THE ONE-ATTEMPT MAN OR WOMAN

who, for example, publishes a Want ad once, and if it does not bring the results desired, decides that "advertising does not pay," should study the practical results, in all lines of endeavor, of perseverance. The law of "try again" is as potent in want advertising as in any other effort or enterprise.

Classified Rates: One cent per word, first insertion, 1/2 cent per word for each insertion thereafter; No advertisement inserted for less than 25 cents, cash with order.

D. H. Miller,

GOLD HILL,

OREGON.

He's cured our gouts and indigestions by picturing the "Foolish Questions," that idle gents are always asking; and in his genial humor basking, we can forget a while the sorrows that seem to threaten our tomorrows.

This Goldberg is so dad-blamed funny he makes all human life more sunny; when you are looking at his drawings you cease your frettings and your pawings, and just lean back and grin and chortle, and say, "His fun is more than mortal." His wit is sure an endless bloomer, and naught can stay his flow of humor. As he maintains his pictured joking, the rich Tuxedo he is smoking. No doubt while plying his vocation, he finds in that an inspiration, like countless others, who, as winners, find "Tux" as useful as their dinners.

R. L. GOLDBERG
Creator of "Foolish Questions," "I'm the Guy," "Movie Cartoons," etc.
"I find in Tuxedo a good tobacco. Its fragrance and flavor are fine. I use it regularly and endorse it highly to all my friends."

Election Arguments Settled

"To be prepared for war is one of the most effective means of preserving peace"?

"No, you're wrong. It wasn't Roosevelt. It wasn't Wilson, either. You're simply guessing, now."

Well, make you can name offhand the 12 states in which women will be allowed to vote for President this year? No? My, but you're getting rusty. Better brush up your Historical knowledge right now by reading

"The Presidency of the United States"

This is a 48-page, vest pocket size manual, chock-full of reliable, authentic facts, dates, incidents, statistics, etc., about all past and present elections. It's the biggest little election argument settler you ever saw. You can obtain a copy at this office

10c Postage 2c

To possess information is always desirable. Even a fence should be "well posted." You'll certainly need this book during the coming election. Get your copy today. Just fits the vest pocket.
