only one doing this, and how do you know but that your little help will turn the trick and put the prize where you want it? You people who get out of yourselves once in a while and do something for somebody else, are beginning to learn the true secret of happy life, and once you get in the way you will keep it up forever you will speedily see that the millennium is no fickle dream, but a blessed reality, to be brought about by just such simple means.

No use to shout about the virtue of the piano or other prizes. All have become familiar with them. Now is the time for steady determined effort, the kind that wears and tears and makes character in the doing. Every one of these contestants, who have been working for the prize, will be better for the effort, even though there is only one piano and only one who can get it.

Who is to be the one? That is the momentous question. Do they at times see a vision of the dray stopping at their door, the men unload, tramping into the house with the beautiful instrument, the reward of their prowess and endeavor. How much interest did you take in such a dream? Have you not dream of your own! And how would you feel to have them realized? Don't you think you would have very much the same feeling could you in some way assist or have assisted in the realization of some such laudable ambition? Try it and see. Put forth the effort. Bear in mind some of the contestants whom you would like to see a winner and then go out and work.

When one can play it, all within the reach of its sweet sound are benefitted thereby.

Remember that six of our leading merchants are interested in this contest and give 25 vote coupons with every dollar's cash purchase to those who ask for them.

Following is a list of the contestants—		Mrs. Jessie Cook,	1850
Pearl Shanks,	142124	Lizzie Smith,	1800
Margaret Chisholm,	12425	Pauline Olsen,	1650
Letsy Hodges,	8575	The following are the enterprising merchants who give coupons:
Tynee Lyman,	7400	M. D. Bowers, Drugs,
Dolores Kelsey,	5825	M. S. Johnson, Implements and Hardware,
Hazel Knotts,	4875	Lance & Co., General Merchandise,
Agnes Flippen,	4700	D. H. Miller, Hardware,
Mrs. Esther Reed,	4175	Merritt & Co., General Merchandise,
