

Local Happenings

Boys Sunday January 8 to Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of Sardine Creek, a girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hass of Santa Rosa Calif., were visitors in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. A. E. Kellogg is assisting at the Tom Smith home during the illness of Mrs. Smith.

Mesdames Geo. Hammersty, Clyde Walker and W. W. Little were Medford visitors, Tuesday.

Twins, a girl and a boy were born to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith, of this city, Sunday, January 8.

Henry Miller, former Gold Hill mayor and merchant was a visitor in the city from Grants Pass today.

High Class Minstrel show under the auspices of the United Artisans, Medford W. O. W. hall. February 1st. Adults 75c Children 35c. J3-27

Mrs. E. H. Radtke, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Merriman, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Shorb and daughter Eileen, motored to Glendale Sunday and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Gaines.

Chas. G. Bluett, principal of the local schools has been suffering from an infection of the leg but is able to be about this week. While Mr. Bluett has at no time been confined to his home the injury gave him no little inconvenience in attending to his school duties.

ENTERTAIN COUNCILMEN
The members of the local W. R. C. entertained at a very sumptuous luncheon at their meeting rooms in the city hall building in honor of the city council. Both the old and newly elected officers were invited guests. The ladies acquitted themselves in wonderful shape and those members who did not partake of the W. R. C. surely did themselves an injustice.

EDGAR ALLEN POE

Many of the local people were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Edgar Allen Poe, who for the past year and a half has been a resident of this city.

Mr. Poe has been rather infirm ever since his arrival in the city but has never failed to make his regular visits to the business section.

Monday morning at about 11:30 Mr. Poe went to the Stevens home, which is located on the lower floor of the Poe residence and asked for some soda. While sitting in the Stevens home Mr. Stevens asked him how he felt to which he answered that he was feeling much improved. He had scarcely made the remark before he crumpled over and within a minute or two was dead. The body was removed to Medford and there awaits word from the elderly man's relatives. Mr. Poe was about 64 years of age at the time of his death.

PROGRESS AT THE CHURCH IN GOLD HILL

Last Sunday was a big day at the church. The excellent attendance indicated the intention of every one to settle down to a good winter of church work.

After Sunday school and church service a basket lunch was served. There were pies and cakes and salads more than enough and the sensation of the occasion was a mammoth chicken pie, brought by Mrs. Hedgepath. It was sixteen inches across and three inches thick and we are still wondering how she managed to have it served steaming hot. Following the feed was a business meeting with a fine representation of the Christian people of Gold Hill. L. L. Smith presided.

Among the things decided upon were the following; the piano is to be tuned, the stove is to be moved, song books are to be ordered and following many expressions of approval, it was decided to retain the services of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. F. M. Parker was elected Sunday school superintendent by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Chaney, the District Superintendent of the M. E. Church was present at the meeting representing the interests of the Methodist conference.

Next Sunday there will be Sunday school as usual at 10 o'clock and church services at 11. Mr. Patterson will speak on Luke's Message to Gold Hill.

If you are missing these services you are missing a treat.
