The Sylvanite has completed the installation of a new hoist at their property east of this city. This new improvement is capable of handling twice the load of the one formerly in operation. Other work at the mine is progressing nicely according to Supt. Haff.

Joe Hammersly was in from the Applegate country Wednesday. He is employed at the War Cry Mine, property of Jack Hayes, William Whybar and Mr. Hammersly. The local parties have this mine under bond and have been doing development work there for the past few weeks. They have installed a Gibson mill and expect to have it under operation before the end of the week. They have a fair sized body of ore blocked out. This mine is located in Ferris Gulch and was formerly known as the Laton property. Mr. Hayes has several specimens of ore from this mine at his place of business in this city, which look very promising.
