

Local Notes

George Childers is confined to his home on account of illness.

Swan Peterson of Jackson Creek was a visitor in the city, Monday.

Jimmy Burns paid our neighboring city of Medford a call Monday.

Sam Sandry of Rogue River was a visitor in the city Monday Morning.

Johnny Logan was a visitor in the city from Corvallis over the week end.

H. A. Radtke spent several days in Portland the first of the week looking after business.

Chas. Orr athletic coach returned from Eugene where he was a holiday visitor.

The infant child of H. A. Radtke was ill the last of the week but is now much improved.

Several of the local stores are taking inventory of their stocks to check up on the year's business.

Editor and Mrs. W. T. Bray of the Jacksonville Post passed through this city Sunday on their way north.

Supt. and Mrs. Bluet returned Sunday evening from Eugene and Portland where they spent the Yuletide.

Logan Gardner has returned from North Bend and taken up school work again after a weeks vacation on the coast.

Tony Ross returned this week from Portland and Salem where he had been on business connected with the city government.

M. B. Meriman has been ill the past week and confined to his home. He is now on the mend however and will soon be about again.

Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Gaines have moved to Glendale where Mr. Gaines will take active charge of the work of the Glendale Log in that city.

For 20 days you can get an extra pair of pants with each Tailored suit of clothes purchased from me. No advance Tom Vedder. Gold Hill.

Miss Mellinger, commercial teacher at the high school returned Monday from Newburg, Oregon where she spent the holidays with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Fullerton and baby of Roseburg were visitors in the city Friday. Mr. Fullerton continued on to Medford to attend to business in that city while Mrs. Fullerton visited in the city as the Coy family.

Quite a number of local young people attended the dance Friday night at the Wimer hall. Wimer had the biggest dance of their history on New Years eve.

Dr. Hall of Hubbard, Ore. and Paul Robinson and Ray Reasoner of Central Point were business visitors in the city Monday attending a meeting of the Kel-Mar-Pet Mine Co.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wharton and family and Miss Evagene Starns returned from Portland the first of the week after a visit with relatives at that place and Hillsboro.

Editor Robinson of Central Point was a visitor in the city last week end. Mr. Robinson is quite heavily interested in mining in this district he being one of the heavy stockholders in the Kel-Mar-Pet mine on the Sams Valley road on the edge of the city.

The home of Mrs. Vose is quarantined with Small Pox and Bert Ross' home with Scarlet fever. There seem to be no other cases at present and local health authorities are taking every precaution to isolate these cases so as to prevent their spreading.

A. E. Kellogg has spent a considerable time the past week at his mining claim on Foothills creek. He is very much enthused about the prospects in that vicinity and he expects that it won't be long now until he will have some startling news to give out. He says that the Foothills creek mine is one he wouldn't sell.

Mrs. Fred Guy returned to Stockton, Calif., after spending a week in the city with her husband our popular Realtor. Mrs. Guy is spending the winter in the southern city while her children are attending school.

Dick Morelock was in the city Monday from his farm west of the city. He says everything looks lovely for a banner year this year and he is rapidly getting things in shape to start in the chicken business this spring. Dick, like most of the rest of our farmers is going to add poultry and eggs to his other products and thus insure himself of a weekly pay check.

A bas'et dinner is planned for Sunday at the Methodist church. The workers in the church have been receiving wonderful aid from the Pattersons of Medford who have gratuitously been doing the preaching at this church in the endeavor to build it up. Sunday will be a big day at the church as may be seen by a perusal of the church notice in another column of this issue. Everybody interested in church work is invited.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST

Sunday school will be held Sunday January 9th at 10:00 a. m. The Communion service will be at 11:00 a. m. All children not in Sunday school elsewhere are cordially invited to attend. All the young people will enjoy the Christian Endeavor meeting which we are planning to organize Sunday. We will not be able to have the pastor with us this week as he has left Grants Pass and is now in San Francisco. Don't miss the other services.

Stock steers so fed as to make large gains in winter make smaller gains the following summer on Oregon range grass, says the animal husbandry department of the experiment station. For every pound a steer gains in winter he makes at least one-half pound less gain the following summer on grass.

Peach blight is said by the experiment station to be the most serious disease of peach trees in Oregon. It blights buds in the fall and winter and spots the fruit, twigs and leaves in the spring and summer. Early fall spray with Bordeaux 4-4-50 as soon as the fruit is off gives fall and winter protection, unless the disease was given a start by early rains. Where the disease is bad it may be necessary to spray again in the spring beginning when the shucks drop off the first and using a non-caustic sulfur spray. Unless sprayed for at the right time this disease soon ruins an orchard.

Several things in the way of more profitable marketing of dairy products in Oregon can be done by a group which cannot be done by an individual creamery acting alone the experiment station. The first and most important is advertising which must be done more regularly and extensively if butter is given an im-

NEW STUDENT

Alma Morris of the second grade has entered the Gold Hill School. She formerly went to school at Ashland.

Coach Orr is starting right in with the basket ball team where he left off when vacation started, and he says that from now on the practices will begin to get stiffer.

STUDENTS GLAD TO BE BACK TO SCHOOL

The students are glad to settle down to work after the two weeks of vacation they have been enjoying.

This week will be spent in reviewing and next week will be the semester exams.

STUDENTS SICK

Cleo Richman is confined to her home on account of illness. Billy Betts is also on the sick list.

ATHLETIC MEETING

A meeting of the High School Students interested in Athletics was held at the school Tuesday December 21. For the purpose of organizing a Girls and Boys Athletic Association.

Lloyd Scott was elected President and Barbara McQuat Secretary.

TEACHER IN AUTO CRASH NEAR PORTLAND

As Miss Blanche Mellinger the Commercial Teacher of the Gold Hill High School was journeying to Portland Sunday January 2, to catch the train for Gold Hill, five cars skidded on the slippery pavement and crashed into each other, one of them unluckily being the one Miss Mellinger was the occupant of. The wreck occurred on the Pacific Highway between Newburg and Portland.

No one was seriously injured, but Miss Mellinger was pretty badly shaken up, and also the wreck caused her to miss the train.

NEW TEACHER

Mr. Ben Vimont is now teaching the 5th and 6th Grades and will continue to do so the rest of the year.
