Christy Mathewson by Walt Mason

When Christy's dead a hundred years, the fans will still discuss his play, and sigh, while shedding briny tears, "There are no men like him today! He used the brains behind his brow, and gave the foe a grievous jar; the chroniclers have told us how he was for years and years a star. Great pitchers came and cut some grass, and died, and then forgotten were; he saw them come, and saw them pass, and still kicked up a mighty stir." The chroniclers will also tell how Christy, when a game was played, filled up the pipe he loved so well, to soothe his nerves, all tired and frayed. He smoked Tuxedo every time, the critic's smoke, the mild and rare, Tuxedo fragrant and sublime, the cool, sweet smoke beyond compare.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON
Pitcher-New York Giants

"Tuxedo gets to me in a natural, pleasant way. It's what I call good, honest, companionable tobacco—the kind to stick to."

Election Arguments Settled

"To be prepared for war is one of the most effective means of preserving peace"?

"No, you're wrong. It wasn't Roosevelt. It wasn't Wilson, either. You're simply guessing, now."

Well, make you can name offhand the 12 states in which women will be allowed to vote for President this year? No? My, but you're getting rusty. Better brush up your Historical knowledge right now by reading

"The Presidency of the United States"

This is a 48-page, vest pocket size manual, chock-full of reliable, authentic facts, dates, incidents, statistics, etc., about all past and present elections. It's the biggest little election argument settler you ever saw. You can obtain a copy at this office

UNKINDNESS.

As "unkindness has no remedy at law," let its avoidance be with you a point of honor.—Hosea Ballou.

Unkind language is sure to produce the fruits of unkindness—that is, suffering in the bosom of others.—Bentham.

Unkindness may do much. And his unkindness may defeat my life.

I hold if the Almighty had ever made a set of men that should do all the eating and none of the work he would have made them with mouths only and no hands, and if he had made another class that he intended should do all the work and none of the eating he would have made them with mouths and with all hands.—Abraham Lincoln.
