Gold Hill To Have A New Publisher

Gold Hill is very soon to have a new Editor and publisher.

As announced to our many friends over a month past, the present management of the Gold Hill News is to be changed. Our readers will remember that H. E. Wharton, who last year on Mother's Day went down and out under a bolt of lightning and suffered from an attack of Leal poisoning was ordered to vacate the printing plant and seek outside occupation. Well he didn't do it. He thought he could 'put one over' on Dr. Chisholm, but Doc C. is not so easy to fool as might be supposed. The effect of the lead as well as the lightning stayed 'put' and this season has made life well nigh unbearable. You know, folks, a fellow with a tummy-ache is just no dad-burned good as a newspaper operative. He is too durned grouchy, and liable to get off on the wrong foot, beside he 'aint liable to take a joke' the right way. Ah, well, we have been at the helm of the News for almost ten years. A much longer time than any other newspaper man ever in Gold Hill. We are proud of our good enemies and have a few bad ones also. The new man, who will take possession on or shortly after the 1st of August is one C. J. Shorb and is a very well recommended publisher from much larger towns. He will soon learn to love Gold Hill as much as we do and will form the same impressions of the people here that we have, except that the new fellow is free from 'tummy-ache' and being a jovial, likable mixer will go much farther here than we ever could and we know Gold Hill and North Jackson county folks will thank us for bringing him and his family here.
