MRS. QUAKENBUSH TO OPEN GOLD HILL HOSTELRY SOON

Mrs. Ruby Quakenbush will soon open the old Gold Hill hotel to the travelling public. The hotel has been under the management of Mrs. Susie Coy for the past several years but recently Mrs. Coy moved to her home on Fifth street and gave up the active operation of the hotel.

Mrs. Quakenbush is not new in the catering and hotel business in this city as she but recently sold her interest in the Hi-way Inn to Mrs. Bertha Wyatt, the present owner.

Warren Coppock is at present busy with the retinting and repapering the interior of the dining room preparatory to the opening. Mrs. Quakenbush expects to take possession about the first of March.

Something for Nothing

It can't be done! It isn't in the cards! Your dollar is worth 100 cents and nowhere can you get 125 cents for it. Of course you can get 90 or 80 cents—But we have adopted this policy—A fair value in exchange.
