Rogue Popular On 4th

There are still a great many people who enjoy the great out-of-doors on such occasions as the 4th of July. This was attested too by the vast throngs that swarmed to the banks of the Rogue on Wednesday. Every camp spot on the river appeared to be full and almost every rifle had fishermen upon them. The day was cool and pleasant and camping was ideal.

Resigns as Marshall

John Hammersly handed in his resignation as city marshal at the council meeting Monday night, which was accepted and Ray Thompson was appointed by the city council.
